OFFICE OF THE SHERIFF

FREEHOLD, N. J. May 25, 1942

E. E. Conroy, Agent-in-Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
1836 Raymond-Commerce Building
Newark, New Jersey

Dear Sir:

Celia McKinley and Colin McKinley, trading under the name of "Celia Brown" had a restaurant at 18th. Avenue, Belmar, New Jersey, and now have a restaurant at Fort Dix.

We understand that Mrs. McKinley made a donation of ten percent of all of her income to Camp Nordlund and that she is still active in the New Era organization and the Bund.

She is in some way connected with Strunk and Son, Inc., 354 Washington Street, Newark, New Jersey. Mr. Strunk is alleged to have contributed funds to the Bund. He had an employee named Fredrick LeVine who was approached by Mrs. Celia Brown (McKinley) to contribute ten percent of his income to Camp Nordlund. Mr. LeVine refused and Mrs. Brown asked Mr. Strunk to discharge Mr. LeVine.

This is submitted to you for your information.

Yours truly,

John T. Lawley
Sheriff

This magazine is given you by a man of very moderate means, who buys one hundred copies each week, and gives them away in an humble effort to help spread information on the danger of communism.

Father Coughlin is far from being Anti-Semite regardless what you have been told - he condemns Jew Communists and Gentile Communists in the same breath. Any one who wishes to know the truth can write him for a booklet containing the speeches in which Jews were mentioned. You can hear him on the radio each Sunday at 5 P. M., W. H. B. I. Newark, 1250 K.

If you want to be correctly informed on important subjects and also help a great American prevent Communism taking over your Country mail $3.00 to Father Coughlin, Royal Oak, Michigan, for one year subscription.

DO YOU WANT TO DO SOMETHING to help prevent our young men from being slaughtered in foreign countries. It is almost too late but it can still be prevented if sufficient people can be correctly informed on what is going on. We need to think straight and cool.

The United States should have proper defense, improve the economic condition of her people at home and attend to our own American business.

Heed George Washington's advice by staying out of European Wars.

There is a clique of people in this country who think more of Great Britain than America, they are a noisy small minority. They are doing everything possible to arouse our emotions and paralyze our judgment so they can trick us into war which will bankrupt our country. Then we will be easy prey for Communism.

Do you want to be informed in the future? If you do not have time or you are not skilled enough to sift out the propaganda from the newspapers and radio—if you want the facts and the true American viewpoint—if you want to be a better loyal American—do this.

Secure a copy of Social Justice Magazine each week from some one selling them or send in a subscription to Social Justice Publishing Co., Royal Oak, Mich. $3.00 per year—six months $1.50—four months $1.00.

Then for a daily newspaper buy the New York Journal and American or any other Hearst newspaper and read Mr. Hearst's column—IN THE NEWS—then you will want to urge others to do likewise.

Let us try to preserve America in spite of the War Mongers spreading war hysteria.

If you want to do something worth while for your Country and your loved ones as soon as you are convinced of the above facts have several thousand of these printed and distributed so others may know.

Help spread this over the United States before it is too late.

Walter Winchell In New York

On the eve of the America First speaker's bureau, who is making a speech in New York City, and how... Hitler is losing on the ground in Russia, in the air over Germany and on the sands of Africa. He seems to win only in Congress!

phase of the smear campaign. Sunday, July 26, he told his nationwide toilet lotion audience:

"Nearly everyone who printed seditious articles has been indicted except those who put the same things in the Congressional Record... But, honorable—all of them will be confronted by the same charges after November 5th."

And speaking of "sabotage," on July 12th Lieutenant Commander Walter Winchell, U.S.N., after saluting the FBI for capturing the eight saboteurs landed from U-boats, asked his radio audience:

"How about the voters going after those other saboteurs who landed in Congress?"

A few days later he concluded his gossip column with this cowardly slur implying treason:

"Another reason some congressmen are demanding the eight saboteurs be shot is that they might talk too much."

Since the United States entered the war, Lt. Comdr. Winchell has written and broadcast a continuing barrage of jibes and blasts at Congress, and has referred to the elected representatives of the people as "dopes," "hams," "soreheads," and "saps."

Is this the kind of treatment the Legislative branch of the Government should expect from a commissioned officer?

In the August 15 issue of Liberty he writes a scurrilous piece about "Americans We Can Do Without in Congress—yes, within the so-called sacred portals of the Congress of the United States."

"An officer," according to the Articles of War, is prohibited from employing "contemptuous or disrespectful words against... Congress of the United States," and if found guilty of such conduct "shall be punished as a court-martial shall direct."

As Lt. Comdr. Winchell would say... "Why isn't something done about it?"

Winchell's 'Trap' Story Is Repudiated by F. B. I.

U.S. Gave Out No False Rumors on Roosevelt Trip

From the Herald Tribune Bureau

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The Federal Bureau of Investigation vehemently denied all knowledge today of a report which originated in London and was revived again last night in a New York radio broadcast to the effect that twenty-two persons—some of them high in government circles—had been trapped when they relayed a message to Germany that President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill were meeting in Canada.

According to the stories, the F. B. I., in an effort to stop a "leak" in Washington, put out a purposely misleading story at the time of the Casablanca conference that the President and Prime Minister were meeting in Canada. The idea apparently was to see whether and how quickly this false story would reach Germany, and to apprehend, if possible, the persons who sent the message. Less than twenty-four hours later, according to the story, the German short-wave radio announced the false news of the Canadian meeting, and as a result the men involved were trapped.

A spokesman for J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the F. B. I., was ready to answer questions about the story today. He began by saying that he had been answering them all throughout last night since the radio broadcast of Walter Winchell, columnist for "The Daily Mirror" of New York, had revived the reports.

The spokesman said there was no false rumor circulated, there were no men taken into custody by the F. B. I. And further "the F. B. I. knows nothing about this particular case."

Efforts to check the War Department's G-2 (Army Intelligence) as to the veracity of the report, likewise proved unavailing. However, the War Department facetiously suggested that "since Mr. Winchell is a commodore of some sort, you'd better contact the Navy."

Navy Department officials said they knew nothing of the matter, and the next suggestion was that the F. B. I. be contacted since every one knows J. Edgar Hoover feeds such stuff to Mr. Winchell. Apprised of this the Hoover spokesman denied that Mr. Hoover feeds out anything to any one.

A "spot check" of Winchell's column by the NEW YORKER, a popular magazine revealed that for accuracy the Navy's "pride and joy" was batting well below 50%.

Did you know Winchell is a self-confessed dupe of Axis agents?

WE'D BETTER MAKE A CHANGE

We hope that every father and mother with a boy in France read and studied the words of Mr. Churchill, the Prime Minister of the British Empire, which he delivered to the House of Commons a few days ago. We hope that the full import of those words sank into the heart and soul of Grady county fathers and mothers whose sons are flying big bombers over the continent or crouching in mud filled fox holes in front of the Siegfried line. Mr. Churchill proudly declaimed that for every two Englishmen fighting in France there were three Americans beside him. For every Britisher who has died in the battle of France two American boys have given the supreme sacrifice.

No wonder that every British newspaper is pulling and begging for the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt to a fourth term. No wonder that Canada to the north of us is a shouting rabble for the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt. We can understand why every Englishman should be for Mr. Roosevelt. But we cannot understand why Grady county fathers and mothers should be carrying the Roosevelt banner. Why should three Grady county boys be transported 3000 miles to fight beside two Britishers who had to be taken only 100 miles to fight for freedom. Why should two Grady county boys give up their lives and be buried on the hills of France and only one Britisher be taken back to be buried in his beloved England.

These are things to be pondered and studied. These things should be studied by the father who says he is going to vote for Roosevelt because he wants to bring his boy back home safely. They should be studied before the ratio is three to one in favor of our English allies.

The facts are that we have fought this war both on the war fronts and the home fronts according to the English plan. The red and blue points, the entire rationing system was a direct importa-control, the idea of bureaus having the right to supercede the courts and the constitution was the English home front system put into effect here.

Up in Canada everybody is singing a ditty which runs "Don't change horses in the middle of the stream or you will get your pants wet." Maybe we had better get our pants wet before the three million American boys now fighting in France are transported to the Orient to save India, Singapore, and Hongkong for the British Empire. Maybe it would be better to get our pants a little wet before we change our entire American system of government for the British way. We better make a change and put a man in the White House who believes in the American way and will not be carried away by the back slapping of Mr. Churchill.

It was only a few months ago that Mr. Churchill said, "You send us the tools and we will do the job. We have sent him the tools, we have sent Stalin the tools and we are sending today three men to man the tools for every two Britishers who handle the tools. Is this a fair distribution of the war burdens?"

Mr. Roosevelt recently announced the air bases which the U. S. had bought in Canada had been turned back to the British government at $14,000,000 less than they cost us. It is reported that every air base now being used by us in England is being rented by the government at a fancy price. All this is under the lend-lease system promulgated by Mr. Roosevelt. It is likely under this system we will be in debt to the British Empire when this war is over.

There can be no change in the war on Germany. We hope that war will be closed before Mr. Roosevelt ends his present 12-year term. But there is time to make a change before we enter upon the war in the Orient. We need a man in the White House who will tell Mr. Stalin and Mr. Churchill certain things about what America will do and America will not do in the war against Japan. Let's have a man in the White House who will tell Mr. Stalin that it is time he made war against Japan, the common enemy of all. Let's put a man in the White House who will tell Mr. Churchill that England, Canada and Australia should carry the brunt of the battle in the Pacific for it is the possessions of the British Empire that we will be fighting to save out there. We know Mr. Roosevelt will not do those things, we hope Mr. Dewey will.

Fellow American:

Those who are informed know that Korea is just another bloody trap which will grow and grow, drawing in more and more of our boys to cope with the 500 million Chinese. China has been regimented and armed by Stalin. The plan is to involve the United States on such a large scale, bleeding us white, then Stalin's many trained divisions will march through Germany, France, Austria, Italy, England. The architects of this whole plan are well-known, influential Marxists here in the United States. The plan is to create this world-wide conflagration while steadily bringing all manpower and industry in the U.S. under the Invisible Marxist Government which completely rules Washington. Then the U.S. will have Communism more ruthless than the Soviet Union.

The boiled-down recipe for saving our country from Red Slavery is this: LET ENOUGH PEOPLE KNOW THE FACTS ... EXPOSE THOSE WHO DIRECT THE ATHEISTIC PLAN, AS WELL AS THOSE WHO ARE FOOLED INTO FRONTING FOR THE MARXISTS. This is what the enemy has tried to prevent. With more than 400 Marxist-controlled publications in the U.S. and daily papers depending upon the good will of advertisers (the majority of whom are Zionist-Marxists) you will readily see the urgent demand for a courageous paper, independent of advertisers and financially able to publish large numbers frequently.

COMMON SENSE has been published for nearly five years; the first year no funds were asked for or received. Hundreds of thousands of papers were sent out free, the editor financing until his funds were exhausted. During the time COMMON SENSE has been published, three million papers have been distributed through all states and no one has ever challenged the truth of even one paragraph. At the present time two to seven mail bags of patriotic literature go out of our office each day.

Many of our exposures have shocked people who could not, at the time, believe what was printed. We do not wait until it is popular to expose a Communist or a fellow traveler. Most of those currently being featured in daily papers as disloyal to America were exposed two or three years ago in COMMON SENSE. We do not use valuable space in COMMON SENSE to "blow our own horn." It would take an entire issue to briefly review what we have accomplished (much of it necessarily quietly) and tell of the important people in this work who give us valuable cooperation. COMMON SENSE has, however, been first to expose several Communist fronts and has wrecked several of them. We are indebted to the loyal Americans who think enough of their country and Christianity to support us in keeping with their ability.

If we can increase our income $900 per month we could have the urgently needed additional help and publish weekly instead of bi-monthly. This would allow us to print and circulate 60,000 more papers each month. An additional $500 per month (a total of $1400 additional) would allow us to print and circulate 50,000 each week or 200,000 per month instead of the present 60,000 per month.

It is possible to accomplish this at such a low cost due to the fact that the editor draws no salary and much work is done by volunteers. Still, we must have some paid, regular help; we are mailing three times the volume we did a year ago. With proper financing we could produce a much better paper, a paper with force enough to back up the good Senators and Congressmen, and bring about the defeat of those who are now influenced by the Marxists.

The election has meant much activity for us and our funds are completely exhausted. WE MUST REACH MORE PEOPLE WITH THE TRUTH. You are needed as a friend of COMMON SENSE and you will enjoy knowing you are a part of the crusade to keep America free. Let us not be satisfied with these wonderful victories of the election. The enemy will work harder and be more deceptive. They are still in complete control of Washington and will involve us deeper in war and still carry out their program through war controls. Let us increase our activity until we have completely eliminated them.

The attached sheet will tell you what YOU can do to help preserve our country. Join us, please, in this battle of Americans for America!

For Christ and Country,

McGinley

Why Pick on Walter Winchell?

Why bother to pry into the private affairs, probe the public pronouncements and speculate about the malicious motivations of a garrulous gossip-monger?

Why take the time and trouble and use up good white paper, printer's ink and manpower, in the middle of a great war, to spotlight the antics of a ridiculous mountebank and explore the distorted convolutions of a puny and putrid mind?

The answer is a simple patriotic one.

Walter Winchell has been bribed or cajoled by an Internationalist Cabal into service as a frightening Twentieth Century Golem made of newsprint pulp and wired for sound in imitation of that awesome Golem of four centuries ago—an idol fashioned in Europe by demagogic fear-mongers to terrorize and exploit their people with exhortations to confusion and disunity.

To destroy the evil efficacy of this present-day Golem, it is necessary to reveal the workings of its sorcery—the linotype in its loins and the microphone in its bowels.

The import of Winchell's role can be fully understood only when it is recognized that the United States of America is in the throes of a great internal ideological conflict. The sinister forces of Internationalism, Communism, Collectivism and Left Wing New Dealism, are slugging it out with Individualists who still believe in Constitutional government and the American Way of Life.

Walter Winchell is in the forefront of this conflict to destroy, by any means — mostly insidious — every vestige of SOUND American thought, speech and action, the while he bleats spurious protestations of Star-Spangled patriotism.

For twenty years Walter Winchell has perpetuated the hoax of seeing all, hearing all, telling all . . . and knowing all. Gullible millions have accepted his column and broadcasts as Holy Writ. He has become increasingly influential in moulding the opinions of those exposed to his divisive propaganda and correspondingly valuable to interests which can be served by his strange code of ethics and his stranger sense of patriotism.

He is powerful.

He is dangerous.

He is a menace to America—and must be debunked!

PART I

Un American Underground* ***

Ninety percent of the American people are FASCISTS . . . or NAZIS . . . or ENEMIES WITHIN! — if you believe such fervent “champions of the people” as Vice President Henry A. Wallace, or the leading Communist weekly NEW MASSES.

Nine out of every ten Americans, including Congressmen, are QUISLINGS . . . or SABOTEURS . . . or RATZIS if you believe the self-styled “America’s Patriot No. 1,” Walter Winchell.

That same estimate is true if you believe the smear book UNDER COVER — boosted to a best seller by Winchell — which represents the collective defamations of ten Left Wing smear artists, including Communist leader Earl Browder, and which is not the brain child of the alien-born, alien-minded refugee stooge Avedis Boghos Derounian, alias John Roy Carlson, who claims to be the author.

In fact, if the charges leveled against Americans by the spokesmen and publications of the organized Left — by the Communists, the Collectivists, the “Liberals,” the intolerant pleaders for “tolerance”, the New Deal Internationalists and the Russia First zealots — are considered true, then an even larger percentage of the American people are traitors to their country.

It is a safe bet that YOU are suspect as a disloyal citizen.

More than that, if you have been indiscreet . . . if you have dared to express yourself in defense of the Constitution . . . if you have been outspoken in your loyalty to the Republic and to American tradition . . . if you have been “foolish” enough to have taken a stand against Communist infiltration — into Government for instance . . . if you were ever a bit “intolerant” of un-American conduct . . . if you have had the temerity to speak out in the interests of your country as against the interests of the rest of the world — then in all probability YOU have been spied upon, catalogued and indexed in some headquarters of the UNAMERICAN GESTAPO.

* From Chapter 1. UNAMERICAN GESTAPO.

Do not believe that you are an exception . . . that you are unimportant or too influential . . . that your identity is lost in the big city . . . or that your community is too small or too far removed from the centers of subversion. The UN-AMERICAN GESTAPO is everywhere in America . . . and it is interested in the private views and personal activities of every-one. Do not think for one minute that your standing or lack of position in life makes you immune from such sinister attention. No one is immune. There is evidence to show that:

- ¶ Cardinals and cops are checked.
- ¶ Priests and peddlers are probed.
- ¶ Judges and Generals are indexed.
- ¶ Women as well as men are spied upon.
- ¶ Members of Congress are given special "attention."

Congressional Committees have had their investigators "investigated" and "trailed" by "agents" of this un-American underground.

The New York Police Department was given a careful "inspection" by these amateur sleuths in a search for "fronters" and "fascists."

Top flight commissioned officers, in both Military and Naval Intelligence, have been checked by these snoopers and smeared as "Fascists" and "anti-Semites."*

The personnel of the Department of Justice has been "examined" by these private spies in a hunt for "members or officials of the Bund or Nazi Party."

Even J. Edgar Hoover has been "shadowed" and his personal and professional (alleged) "derelictions" have been set down in a special dossier.

And, to emphasize the total irresponsibility of these half-witted Dick Tracys, they dared to invade the sacred confines of a seminar for converts to Catholicism in order to snoop and spy on the Right Rev. Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, Professor of Philosophy at Catholic University of America.

Churches, religious organizations, business institutions, public agencies, government departments, patriotic and political groups are constantly being visited by snoopers who report to a private, self-styled "Department of Investigation."

* As a result of this the Navy has disbanded its Counter Intelligence Section which was devoted mainly to investigating suspected Communists slated for commissions or scheduled to work in Navy yards.

The Dies Committee is catalogued as a Fascist outfit. The America First Committee was listed as an un-American movement. The American Defense Society, Inc., the Bible Cyclorama, Inc., Little Business Men of America, the Prayer League of America, the Racquet Club, the Republican Club of America, Society of the Cincinnati (composed of lineal descendants of George Washington's officers), U. S. Police Reserve Association, and the International Catholic Truth Society are named as "subversive" organizations in the "secret" files.

Investigation further discloses that the UNAMERICAN GESTAPO's listing of "borderline" subversive groups includes the American Bar Association, the Republican National Committee, the National Association of Manufacturers, the Knights of Columbus, the National Americanism Commission of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The busybody snoopers of the UNAMERICAN GESTAPO are eavesdropping on everybody, anywhere and everywhere. They even listen in on radio broadcasts of possible ideological significance, analyze them and report their suspicions.

They are tapping telephones, too.

They are checking birth records, death records, hospital records, marriage records, divorce records, corporation records, employment records . . . yes, even Social Security files which are supposed to be confidential, and Selective Service records which are supposedly secret.

These private spies misrepresent themselves as "government agents," as members of Military Intelligence, as Congressional investigators, as F.B.I. agents, as newspaper reporters, as public officials, as writers, as election inspectors, as agents of the A.S.P.C.A., and as friends and relatives of prominent persons.

They are questioning employers, business people, building superintendents, elevator operators, the corner grocer, the milkman and the neighbors.

Are they asking questions about you ?

American Americans in every walk of life are being checked and double checked, not in regard to what they are doing now as members of the armed forces or as civilian patriots on behalf of our war effort, but as to their attitudes before Pearl Harbor . . . as to their economic and political views . . . as to their religious beliefs . . . as to their personal affairs.

Were they "isolationists," "appeasers"?

Are they anti-Semitic, anti-Communist, anti-New Deal?

Do they know anybody who is?

And what about their love life?

The "Chief Investigators" want to know! The Smear Bund needs a lot of dirt . . . any kind of dirt.

No loyal citizen would object to any inquiry for any legitimate purpose by responsible authorized official representatives of any investigative agency of the government, local, state or national, but the record shows that among the perpetrators of this Nazty business is a prize collection of ex-convicts, dope addicts, crack-pots and superduper phonies who are directed or aided and abetted by "smart" lawyers, "reputable" business leaders and "honorable" government officials.

These phony "investigators" and amateur spies are in the employ of such organizations as the Anti-Defamation League, the Friends of Democracy, the American Jewish Committee, the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights, the American Jewish Congress, and Market Analysts, Inc., to mention a few, and their largely inaccurate and asinine "reports" have been used by such conspicuous and representative creatures of the Smear Bund as Walter Winchell, Drew Pearson and Rex Stout, and by such notorious organizations as the CIO Political Action Committee, and such subversive smear sheets as the New York Post, the Communist Daily Worker, and the alleged newspaper PM, among others.

The UNAMERICAN GESTAPO has important contacts in high places in the New Deal Administration, even in the White House Palace Guard, and it has secured the active cooperation of Government departments and agencies, including the Department of Justice. (But, not the F. B. I.).

And some of its indefensible snooping and smearing has been paid for with taxpayers' money.

Businesses have been wrecked, men have lost their jobs, reputations have been ruined, political careers have been shattered and candidates for public office have been defeated . . . all as a result of the dissemination of misinformation and the telling of half-truths and deliberate lies in the Smear, Purge and Persecution campaigns of the Defamation Network and its UNAMERICAN GESTAPO.

This Smear Bund, through a forged letter plot in 1940, tried to discredit and destroy Representative Martin Dies and the Congressional Committee on un-American Activities.*

Through a foul frameup, it attempted to besmirch the character and reputation of Senator David I. Walsh, Chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee of the Senate, simply because he was an "isolationist."

It instigated and promoted the campaign to Smear and Purge Congress in 1942.

It is smearing Congress today.

Although there are many side issues involved, the main objectives of this sinister and subversive enterprise are the ruthless suppression of "old-fashioned" defenders of American tradition and the American system of society and government . . . the relentless silencing of those "nationalist" voices crying out for the preservation of American sovereignty . . . the diabolic destruction of all Constitutional barriers to collectivism . . . the subtle usurpation of administrative governmental power as a prelude to the eventual absorption of the United States into a World State of Communist structure.

Much of this usurpation of governmental power already has been achieved through the manipulation of pyramided bureaus staffed or controlled by Communist or internationalist political appointees and vested groups.

The initial concentrated attack upon Constitutional barriers being held in defense of Individualism was made in the "Smear and Purge" campaign against Congress in 1942.

The major overt attempt to silence the voice of the American people was made in the so-called "Sedition indictments." Using the slick Communist party line technique of lumping the good with the bad, a handful of patriots are bracketed with Nazi agents and convicted seditionists. Among those unjustly included may be a few who were too outspoken, a few who were over enthusiastic in their defense of Constitutional government, a few who were, perhaps misguided . . . but they were none-the-less sincere and loyal to America and its institutions. The evidence and charges against some of them is so weak that the Department of Injustice hesitates to try them in court. The rest are now being prosecuted in a mass trial, a la Moscow.

* Evidence is presented in the book UNAMERICAN GESTAPO to show the subversive nature of the conspiracy against Congressman Dies. It is told how David DuBois Mayne who forged the letters was brought into the plot by the Washington agent of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. The letters were bought for $105 by Harold Weisberg who was acting for Gardner Jackson, mastermind of the anti-Dies campaign. Jackson, a well known Communist fellow traveler and Left Wing busybody was acting as agent for the American Civil Liberties Union, which according to Congressional and State Legislative investigations "is a supporter of all subversive movements," is "closely affiliated with the Communist movement," and its propaganda "is dictated and dominated by Communists." The A.C.L.U. appropriated $500 to finance Jackson's activities. Anti-Dies material for use by Jackson was prepared by Osmond K. Fraenkel, former director of the Soviet Securities Corp., and by Walter Winchell's counsel, A.C.L.U. lawyer Morris Ernst whose "visits to the White House," according to LOOK magazine, "now come about once a month . . . often they last for a week end, not just over night."

Good Americans will applaud the indictment and conviction of admitted Bundists, pro-Nazis and Axis agents who are guilty of sedition. But many of those indicted are admittedly nothing more than outspoken and fanatic anti-Semites, anti-Communists and anti-New Dealers — regardless of a psychopathic prosecutor's attempt to construe these "crimes" as sedition.

☐ Anti-Semitism is un-American, but it is not unlawful.

☐ To be anti-New Deal is a risky business these days, but it is not a crime.

☐ To preach anti-Communism may be the height of disloyalty in the Marxian minds which abound in official Washington, but it is not treason—NOT YET.

The methods used to obtain these indictments constituted an un-American procedure which smelled to high heaven and mocked Justice. Constitutional guarantees were flaunted and the indictments were based on a tortured misinterpretation and a miserable misapplication of the law. But, the most sinister aspect of this persecution is the fact that it had its inception with the UNAMERICAN GESTAPO, which not only gave full and hearty cooperation to its official tools, but even went so far as to "frame" its victims.

None of these objectives has succeeded fully.

Nor can they succeed so long as the people of the Republic of the United States refuse to surrender Free Speech.

It is this major freedom — Free Speech — that must be destroyed first if those other freedoms — freedom of the Press and Freedom of Free Enterprise — are to be destroyed in the process of "liquidating" our Constitutional form of government.

It is in recognition of this paramount "must" that the Defamation Network and its private un-American Gestapo is now so hard at work. "Smear—Intimidate—Silence!" is its motto.

And it was in desperate furtherance of this paramount

"must" that the Nazty Network issued the smear book, UNDER COVER.

For UNDER COVER, in addition to being the amplified and extended Mein Kampf of the un-American Gestapo and an anthology of all previous Defamation Network libels, is the latest maneuver to silence the Voice of Liberty.

If UNDER COVER were only a frustration-inspired dossier of prominent Americans, anti-Communists and "Capitalist exploiters" compiled by an obscure and untalented exhibitionist; if it were only evilly inspired invective against Americanism, Patriotism and Christianity written by an alien-born bigot; if it were only a commercially inspired sop to Jewry tossed from the typewriter of an exposed anti-Semite—if UNDER COVER were only these things, the American reading public could dismiss it as little more than an extraordinarily offensive example of bad writing, unrestrained impertinence and exquisite bad taste.

But UNDER COVER is all of these things — and more.

It is both the boldest and most underhanded attack ever made upon Congress, patriotic organizations, religious sects the Army and Navy and racial minorities.

It is the most libelous and shameless attack ever made upon the honor and integrity of American statesmen, patriots, church dignitaries, industrialists and members of the armed forces.

It is the most conscienceless and subversive instrument of war-time disunity ever devised.

It is sedition.

It is treason.

For these reasons, UNDER COVER cannot be dismissed by the people of the United States as only a repulsive exhibition of author-publisher vulgarity or as just a sly money-making literary trick.

UNDER COVER is serving as the first and foremost political document of the 1944 Presidential campaign. It is being used to provide a reason and an excuse for the hurling of slimy epithets at any opposition. The smear words FASCIST! NAZI! QUISLING! ISOLATIONIST! APPEASER! ENEMY WITHIN! will be heard many, many times until November 1944. They will be used without discrimination against AMERICANS of all patriotic persuasions . . . and without the least justification since UNDER COVER cannot back up its fantastic charges.

UNDER COVER tells nothing new. It exposes no "American Quislings." It names no Axis Agents not already taken care of by Uncle Sam. It reveals no "Enemies Within." It uncovers no plot. It "uncovers" nothing that has not been uncovered before . . .

UNDER COVER is literary hash — a little fact, endless flights of fancy spiced with phony documentation and shameless lies.

UNDER COVER is the product of an organized conspiracy to defame and destroy those who believe in this country and its institutions . . . who say so out loud, and have the courage to combat our nation's real enemies within.

Fortunately, UNDER COVER is so obvious as an "expose" book that only a minimum of objective scrutiny is required to look past its unconscious humor, its bigotry and its obscenity, and to recognize it as a fiction and a fraud.

But that is not enough.

The people of the United States must know that UNDER COVER is not an end in itself . . . must understand that it is but a means to an end — only one of many means that will be used again, again and again unless the Smear Bund that inspired it, authored it, published it and zealously disseminated it, is exposed . . . unless the sinister forces which constitute the Smear Bund and its UNAMERICAN GESTAPO are driven from their underground anonymity, are stripped of their pretended respectability and are identified as Seditionists and Traitors.

"Washington grapevine hears that all the wire-tappings and political snoopings have been called off until after elections, so they can't become an issue in the presidential campaign."

*—Danton Walker, in his column,

A Reporter's Report to the Nation* ***

Next to the Communists and the Left Wing press, Walter Winchell, ex-isolationist and dupe of Axis agents, has been the principal promoter of UNDER COVER He plugged it constantly, even before publication, in both his daily column of calumny and weekly wail over the air . . . In his anomalous role of shrieking violet he has dubbed himself "No. 1 Salesman for UNDER COVER."

Winchell perhaps is better qualified than any other person in the United States to estimate the qualitative and quantitative value of this smelly smear book. Winchell was spreading the same smear long before "Carlson" decided to become an "investigator" for the UNAMERICAN GESTAPO and a "front" for the Smear Bund.

It was Winchell's libels and slanders that caused him to be "retired" as an officer of the United States Navy. And Secretary of the Navy Knox promised "I have no intention to call him back to active duty," rather than permit the Naval Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives to continue a scheduled investigation into Winchell's conduct. Of course, such an investigation would have embarrassed the Navy.

Among the charges filed against Lieutenant Commander Winchell was the provable fact that he had been a pitiful dupe of Axis agents and had published and broadcast Nazi propaganda in the face of a warning by his Commander-in-Chief, President Roosevelt, who had declared that our great war effort must not be impeded by bogus patriots who use the sacred freedom of the press to echo the propagandists in Tokio and Berlin.

Since this serious charge is so hard for an uninformed public to believe, it will be the more convincing if Winchell should testify against himself. Take one example. On January 5, 1942 the Great Oracle was the first to tell the public:

"One of the biggest yells about Pearl Harbor, when it is aired, will be the realization that the shortage of medical supplies there necessitated an over amount of amputations among the casualties."

A month later, on Feb. 2, 1942, without mentioning the fact that he had spread the story himself, the toilet lotion salesman "colyumned" this bit of patriotic intelligence:

"The recent rumors that there were 'needless amputations at Pearl Harbor because of alleged lack of medical supplies' was apparently planted by enemy agents. Not true! —"

In the U. S. Government pamphlet, "Divide and Conquer," published by the Office of War Information, there is this illuminating reference:

"Day after day, the Axis short waves pour falsehoods into the United States. Hitler communicates with his agents here by these short-wave broadcasts. Listening to the programs, they learn the current propaganda line and immediately act upon it, spreading rumors that will leave the impression on American minds that Hitler wishes to leave. Since the war began, German short waves have shouted of . . . exaggerated losses at Pearl Harbor."

Winchell probably was not an intentional traitor in this instance. But to say by way of excuse that he had unwittingly made a mistake is to say that he is a fool. The Naval Affairs Committee had intended to find out just what a fool was doing fooling around in a Naval Officer's uniform.

It would also have been inevitable that he would have been called to account for the many defamatory broadcasts and countless column items in which he did a definite disservice to the nation, gave aid and comfort to the enemy, helped Hitler's "divide and conquer" strategy and created disunity in the war effort through vicious and unfounded sniping attacks on many loyal Americans in every walk of life, including members of the armed forces and Members of Congress.

In the book, "Smash Hitler's International," copyrighted by Time Magazine, Edmond Taylor, author of "The Strategy of Terror" and a real expert on Nazi propaganda, writes:

"Nazi political services comb the gossip columns of the American tabloids, and a sterling anti-Nazi gossipier like Walter Winchell would probably be horrified if he knew the strategic uses to which some of his little scoops might be put."

Just one of Hitler's little helpers! "Hm!"

Another charge Lt. Commander Winchell would have faced concerned his slurs against the United States Army, which had become so obnoxious that Lt. Col. James P. Wharton, Chief of Military Intelligence of the Third Corps Area, on April 13, 1942, issued a statement branding Winchell's broadcast the previous night as "detrimental to the armed forces" and "contrary to military interests."

Perhaps the most reprehensible reference to the Army, and one which could hardly be expected to lift the morale of our soldiers to a new high, was Winchell's exclusive "flash" four months after Pearl Harbor, that "the nation's richest pansy is now in the Army."

Winchell started a real furor when he falsely reported that the Army had purchased 5,000 copies of UNDER COVER. Several aroused Congressmen and many incensed citizens immediately inquired of the War Department if this were true, if this seditious book, which could not help but undermine Army morale, was actually being distributed in such numbers.

While a survey was being conducted, Winchell charged in effect and without foundation in fact, that the Army was suppressing the book and that Congressman Clare E. Hoffman had asked the Army to withdraw it from post libraries. By indirection he also made the false accusation that Army officers were taking the book from soldiers who had the books as their personal property. He ridiculed one Army officer because of his name, and accused two others of being liars.

On December 21, 1943, Congressman Hoffman declared on the floor of the House of Representatives that the War Department had advised him that 363 copies of the book had been bought by individual camp and post libraries and that 107 copies were on order.

"So what has Walter done here?" Mr. Hoffman asked. "He just lied when he said the Army bought 5,000 copies, and that I tried to have the books withdrawn. I simply asked the War Department how many they bought to find out how big a liar Walter was."

On one broadcast in this connection, Oct. 31, 1943, Winchell brazenly attempted to incite Army personnel to insubordination. After intimating that servicemen were being prevented from reading UNDER COVER by their superior officers, he advised: "In short, ladies and gentlemen, read 'Under Cover' — soldier or civilian — read it . . ."

On another occasion, Jan. 9, 1944, Winchell boasted of his deliberate intention to undermine the morale of the armed forces, especially of fighting men who had been wounded. He told of receiving complaints about Nazi prisoners of war being permitted to do their Xmas shopping in a southern city. He inferred they were practically unguarded and added: "I am sending those complaints to some friends of mine who were wounded while capturing war prisoners, I am sure they will be overjoyed — disgusted, or something . . ."

So, it is not to be wondered that the so-called newspaper PM felt obliged to report on February 11, 1943, that:

"Major General Alexander Surles (Head of War Department Public Relations) and other Army officers . . . made clear that they don't like . . . Winchell broadcasts, but didn't want to interfere directly."

The-phony-of-the-week . . .

In any investigation the question of under what circumstances, and in the pursuit of what business, Winchell wore his uniform, is bound to come up. Replying to previous criticism, Winchell has claimed that he has never broadcast his lies and slanders while in Navy uniform and he has gone so far as to offer Senator Clark of Missouri "$100,000 in war bonds" if he could prove otherwise. For once Winchell is probably technically correct, for he sheds his coat when broadcasting and opens his collar wide so that he can rant, rave, scream and become hysterical in ease and comfort.

Navy regulations provide that when an officer removes his coat he is "out of uniform," but despite this, both the Navy Department and the Naval Affairs Committee have pictures of Winchell in uniform, in the radio studio after a broadcast, signing his autograph "with lotions of love."

Following a complaint by this writer, and in consequence, no doubt, of Winchell's misuse of his uniform, or perhaps because the Navy was ashamed to have him seen in full regalia, he was ordered to stay out of uniform in April of 1942, according to Captain Leland P. Lovette, the Navy's public relations chief.

Before this happened, Winchell made a great show of his snappy Gold Braid in the glittering hot spots of the Great White Way. He has been surly and disagreeable since.

Winchell never missed an opportunity to tell his radio audience and his newspaper readers about his "requests" for active duty, which he sometimes implied and sometimes said frankly were turned down because his superiors felt he could be of more value in his radio and newspaper work.

He told everybody who would listen that it was just breaking his heart — he wanted active service — but, since it was being denied him, he would reluctantly make the great sacrifice and continue to "serve his country" doing his job on the home front — at a mere half million dollars, or so, a year.

His "service" record, however, which Winchell just recently implied Congressman Dies has no authority to examine, shows that the sawdust sailor — the saloon skipper of the Stork Club — wrote the Bureau of Navigation on June 27, 1941,

"requesting deferred status as HE believes HE can best serve interests of Navy by remaining in an inactive status."

No wonder he hoped that Congressman Dies couldn't take a look. "Tee-Hee!"

There is another curious thing. On February 23, 1942, there was a line in Winchell's "col'm" which said: "On December 7, 1941, in a telegram to my commandant, I wrote: 'Respectfully request active duty.'" Certainly that would have been expected of any patriotic officer.

But the Navy's record fails to show that any such telegram was received.

Nevertheless, Winchell is a great patriot . . . he says so himself. He even contrives, quite often, to secure proof of his claim, which he publishes in his "colyum" . . . without too much show of reluctance. Take the letter from that Admiral, frinstance.

On February 22, 1943, Winchell itemed this peculiarly worded citation commending his "bravery":

"To Whom it May Concern: This is to certify that Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell, USNR, served in a combat plane of this command. It has been reported to me that Lt. Comdr. Winchell ACTUALLY manned a cannon of one of the ships of VP-squadron while on an enemy hunt far at sea,—Jonas H. Ingram, Vice Admiral, Commanding the Allied Forces in the South Atlantic."

"Actually!" That's cute.

The Admiral must have a great sensayuma. And he's a smooth one, too . . . It went right over Walter's head.

It would be unfair, perhaps, to leave the impression that Lieutenant Commander Walter Winchell tried to shirk his duty, that he tried to avoid active service. In the early days of the war he did do a tour of "volunteer" active duty raising funds for the Navy Relief Society.

This caused Westbrook Pegler to protest that "these are not military activities and the fighting forces cannot afford to confer rank on any civilian with the understanding that he shall be excused from all risk and service and merely masquerade in uniform." Pegler declared further that the commissioning "of any individual whose sole official duty is to promote entertainments to raise money for service charities, and even that only as a part-time job, is an affront to all genuine officers and enlisted men, and the precedent has caused deep disgust and much bitterness among honorable officers, who are wholly in the service, and their families."

Unobtrusively Winchell was restored to inactive status, but throughout 1942 he made four beseeching trips to Washington and even pleaded with the President for some kind of an active berth. His experience, however, had been with another kind of "births" and so the Navy stood on its official advices to him that "there is really no place open at present which is commensurate with your rank, experience and special talents." In short, Winchell had no real Navy experience and as for special talents, the Navy didn't need any plain or fancy smearing done. "Tragic, huh?"

While Wailing Walter lays great stress on the fact that some official of great importance told him he could be of greater service to the Navy by continuing his gossipmongering "col'm" and broadcasts, the official Navy record discloses that this suggestion was made, probably without malice, as an alternative to his appointment "in some active station of minor importance," which, presumably, Lieutenant Commander Winchell could have had for the asking.

But Winchell persisted and the White House influence prevailed. The result was that in December he was given a 38-day tour of "active" duty . . . in South America on terra firma. He immediately made a great mystery of his assignment; it was very secret and important! It may be that he was just ashamed . . . for the mysterious mission was nothing more than a time killer . . . something to keep him as far away from the Navy as possible.

He was ordered to Brazil and assigned to mix with the natives, get to know something about them and their country, find out what they thought about the United States and report his observations via the Navy and State Departments. And Windy Walter no spik, no savvy Portuguese. "Haw!"

It could be that the Navy never heard of Mr. Rockefeller, coordinator of Inter-American Affairs. It is possible, too, that they overlooked the exuberant campaign for more intimate relations conducted by our Bad Will Ambassador, Orson Welles. But they couldn't have failed to note the bad effects of Mr. Hull's Good Neighbor Policy. Maybe the Navy just wanted to get the "low-down" from an "expert."

Anyway, that is how Lieutenant Commander Walter Winchell happened to get a ride in one of the Navy's S. Atlantic planes.

They took him for a ride on a Navy ship once, too. And, thereby hangs a tale.

He had been invited aboard on the trial run of the battle-ship U. S. S. North Carolina. It was a great day for the Lieutenant Commander. He was in his element, gold braid, gold buttons and everything. And he made a most profound impression upon the lowly "gentlemen of the press" who also went along.

Patronizingly, Lieutenant Commander Winchell informed them that there was no danger involved in the one day run. They appeared visibly relieved.

There were reports, however, that, after throwing his rank around, the synthetic sailor didn't get on so well with fellow officers who earned their stripes the hard way. They were a little stiff and formal, did not respond with sufficient warmth when he interrogated them, did not show proper deference to the noted celebrity. He is supposed to have complained.

Winchell is also said to have forgotten regulations when, with breezy Broadway informality, he fraternized with enlisted personnel. As a result, the story goes, he had words with both a chief petty officer and the Captain, and in both cases Lieutenant Commander Winchell is reported to have done most of the listening. Although there is no official confirmation, he is reputed, in Naval circles, to have made formal objection to his Skipper's language.

Ace reporter Marcia Winn wrote in the Washington (D.C.) Times-Herald that some of Winchell's fellow officers took exception to his reassurances regarding the absence of danger on the cruise. She reported one officer as saying in solemn mockery: "When we fire a broadside we drop anchor. This often causes a terrific repercussion on board, often killing men on deck."

"We can't have that!" he stormed.

"What if European newspapers were to come out with headlines, America's No. 1 Patriot Killed in Sham Broad-sides!"

"With that he hurried below. One of his titles, America's No. 1 patriot, stuck."

It may be wrong to imply that Winchell is a coward. He does not do all his fighting with a typewriter and a "mike."

There was the Battle of the Bistro.

That was one time he did some real fighting in his Navy uniform, even if it was only in a Broadway barroom brawl. Winchell carried the attack . . . with the help of a ketchup bottle. His Gold Braid was messed up a bit, but his opponent landed in the hospital. So he won that engagement.

Bottles seem to be his favorite weapon. Once before, in Central Park Casino, he won the decision over a "drunk" with the help of a wine bottle.

Scallions To the Orchid Man . . .

You bet an investigation by the Naval Affairs Committee would embarrass the Navy.

In the Committee's files is a document which reads in part:

The American people respect the Navy uniform because those who wear it have always been held to high ideals and represent the cream of American manhood. It is evident, however, that in the case of Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell there has been a lower standard, for in the past ten weeks he has been referred to in the public prints as "a slanderous black-guard," "a malicious liar," "a faker," "a rumorist," "a gutter-snipe columnist," "an ignorant lout," "a compound of the flotsam and jetsam of life," "a stumblebum," "a jerk," "a peeping Tom," "a zany," "a streamlined version of the school-yard sneak and peeper," "a snitch," "a tattletale," "a consummate rabble rouser," "a bedroom historian" and "a crackpot." And that does not include what he has been called in the Congressional Record.

It is interesting to note that all this . . . and more . . . has been said about Winchell without the protection of Congressional immunity . . . about which he has been making so much ado just lately. He is all of these things . . . and worse. Perhaps his own estimate of himself is as accurate as any. On several occasions while in a repentant mood he has reproached himself, saying to friends: "I know — I'm just a son-of-a-bitch." "Izzatzo?"

It is too bad that "an officer and a gentleman" should so conduct himself, and should be so viciously vituperative while on "volunteer active duty" for the Navy that he laid himself open to and invited such opprobrium. But he asked for it!

He has been under constant attack in Congress, too. There is, however, good reason for this, because he has been biting and bitter in his own foul assaults not only on individual members he didn't like, but also on Congress as a whole.

In his column, he has called Congress the "Washington Rogues Gallery" and "The Monkey House." He has referred to Congress contemptuously as "The House of Reprehensibles" in his radio broadcast. He has slurred the "so-called sacred portals of the Congress of the United States" in an article over his signature in Liberty Magazine. And of the official minutes of Congress, he wrote: "Why don't (sic!) somebody call it The Congressional Record and Beobachter?"

Since the United States entered the war, Lt. Comdr. Winchell has written and broadcast a continuing barrage of jibes and blasts at Congress and has referred to our duly elected representatives of the people as "dopes," "hams," "soreheads," "flapjaws," "stumblebums," and "saps."

Winchell's specialty is low ridicule and he has used it overtime in his onslaught on the legislative branch of our constitutional system of government. Here is a sample:

"The big laugh of last week's doodlings down in Congress was that F. D. R. had insulted it . . . Well, muss mah cloze and call me Kunnel . . . Poor, tender, sufferin', sensitive, shy 'ittle Tondwess. . . . Oo's being cwiss to mama's 'ittle Tondwess?"

Our former Minister to Canada, Hon. James H. R. Cromwell, had something pertinent to say in this regard not so long ago. Said he:

"The best way I know to open the road for dictatorship here is to ridicule Congress. Ridicule, as someone said, is a deadly weapon. Any would-be dictator knows that the quickest method of getting into power is to make the people lose confidence in the system of elected representatives . . . When you start taking cracks at Congress, you are playing right into the hands of those people who would knock democracy on the head.

"I say all this because I am convinced there is a definite plan on foot to belittle Congress and make it look as dopey as possible. But we'll all be sorry if we go along with it."

In an attempt to evade responsibility under the law for his reckless and lying slanders, Winchell has persistently libeled and smeared the whole of Congress in his attempts to bring suspicion on certain members or groups. Among the vicious and obviously false attacks were included reprehensible items like these:

"Hitler is losing on the ground in Russia, in the air over Germany, and on the sands of Africa. He seems to win only in Congress."

"While the noose is being tightened around Quislings in Europe and Asia, it would be folly and a betrayal of our heroic dead, if we let bygones be bygones for Quislings here — whether they're street-corner Hitlers . . . or Congressmen."

"Perhaps some pro-Axis Congressmen were elected to warn us what kind of Government we'd have if Hitler won."

"Some of the pro-Nazis who got by the voters still have to get by the F. B. I."

"According to recently published figures, the Nazis now have about 400 Divisions left . . . And how many Congressmen?"

"Congress includes some of the sorriest 'stumblebums' in the Nation."

"Many of Hitler's American pals have been arrested but too many have been renominated."

"Don't be depressed because some Nazi boosters got into Congress."

"The only trouble with the sedition indictments is that while the defendants are in court some of their supporters are still in Congress."

"He'll go down in history as the Louse of Representatives."
(which might refer to any one of 435 Congressmen.)

"Our favorite Congressman just got laryngitis!" (He quotes a Hitler General as saying, again without identifying the member.)

"How about the voters going after those other saboteurs who landed in Congress?"

"Another reason some Congressmen are demanding the eight saboteurs be shot is that they might talk too much."

At the time Jergens' Jerque was writing the last two items above and while implication of treason was being made against Congressmen who could have had no possible connection with the affair, an employee of Winchell's boss, Andrew Jergens, was arrested for complicity in the sensational case involving the eight saboteurs, six of whom were later executed. Her name was Hedwig Engemann and she was shown to have aided Edward John Kerling who was executed. Miss Engemann pleaded guilty to misprision of treason and was sentenced to prison. But Winchell took particular pains not to mention Miss Engemann's treason.

Another Jergens employee, Elfrieda Siddell, was interned in a concentration camp at the same time. "Hmf!"

Winchell made a vague mention of this on his radio broadcast, but falsely implied to the listeners-in that he and his boss Jergens were responsible for the apprehension of this Nazi. Actually, Jergens did everything in his power to help Miss Siddell, who was his personal secretary. He testified at length in an endeavor to prevent her detention. While she was in custody during hearings he offered money to have her held in a hotel suite instead of in jail. He phoned her long distance almost daily from all parts of the country and sent expensive clothing. On all this, Winchell was silent as a tomb.

Also, at about this same time, Government agents picked up one of Walter's favorite waiters at his hang-out, the Stork Club, a high-class saloon graduated from a speakeasy. Now, instead of serving "Hamburger a la Walter Winchell" ($1.85), or "Tomato Surprise a la Winchell" ($1.60), waiter Schramm is in an internment camp as an enemy alien.

That Winchell's propaganda against Congress is having the desired effect is seen by a post card sent to a Congressman and inserted into the Congressional Record of March 30, 1944. It said:

"What are the saboteurs doing in Congress? Why doesn't Congress clean its own house?"

That Winchell's propaganda is reaching and undermining the morale of America's fighting men was evidenced in a letter the little Vendor of Venom published in his own 'col'm.' It was from M'Caw General Hospital, Walla Walla, Washington, and read:

"I wish you could see the fellows here listening to you. Their emotions are intense in their faces. And when you tell us about certain congressmen hampering the war effort — you should see their fists clench. Even with their malaria and wounds — you can't picture their icy contempt for these politicians and their double talk. I tell you the returned soldiers are getting madder and we lean on men such as you to keep us informed. (God forbid. — Ed.), Sincerely, PVT. W."

Of course, there is a political motive behind this phase of Winchell's activities. He has betrayed himself on many occasions, the most notable of which was when he became so incensed over the fact that his principal targets in Congress had been returned to their seats that he told off the voters themselves. After admitting his prejudice against certain unnamed members of Congress, he ranted:

"What worries me most are all those damned fools who re-elected them."

It will be seen that Winchell's unspeakable methods and his indulgence in mere vituperation has not only been effective in smearing the objects of his attack, but has had the perfectly natural but unfortunate effect of evoking a response. We find dignified and respected members of Congress bandying personalities with him in self-defense, forgetting that the man who has presumed to give them battle is beneath contempt and insult.

Walter Winchell has been called almost everything under the sun on the floor of the House of Representatives, and the Senate, too, has heard him castigated in such terms as probably have never been applied to any other man.

Winchell has engendered so much hate that the Congress is almost unanimously against him. Only four members of the House of Representatives, Congressmen Sabath, Magnuson, Klein and Dickstein, have taken the floor to offer even a mild defense in his behalf in the face of a series of angry speeches made mainly by Congressmen Hoffman, Rankin and Dies during which Winchell's lies and smears have been thoroughly debunked.

By citing chapter and verse, Congressman Hoffman demonstrated to his colleagues that "Winchell tells falsehoods, complete falsehoods; falsehoods by way of half-truths; falsehoods by innuendo, by insinuation, by inflection — not once in a while, not now and then, not inadvertently, but as a matter of habit; that falsehood is a part of his stock and trade; that he is untruthful because the truth is not in him."

"I am a little skittish," said Mr. Rankin, "about a man who has his nose manicured, his face lifted, his name changed, and then goes on the radio to try to smear somebody else."

On January 6, 1944, Representative Rankin called the attention of the House to a Winchell column in which the sadistic scribbler told his readers to clip and mail one of his items about a Jewish sergeant who had shot down ten Jap planes, to "Congressman Rankin at the House of 'Reprehensibles', Washington, D. C."

After telling his colleagues that "my hat is off to Sergeant Segal or to anyone else, whether he is a Jew or a Gentile, who is now in the Army fighting the battles of this war," Congressman Rankin said:

"In my opinion, Walter Winchell and PM are doing the Jewish people more harm than any other two outfits in America. I said something to a Jewish friend of mine the other day about Walter Winchell.

'Well', he said, 'he is a kike'.

I asked, 'What is a kike?'

He said, 'A kike is a Jew that is so detested that the other Jews are ashamed of him, the Gentiles despise him, and the intelligent negroes have contempt for him.' "

This attack on Winchell was so well received that almost the entire House stood up and applauded.

When on a coast-to-coast broadcast a few weeks later, Winchell by inference accused two Congressmen, both respectable family men, of being perverts, Representative Rankin, on Feb. 22, 1944, made another speech in which he declared:

"Walter Winchell, that little Communistic kike, who is doing more to stir up anti-Semitism in this country and doing more to injure President Roosevelt than any other man alive . . . touched the lowest segment of infamy ever reached by a radio broadcaster in America.

"How much longer," Rankin asked, "will the decent people of America have to endure such filth and the decent patriotic Jews of America have to endure the punishment he is bringing upon them?"

Quotation Marxmanship . . .

Winchell, of course, probably is not a Communist . . . he is much worse than a Communist . . . he just helps along the Communist "line" while masquerading as "America's No. 1 patriot."

He probably is not a Communist, but . . . according to his column of July 2, 1943, he thinks "Lenin was a handy chap around a Government." Lenin is the little tin god of modern Communism.

He probably is not a Communist, but . . . in his column of March 28, 1943 he squawked because the New York Sun, in reporting a debate on "Is Communism a Menace?", gave its own columnist George E. Sokolsky, more space than it gave to Earl Browder, ex-convict Communist leader, pardoned by President Roosevelt in the interest of national unity.

He probably is not a Communist, but . . . on Nov. 6, 1942, he printed an alibi for "innocent persons" who signed their names to Communist Party election petitions.

He probably is not a Communist, but . . . he was sued for $200,000 in Chicago for re-hashing a libelous story from the Daily Worker for an article which appeared in Liberty Magazine under his signature.

He probably is not a Communist, but . . . in the Navy Department files is a demand for an investigation of Lieutenant Commander Walter Winchell by the Bureau of Naval Intelligence on the grounds:

1. That he has dubious connections with the un-American underworld.
2. That he has retained as his counsel an official of a Communist "transmission belt" which was exposed and condemned by Naval Intelligence.
3. That he has financed the dissemination of Communist literature which was so libelous that it was later withdrawn from circulation.
4. That he numbers among his protégés the most scurrilous propagandist of our times, who won notoriety by attempting to blacken the American Red Cross.
5. That he is repeating libels concocted by Communist henchmen and is therefore just a utensil of the Communist movement.
6. That he is doing the Communists' dirty work by smearing their most effective opponents.
7. That he has slyly patted Communists on the back.
8. That, therefore, in posing as a patriot, he is a sham and a fraud, a disgrace to the uniform he wears and is not to be trusted as a commissioned officer of the United States Navy.

In a bill of particulars to Secretary of the Navy Knox, the following appears:

During the past few months, at your direction, some 1,000 maritime workers were discharged from their jobs on American merchantmen "as a matter of precaution in the interest of defense." * In view of your action I am privileged to conclude that you are aware that the National Maritime Union has long been under Communist control. This charge has been publicly made on innumerable occasions and it is likewise fair to assume that an "expert" like Lt. Commander Winchell, who poses as knowing everything, must have had very definite knowledge of this fact, too. Is it not rather odd, then, to say the least that Lt. Commander Winchell should follow up your action by giving a Naval "salute" to this Communist-controlled union in both his column and over the air? Do you not think this brazen attempt to confuse your action in the public mind needs to be explained?

While Winchell has been a tool of Communists and has given them some cooperation, the very nature of most of his items in this regard might possibly indicate that his course has not been dictated by any love for Communism. Winchell is an opportunist. He cooperates with any un-American, unscrupulous element which can advance his interest. On the other hand he has made attacks on the Communists.

Here is his idea of an "anti-Communist" tirade in his column of July 22, 1943:

"Communism was a ready-made scare, largely because the Com-mies in all the lands were such blunderers. The world was full of people who got as mad as bulls when you waved Red at them. The shady set in all lands found it useful to cover up their swindels. Nothing was too fantastic to serve as a club against the Bolo . . ."

And the Communists have denounced him too, although infrequently, but at the moment they are giving him 1000 percent support in his controversy with Congressman Dies.

On Feb. 2, 1944, the Communist Daily Worker in charging that opposition to Communism in America was detrimental to the war effort, declared: "And a Jewish-American newspaperman, Walter Winchell, rushes forward to help the Nazis in spreading the propaganda in America."

The result is Winchell is becoming both confused and confusing. You can't constantly applaud the Washington So-

* Eventually these Communists were reinstated with back pay. When Admiral Stanford C. Hooper, who was subsequently forced to retire because of his stand on this and other issues involving Communism in the Navy, made a protest, Secretary Knox told him: "That is a command from the White House and you have to obey it as well as I do."

cialists, boost your pet Communist, act as a mouthpiece for the Party Line and the fellow-travellers and at the same time maintain an undiluted 101 percent anti-Communist patriotism.

Odd News, Exclusive News . . .

Winchell came into prominence in New York originally as a pal of top-flight gangsters. In appreciation of his possibilities, Owney Madden, Public Enemy No. 1 during the prohibition era, gave him a snazi red sport roadster. Later, after the law caught up with Madden, Winchell returned the compliment by asking the Parole Board to free the gangster chief. Not to be outdone, Lucky Luciano, king of the prostitution racket, provided Winchell with armed body-guards — two cousins of Al Capone among them.

During this period, too, a New York Grand Jury heard testimony accusing Winchell of being the instigator of an abortive plot to murder. He was charged with having tried to get his gangster friends to put his editor "on the spot."

Winchell was held in such high esteem by New York's gangland that when Louis (Lepke) Buchalter, master mind of Murder, Inc., recently electrocuted in Sing Sing, decided to surrender, he contacted the columnist, who acted as go-between and delivered him to the Federal authorities.

Winchell was "O. K. with the mob," said Madden.

In his early days his connection with the underworld was so close that he was able to predict the murder of Vincent Coll a full six hours before the gangster was machine-gunned to death. The gang considered this a breach of confidence and decided to bump off Winchell as a double-crosser. Learning about it in advance, he succeeded in making a deal. In exchange for his life he paid over his life savings of $90,000.

Winchell was born in New York City on April 7, 1897. His name, according to CURRENT BIOGRAPHY, "has been variously reported as Lipschitz, Hirschfield, Weinshield and Bakst".

In the Congressional Record of June 10, 1940, he is called "Moses Weinstein, alias Walter Winchell."

In the Congressional Record of August 6, 1941, he is referred to as "Walter Lipshitz, alias Winchell."

In a devastating profile on "Winchell, the Pop-gun Patriot," which appeared in the Washington Times-Herald on July 19, 1942, Georgiana X. Preston declared: "Winchell's right name, of course, is not Winchell. Various of his friends of early days have suggested it was either Lipschitz, or Bakst, but Winchell has entered almost hysterical denial. His story is that the name originally was Winchel, but that he himself added the other 'l' under inspiration provided by a sign painter, who contracted to letter a door for his Uncle, but proved too generous with the 'l's. It just goes to show that sign painters can't be too careful . . ."

"Winchell refused to talk in any but the vaguest terms of his family background, but a certificate on file in New York's Bureau of Vital Statistics, one of the few official documents of the family that could be found — notes that the country of his forebears is Russia. Of course, there is no such name as Winchell, or Winchel, in Russia."

In fact the name on the certificate appears to be so new that there was difficulty in spelling it . . . it is spelled in two different ways. Walter's name is listed as "Winschel."

It is known, however, that Winchell's father used the name of Jacob Laino, and that Winchell assumed the name of "Lawrence" in his youth.

"Our real name," he once wrote with a show of impatience, is "Schmaltz."

Our guess would be that Winchell's real name (if it ever comes out) is, or should be, Vevele Weinschul, which is a good, honest respectable name.

Winchell's reluctance to frankly discuss his origin and background, however, leads to the inescapable conclusion that he has something to hide.

In her Times-Herald profile, Miss Preston also said:

"We have a sort of guilty feeling about Winchell. If ever a human was born to be a nonentity, to become nothing more harmful than a neighborhood pest, it was this nameless product of New York's East Side. If we — meaning literally thousands of Americans — hadn't encouraged him to pander to our lowest tastes, about the worst he'd be doing today would be to snitch on some girl or fellow in the block who neglected to pull the shades tightly. Until we created this thing that goes by the name of Winchell, all good Americans had been brought up to believe that gossip, particularly malicious gossip, was abhorrent . . ."

When providing biographical material on himself, Winchell appears to have been just as careless and inaccurate as he is in his column and broadcasts. His sketch in "Who's Who in American Jewry" disclosed that he was married in 1919. His listing in the "Biographical Encyclopedia of American Jews" has him married in 1922, while in "Current Biography," the date of his marriage is stated as being 1923.

Next to his reputation for inaccuracy, Winchell is perhaps best known for his physical cowardice. It is not just a question of his being afraid of what his victims might do to him . . . although the public beating he received at the hands of Al Jolson for allegedly slandering Ruby Keeler (Mrs. Jolson at the time) has no doubt left a strong impression . . . he is just afraid . . . afraid of his shadow . . . afraid of the dark . . . afraid to pass an undertaking parlor by himself . . . terrified at the smell of embalming fluid.

In order to overcome this fear complex and to bolster his courage, if any, Walter packs, not one "gat," but two. So much was said about this that Winchell became self-conscious and sought to explain in his column of May 19, 1942:

"For many years the Butte (Montana) Daily Bulletin slugged courageously against the no-goods, regardless of how powerful they were. Because of that, they had to keep loaded rifles in the city room — and every reporter had a gun laying beside his typewriter . . . This reporter has also never stopped firing his typewriter guns against the slimey members of our community and country, in spite of all kinds of threats. Yet some people wonder why we tote a .38."

His third most important characteristic is his yen for meddling in other people's affairs. Even as a yeoman in the Navy in World War 1, he couldn't mind his own business. TIME Magazine reported that "he fought the War in New York City in the Custom House as receptionist to the late Rear Admiral Marbury Johnston, and it was prophetic that he seared his nose in a candle flame when, instead of giving his full attention to applying sealing wax to envelopes, he tried to hear what the Admiral was telling some other officers about the impending armistice."

In the long period since that time, the peep-hole peeper has not only been poking his nose into other people's business, but has been rattling skeletons in other people's closets with a bland arrogance that suggested he had none of his own to worry about.

But there is a skeleton in Winchell's closet and it is a real one. Real enough so that Winchell, who is not known as a spendthrift, paid out $1,500 to "blackmailers" to keep it out of the newspapers. Sorry . . . no details. There is only one reporter . . . "your New York reporter" . . . who is low enough to print the story. And he'll probably explain that it's a military secret and can't be made public until after the war. If you are exceptionally interested, however, and cannot wait, you can satisfy your curiosity by inspecting the blotter at New York's 30th Precinct Police Station for May 23, 1930, or you can take a peek at Magistrate's Court file No. 3592.

However, as a foul-mouthed Maestro of Innuendo and Legalized Slander, Walter Winchell has dealt mainly in dirt. While he looks for, finds, capitalizes on and broadcasts dirt . . . just any kind of dirt . . . most times with a deceitful, deceiving, unfair and untrue emphasis, his specialty has always been the pointing-up of extra-marital dallies or girlesque philanderings of names in the news.

Nine times out of ten, Winchell doesn't know what he is talking about . . . but that's a minor detail with him.

Ferdinand Lundberg, in a piece written in 1942, described the Lieutenant Commander's contributions to the war effort in this fashion:

"Winchell's writings . . . concern only the boudoir and the bordello . . . his preoccupation with seduction, wooing, fornication, copulation, conception, pregnancy, parturition, adultery and perversion is pursued out of a spirit of pure malice and vindictiveness."

If some other columnist wanted to stoop to Winchell's level he could write a real hot squib, and, to boot, be more factual than the great "W. W." usually is. He could item:

"What vocal publisher of what one-man newspaper is hoping that J. Edgar Hoover's sleuths won't follow up that investigation of a prominent west coast Mann Actor by looking into the affairs of the country's leading sexpert on patriotism and Constitutional law . . . The 'baby doll' who shuttled across nine state lines between Miami and New York in upper berths . . . he was that cheap . . . was what Errol Flynn called 'jail bait' when they first started to sizzle . . . under sixteen. Clew for Mr. Hoover: Her initials could be M. L. B."

Or he could paragraph a tear jerker with hilarious overtones like this:

"BROADWAY HEARTBREAK: He was big time . . . but married. She was a chorus doll . . . but young. They met . . . made merry . . . became mad about each other. . . at least she did. For years they rondavooed on the Q. T. . . he had to be careful . . . had a rep . . . a respectable home life to live up to . . . and he had "enemies" whose love life he'd gossiped about. Haunted by the prospect of being "caught" he took precautions. Bravely . . . because she cared . . . she kept her chin up. But her heart is heavy because it's no fun when her beau comes a courtin' and keeps his hat and overcoat on . . . for appearances sake . . . just in case."

Or he could be real nazty and ask:

"What was Walter Winchell doing in Towson, Maryland, not so long ago?"

Attention Mr. & Mrs. United States:

Winchell has convinced himself that he is not only a heavy thinker, but that he is just about the only man on earth who knows how the war is to be run, how our international problems are to be handled and how the peace is to be arranged. He has "told off" our Generals, the State Department, the Attorney General and even the President, among others. He has ignored the governmental mechanism set up under the Constitution and, speaking for the United States, has attempted to interfere in the affairs of foreign nations.

Winchell does not want it to be forgotten that this second World War was declared after the British Prime Minister had received cabled advices from him to declare war on Germany. He has gone out of his way to let the inference be drawn that he had influenced Chamberlain.

Accordingly, he has been particularly bitter against what he calls "iso-louse-tionists," hoping that the American people will forget that Mr. Winchell was an original and outspoken "Nazilationist," to use another of his pet terms.

In April 1939 he probably outdid Senators Wheeler and Nye and Col. Lindbergh put together when he wrote:

"Once again Europe is rolling the loaded dice of destiny. Once again her miserable diplomats are pointing down the one-way street to war. And once again America is asked to play her role of the great international sucker. The time has come for us to pause and consider. If we must have another unknown soldier, let us not ask him to die for an unknown reason. And just what will be accomplished by dying in the mud? He will not increase America's resources; the last war nearly ruined the great plains. He will not increase America's wealth. In the last war we loaned our gold and were gold-bricked in return. He will not increase our liberties, for no man may protest slaughter after it starts. We must develop our youth, not sacrifice it. The future of American youth is on top of American soil, not underneath European dirt."

Even as late as March 17, 1940, after the European war started, Winchell was still an isolationist insofar as the United States was concerned. In response to an inquiry from the London Daily Mail in which he was asked, "Why the American people were eager to 'stop Hitler' before the Allies decided to do so, but are now following a 'keep out of war at all costs' policy," Winchell answered:

"We have good reason to distrust Europe . . . Twenty years ago we had faith. Now we have experience. We have eleven billion dollars in war debts to remind us that Europe's commercial promises are no good . . . We think Europe is morally bankrupt; and that it is a quaint European custom to cry about universal liberty to protect a selfish national policy . . . Under certain conditions, if necessary, we will fight to the death. But this time it will only be to defend our own country."

In spite of all this, Winchell has had the gall not only to continue to condemn his former isolationist friends, but to question their present support of the war effort. On his broadcast of Jan. 31, 1943, in directing his criticism at members of Congress, he said:

"You bet I am prejudiced against those in high office who guessed so wrong before Pearl Harbor . . . I am not in the least comforted by their confessions of ignorance."

In the O. W. I. booklet, "Divide and Conquer," there is a passage that applies to people like Winchell. In speaking of isolationist sentiment, held by many before Pearl Harbor, the pamphlet goes on to say:

"Today most of these Americans have recanted publicly or in private. A few mumble, 'I told you so' — and hope no one will remember what it was they really told."

In response to a particularly bitter assault he made on "midwest isolationism," the editor of the Nebraska City News-Press returned the "retort wonderful:"

"We of the 'Isolationist Belt', as Brother Winchell refers to us, know just as much about this war as he does, only we are not boasting about donating our composite or individual weeks' pay to the United Service Organizations, Navy Relief, or some other charity. We go ahead donating without the impetus of publicity."

"None of us wears a Navy Reservist uniform to work — our idea being that a naval outfit belongs to a Navy man who is on the firing line, not on a gent standing before a mike ripping it into people with whom he does not always agree."

Winchell has become such a fanatic on the general subject of so-called Isolationism and Nationalism that he screams "Nazi" and "Un-American" at everyone who is outspokenly pro-American.

You would think, to hear him talk, that nobody was doing anything to help win the war but Walter Winchell.

Much has been said by Winchell and his co-smearers about Winchell's "important" contributions to the war effort. He did adopt a Chinese baby, but the exact nature of other contributions remains vague, with the exception of his asserted contribution to Navy Relief of his salary and allowances while on "active" duty. But Lieutenant Commander Winchell's active duty orders with the Navy embraced only 78 days following Pearl Harbor — and but 41 days of this period actually were served under specific orders. Apparently on his own responsibility Winchell restored himself to inactive duty and loafed around Miami acquiring a Pacific combat zone sun-tan until the Navy, under pressure, officially "retired" him 37 days later.

Base pay of $250 a month was drawn for the entire 78 day period, of course. But, since Winchell's over-all income is subject to a 91 percent income tax, according to his own statement, his munificent "contribution" to Navy Relief was, as far as arithmetic is to be trusted, approximately $58.27. "Omigahd!"

Further evidence of Winchell's "contributions" and self-sacrifice in the interests of the war effort is found in a "no blackout" ultimatum involving the Army, the Office of Civilian Defense and Mayor LaGuardia of New York City. A blackout had been ordered for 9 o'clock Sunday night, Feb. 26, 1944 — and 9 o'clock is Walter's radio time for the protection of "soft, smooth, romantic hands" with Jergens' lotion. Alarmed more over his Crossley radio rating than over the protection and security of America's largest city, Winchell protested to Mayor LaGuardia. La Guardia was adamant; the blackout would be carried out as scheduled, he declared. "In that case," Winchell notified New York's anti-gambling Mayor, "when I am on the air during the blackout I will announce that the only lights on in Manhattan are at City Hall, where a poker game is going on." This patriotic bit of blackmail worked. The blackout time was changed to 9:30.

Yet, according to Winchell, officials who can't be named "until after the war" say a lot of important things to back him up and commend him for his "unselfish service," the nature of which, he says, must remain a military secret.

Not only was the Arm Chair Admiral unwilling to make an inconsequential contribution to the war effort on the home front, he reached a new "patriotic" low by smearing General Douglas MacArthur, the hero of the Pacific. The fact that this may have been done as an act of blind political allegiance to a Commander-in-Chief, whose Fourth Term incumbency was being threatened, only adds to the infamy.

Incensed by the subversive nature of the attack, Congressman A. L. Miller of Nebraska, on March 16, 1944 called it "a deliberate attempt by anti-American smear artists of a termite variety . . . to poison the minds of the American people by launching a near slanderous and abusive attack upon a great commander in our armed forces.

"I believe the attack in the Communist Daily Worker, PM, and echoed by Walter Winchell, king of the smear artists, comes as near being a treasonable act as I have ever read," he said.

Mairzy Doatzy Department . . .

A book could be written on the misstatements of fact, advertent and inadvertent errors, deliberate lies and false innuendos which crowd the columns and broadcasts of this High Priest of the Sanhedrin of Smear. His inaccuracy and utter unreliability is so well-known, however, that it would be "carrying coals to Newcastle" to devote any considerable space to this phase of his activity. Consider just a few items:

One classic illustration is the story he told on the air and repeated in his column of Feb. 8, 1943, about the alleged technique employed by the F.B.I. to trap Nazi agents who were supposedly responsible for the leakage of highly confidential information in connection with the Roosevelt-Churchill Casablanca confab. He told his radio audience and his readers that 22 men had been trapped, "some of whom are said to be high in U. S. Gov't circles."

Next day, a spokesman for J. Edgar Hoover, Chief of the F. B. I., explained to reporters that no one had been taken into custody and that "the F. B. I. knows nothing about this particular case." An inquiry at the War Department evoked the facetious suggestion that "since Mr. Winchell is a Commodore of some sort, you had better contact the Navy." Navy officials said they knew nothing about the matter either.

There probably would have been no World War No. 2 if Walter Winchell was the expert on international affairs he pretends to be, for on March 29, 1937 he announced without reservation that "Adolf and Benito had phfft! The break will be officially announced soon enough."

And, there would be no concern about a possible fourth term for President Roosevelt if Winchell really had the inside dope and knew what he was talking about when he emphatically declared four years ago: "You can safely wager that F. D. R. positively will not run in 1940."

The New Yorker Magazine at the time it published a series of profiles on the "gossip writer" conducted an extensive survey which showed that he is right only 41% of the time. "In short, ladies and gentlemen" about 60% of Winchy's "exclusives," "scoops," "inside dope" and "flashes" are probably incorrect or false, the magazine indicated.

Winchell's pose as a military authority has its humorous aspects. Early in March, 1944, he told his readers a fantastic story about a Jap prisoner who had supposedly been captured at Dutch Harbor where he had been hiding out "since the Americans re-took the spot." The Jap, according to Winchell, concealed a grenade in his loin cloth and blew himself and five naval officers to bits as he was being questioned.

Reporters in the Aleutians tried to check Winchell's "scoop" with Col. William Verbeck, G-2 Intelligence Officer.

"I don't know," the Colonel said with a broad grin, "how we could 'retake' Dutch Harbor as the Japs never had it in the first place.

"Furthermore", he added, "the whole story is untrue. I know, because I was there."

Winchell, as a Naval officer, is a joke. He knows so little about the Navy that on May 8, 1944, he itemed: "Gypsy Mark-off's big moment is Col. C. Phillips, the Navy flier." Who but Winchell ever heard of Colonels in the Navy? And to make Winchell's "low-down" 200% inaccurate, the Navy has no flier by that name and the Marine Corps can't locate him either.

How little Winchell actually knows about what is going on and an indication of how he manufactures items out of whole cloth in order to give the idea that he is an outstanding enemy of so-called "subversives" is shown in his column of April 5, 1944. He wrote:

"Lawrence Dennis, indicted on sedition charges and George Sylvester Viereck (out on bail pending appeal of his prison term for Nazi agenting) trading glares with a columnist."

George Sylvester Viereck has been in jail since July 16,

1943. His bids for release on bail pending appeal had been turned down and at the time Winchell's item appeared his two appeals had already been denied. Lawrence Dennis was in Chicago when the item appeared, had been there for a week previous conferring with his attorneys. and prior to that time had been in Washington in connection with his case. In short, the item was 100 percent phony.

In a slightly different category is the "Flash" item Captain Eddie Rickenbacker mentions in the November, 1943, issue of the AMERICAN MAGAZINE. He wrote:

"Once I heard a voice on the radio beside my bed say, 'Flash! It is now confirmed that Eddie Rickenbacker is dying and will not live over an hour.' It was Walter Winchell. It made me madder than hell."

An ideological analysis of Winchell's column will show a very definite Left Wing bias. He never misses an opportunity to take a back-handed slap at some Capitalist and by the same token is forever giving "orchids" to some pet Red or Radical enterprise.

On Jan. 17, 1944, he took on the great U. S. Steel Corporation, accused it of perpetrating "one of the biggest grabs of the war" and intimated that, with Government connivance, it had taken advantage of property owners at Homestead, Pa. by beating them out of 90 percent of their property value and then suggested that the Company was deliberately neglecting to produce steel to the detriment of the war effort.

Two days later, Bert F. Kline, editor of the Homestead Daily Messenger, wrote a letter to Winchell in which he said: "Your column of January 17th carried a paragraph on 'the biggest grab of the war', the most unfounded statements I have ever read. Now please get me straight. I have always admired your forthrightness and fearlessness and I wonder where you got all the misinformation carried in that one paragraph."

In an editorial, Editor Kline declared: "Winchell always has leaned toward sensationalism, but we we were always of the opinion that he investigated his stories and dealt pretty much with fact. Our opinion has been changed for we have never seen a statement that deviates more from the truth . . . Winchell is dead wrong and the statements he made never did occur."

There is hardly a single column or broadcast in which Winchell does not betray his lack of breeding. What other writer, or alleged writer, would be so lacking in common decency as to make cracks about Mrs. Roosevelt's teeth? Of course that was before he became a White House hatchet man for Mr. Roosevelt.

Years ago, before Winchell became a "patriot" and began his career as a political smearer . . . when it was good Party Line doctrine to debunk our national heroes . . . he started out by doing a job on George Washington . . . ridiculing his false teeth . . . raking over his domestic troubles . . . "exposing" his alleged illicit love life.

It will undoubtedly be hard for many people in his vast audience who look up to him as an intellectual giant to realize that the man is so ignorant that he once wrote glibly in his column about the seaport of Paris, (which caused his editor to buy him a map) and referred to Emile Zola as a famous woman writer. But it is not so surprising when we find him boasting of the fact that he was "practically expelled from school for being a dunce."

He plumbed the depths however, and gave insult to the Catholic world when he cast aspersions on the morals of a Saint. To show his intimate knowledge of history, he made crude, offensive and vulgar references to St. Joan d' Arc. "Too much sex appeal forced her to discard her dresses for male apparel and too much sex appeal caused her to fasten them down with plenty of buttons," he wrote.

Representatives of the New York Mirror were profuse in their apologies to the Catholic hierarchy for the unspeakable slur and indecency . . . they pleaded that this sacrilege was due altogether to Mr. Winchell's gross ignorance.

He antagonized American Catholics again a few years ago when he helped to spread a despicable and degrading smear (which the F.B.I. and both Army and Navy Intelligence found to be untrue), against Senator David I. Walsh, prominent Catholic layman. The result was that the National Board of Directors of the Knights of Columbus, meeting in Milwaukee on June 28, 1942, passed a resolution calling on the Federal Communications Commission to bar Winchell from further use of the broadcasting facilities of the nation.

Of recent years, Winchell has discovered a new racket which fits in very nicely with the pernicious political propaganda purposes for which his column and broadcast are being used. Employing the guile and trickery of a medicine show quack, he bamboozles his audience with a lot of fire-eating fulminations and fantastic fol-de-rol and then sells them the snake oil . . . a book . . . sometimes a smutty, sexy aphrodisiac . . . more often a screed of slime and slush by some fellow-traveler of the Smear Bund . . .

He has plugged books like "The Bedroom Companion," which he says is "Gayer than DeMaupassant!"; "The Illustrious Dunderheads," with illustrations by Gropper, cartoonist for the Communist Daily Worker, which reviled and ridiculed members of Congress; "Sabotage," by two Communist Party-line authors; UNDER COVER, of course, and "Secret Armies" by John Spivak, leading Communist propagandist.

Winchell not only endorsed "Secret Armies", which was similar to UNDER COVER, attacking some of the same people, but paid to have a copy sent to each Congressman. Representative Shafer of Michigan exposed the book on the floor of the House and told his colleagues:

"John L. Spivak is a writer for the Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist Party in America. He is a writer for the New Masses, another Communist publication; writer for the South Today, Communist publication, the editorial board of which is made up of James Ford, Communist Party candidate for Vice President in 1936, Harry Haywood, William Patterson and Robert Minor, all notorious Communists."

In concluding his remarks, Representative Shafer said: "It is to be regretted that Walter Winchell has become a ballyhooer of 'Red' propaganda in advertising 'Secret Armies' over the radio and in his newspaper column."

Then a good American sued for libel. Charges made in the book were found to be untrue. The publishers agreed "not to re-print or distribute any more copies of 'Secret Armies' subsequent to (Dec. 13, 1940) unless all references to (the good American) are first deleted therefrom."

Things You Never Knew Till Now . . .

No one man, not even the great "W. W." himself could make all the mistakes, concoct all the smears and think up all the lies that tumble with such boisterous abandon and profusion from Winchell's typewriter and mike. To help him Walter Winchell has at his beck and call the satraps, the satellites, the sycophants and stooges of the Smear Bund.

Some of Winchell's choicest morsels have come from such tyros of smear as Richard Rollins, born Isadore Rothberg, and Dorothy Kahn Wursburger Kalen, alias Dorothy Waring, alias Mary Gaffney, etc., of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights; Robert Greenfield, Arnold Foster, born Abraham Fastenberg, and Helmut Oberwinder, alias John C. Metcalf, of the Anti-Defamation League; Albert E. Kahn of New Currents and PM and Walter Lowenfels of the Communist Daily Worker.*

Is it any wonder that William Randolph Hearst, Walter Winchell's employer, found it necessary in March 1938 to wire the editors of his chain of newspapers:

PLEASE EDIT WINCHELL VERY CAREFULLY AND LEAVE OUT ANY DANGEROUS OR DISAGREEABLE
PARAGRAPHS. INDEED, LEAVE OUT THE WHOLE COLUMN WITHOUT HESITATION, AS I THINK HE HAS GOTTEN SO CARELESS THAT HE IS NO LONGER
OF ANY PARTICULAR VALUE.

Is it any wonder that the Andrew Jergens Company found it necessary to hire a lawyer, one Henry Alexander, to edit Winchell's radio scripts before he goes on the air?

Is it any wonder that the Blue Network, after its officials were summoned to Washington for conferences with Major General Surles and other Army officers, found it necessary to promulgate a special broadcaster's code in order to cope with Winchell's indiscretions? "My fangs have been removed," said Winchell using the proper metaphor.

Is it any wonder that Lennen & Mitchell, the advertising agency which handles the Andrew Jergens Company's radio account, began to blue pencil Winchell's scripts?

Is it any wonder that in final desperation, after Winchell had maliciously attacked and provoked Congressman Martin Dies into a public controversy, the Jergens' lawyers, the advertising agents, the Blue Network officials and the sponsor himself combined to restrain Winchell's malicious ruthlessness in the face of rising public indignation?

* Lieutenant Commander Winchell used to get authentic secrets from Sergeant Peter J. Innes, one of the founders of the National Maritime Union, who was doing under cover work for the Army in the Corps of Intelligence Police, Governors Island, N. Y. An investigation of Sergeant Innes and his activities by Military Intelligence resulted in his being court-martialed and sentenced to seven years imprisonment. One fact which came out in the secret inquiry was that Winchell had tried to have two men placed with Army Intelligence. One was connected with the Coordinating Committee for Democratic Action, an important unit of the Smear Bund since merged with the Friends of Democracy. The other was from the smear sheet PM.

Each time an attempt was made to restrain him, Winchell agreed reluctantly, sometimes after quite a show of beligerence. But, almost invariably, he ignored his commitments, actual or implied, and proceeded to show his lack of character and principle by committing new excesses.

As an aftermath of the Winchell-Dies controversy another attempt was made to keep him within the bounds of decency. This time his sponsors, the Andrew Jergens Company, on the Sunday following Mr. Dies' broadcast, had the program announcer tell the listening public that Winchell would no longer attack Members of Congress or libel those with whom he disagreed personally and politically. Said the announcer:

"The Jergen's Journal will continue to be a vehicle for your enjoyment and entertainment. It is not intended as a public forum for the discussion of political, partisan or other controversial or personal differences."

Yet, in spite of this solemn promise, Winchell continues to assail members of Congress. During the broadcast of the Jergen's Journal, the following week April 9, 1944, he deliberately attacked Senator Clyde M. Reed, of Kansas, in his usual insulting manner. And on the next broadcast, April 16, 1944, he made another vicious assault on an unnamed member of Congress.

It is evident that the commercial interests and network officials responsible for Winchell and his broadcasts are unable to cope with the situation. It now remains for the properly constituted committee of Congress—the Special Committee on un-American Activities — to proceed with its scheduled investigation of Mr. Winchell and the Smear Bund and to make the proper recommendations to Congress for appropriate legislation that will protect the American people and their elected representatives from the abuses of free speech without, at the same time, denying that Constitutional right and privilege in any of its legitimate phases. "Comforting thaut!"

The investigation of Walter Winchell by the Dies Committee resulted from a series of attacks made by the commentator on Chairman Dies, on his Committee and on other members of Congress. One accusation made by Winchell was to the effect that the files of the Dies Committee had been made available to "your news boy," Joseph P. Kamp.

This charge was originally made in the Communist Daily Worker. It was repeated in "NEW CURRENTS—A National Jewish Monthly," and re-published in the smear book "Sabotage." Then Walter Winchell broadcast it to "Mr. and Mrs. North and South America, and all our men overseas."

When Congressman Dies challenged the truth of the charge, the Communist Daily Worker came to Winchell's defense. It explained that Kamp was preparing a new book and then claimed the "exposure" of this fact "clarifies some of the recent attacks by Martin Dies on radio commentators."

But, instead of attempting to prove that Winchell was right, the Daily Worker made a tricky reverse play and charged that Kamp's files were made available to Martin Dies. Said the Communist rag: "Dies, however, did not admit that he had access to Kamp's files." (Emphasis by Daily Worker.)

In answering Winchell's slanders and sinister implications, Chairman Dies declared:

"His methods of propaganda are like those of the Nazi Goebbels. He condemns intolerance and then practices it himself."

Forced by the rising tide of public opinion, Winchell's radio sponsors belatedly offered Chairman Dies a 15-minute period on a national radio hook-up in which to refute Winchell's lies and slanders made over a period of years.

In his radio address, Chairman Dies accused Winchell of being a "tool of a Smear Bund" and he promised that his Committee would investigate the conspiracy thoroughly and tell the American people "who is supplying the brains and who is paying the bills." "It's about time!"

Declaring that while he was "interested in replying to the false statements many times repeated" on the Winchell program, Mr. Dies said he was "more concerned to fix the attention of the American people on one of the most sinister forces this Nation has ever faced — a highly organized and well financed enterprise to destroy by vilification the character of any public man who gets in the way of the objectives of the groups who manage and finance this offensive."

"Winchell is being used," Chairman Dies charged, "as a transmission belt to deliver into millions of ears damaging statements, half-truths, cunningly slanted implications designed to impugn the loyalty and to destroy the characters of American public men who oppose the objectives of these subversive groups and to break down confidence in the Congress of the United States."

"I warn you," Dies declared, "that there is a dangerously intelligent and aggressive movement to undermine the authority and destroy the prestige of Congress in the interest of setting up an all-powerful executive. This program of vilification is part of that."

Mr. Dies then said that "these specialists in vilification would not dare charge reputable men with sedition. But they have found a means by which, through innuendo and indirection, they can select a victim and smear him with the odium of treason while skirting the edge of the libel laws."

After calling attention to Winchell's claim that he was told to "stay on the radio" by some "powerful person" whose name dare not be mentioned, Chairman Dies asked, "for what purpose? To sell beauty preparations as part of the war effort? Of course not. He was ordered to stay on the radio to do what he is doing — to carry on the work of the Smear Bund."

Characterizing Winchell as a "peddler of bedroom key-hole scandal," Mr. Dies accused him of "sandwiching in" political propaganda "between his collection of divorces, infidelities and other social derelictions."

"Winchell is seeking to undermine the confidence of the people in the legislative branch. What could be of greater disservice to the country in time of war?" Chairman Dies demanded. "Such attacks have the cheap characteristics of intolerance. Let him remember that those who expect tolerance in others should extend tolerance to others," he said.

"We are really fighting two wars," the Texas Congressman concluded. "One is a war of men, guns, tanks, planes and ships. The other is a war of ideologies, rumors, intolerance, character assassinations, subversive activities, and propaganda that seek to destroy representative government. We must win both of these wars to preserve our freedom."

Winchell made three principal points in attempting to counter the Dies' attack. In a published statement issued 24 hours before Dies spoke, he made the ludicrous charge that Martin Dies was helping "the Communist Party by attacking scores of well-known progressive Americans."

In his newspaper "col'm" immediately following the broadcast, Winchell published a letter he had received from Dies some years ago commending him for cooperation extended in the early days of the Dies investigation . . . but written before Winchell attempted to blackmail Dies into making certain investigations by threatening to "expose" one of Dies' investigators as an anti-Semite. Then, in the same column after calling Dies "this person from Texas . . . one of the dime-a-dozen statesmen," he tried to deprecate the valuable work done by Dies in ferreting out subversives threatening to undermine the government by asking:

"Whom did he pin the plot on? Stalin? No. Trotsky? No, no . . . I will tell you whom he dragged up as the powerful menace to the American way of life. He named Shirley Temple. Shirley, not yet ten years old at the time, was the excuse Dies offered for the hundred-and-some thousands he wheedled out of Congress."

The fact that Winchell couldn't dig up anything better than this original Communist canard which was thoroughly debunked years ago was conclusive evidence that not only was he in a state of panic, but that after all these years, since the time he just managed to squeeze through the fifth grade in grammar school, he still doesn't know the answers.

King Features Syndicate, which distributes Winchell's stuff, thought this column so bad they decided not to release it to their customers. Even the N. Y. Mirror, Winchell's key paper, deleted a sizable portion of an attack on Mr. Dies. Cancellations and complaints flooded the offices of the syndicate, with some papers printing but one Winchell column a week. One metropolitan daily killed 19 Winchell columns in one month. Winchell continues to boast of 800 outlets, however, but only about 175 papers are still publishing his tripe.

Winchell's contract with King Features expires in November and the chances are it won't be renewed. The last time a cancellation threatened, both the Left Wing New York Post and Red PM made generous offers. Here's hoping!

Aside from his hammy attempt at rebuttal, Winchell's principal answer, not only to Chairman Dies, but likewise to other Congressional critics, was to scream that they were trying to interfere with his right of free speech.

Winchell believes so much in free speech and a free press that on April 23, 1944, he threatened the nation's editors and publishers with libel suits, cited legal precedent and warned them against reprinting items about him from the Congressional Record.

Congressman Hoffman on the floor of the House, met Winchell's hokum with some astute observations. Said he:

"What an absurdity for Winchell, who over the years has made thousands of statements which tended to disgrace and humiliate good citizens, to, when the falsity of his statements, the harmful effect of his utterances is pointed out, complain about a denial of free speech.

"Perhaps no one has ever more extensively used and abused a free press, the freedom of speech, than has Walter Winchell.

"Those who would smirch Members of Congress, destroy the people's confidence in their chosen representatives, intimidate and silence all opponents of the New Deal and the Communists, are now the first to cry, whimper and whine when their hypocrisy is exposed; when their own words and actions are given the acid test of publicity, when their true purpose and character stand revealed.

"It is not my desire to limit free speech or a free press. My only demand has been that Winchell, in his public utterances, confine himself, when he makes statements purporting to be fact, to statements of fact; that he cease to falsely accuse not only Members of Congress, but all citizens of disloyalty; that he avoid false accusations, which tend to create race prejudice, disunity, discourage our men in the service and lower their morale."

Clown About Town . . .

Winchell "brushed off" Mr. Hoffman's logic with a "colyum" in which he likened his plight to the fight for freedom of the press made by some of the most distinguished figures in American journalism. As one of his friends once wrote, the "Gents' Room Journalist" has "a vanity which often expresses itself in overflowing tributes to himself."

Columnist Ed Sullivan paragraphed the "retort terrific" when he observed:

"In an excess of modesty, Winchell compares himself with great Thomas Paine, Horace Greeley, James Gordon Bennett, William Allen White, Jacob Riis, Lincoln Steffens, and Heywood Broun, and throws in Joseph Pulitzer for good measure . . . Always belittlin' himself! . . . Winchell, self-styled apostle of free speech, had N'Yorker editor Harold Ross barred from the Stork Club, because Ross exercised free speech and razzed him in print . . . Because Earl Carroll exercised the right of free speech and told him to his face what he thought of him, Winchell taunted Carroll for years in print as 'a convict'."

By any means Winchell is determined to carve himself a niche of fame among the immortals of journalism alongside that of the distinguished Joseph Pulitzer. Somehow he learned about the Pulitzer Prizes and so he is now making plans to establish "Winchell Awards" to be given, no doubt, to honest and respected members of the newspaper craft whose names and endeavors will reflect to the greater glory of the Winchell handle. He's been talking over the details with Louie Sobol and a few other "friends" who still speak to him.

In answer to the decision of the Dies Committee to investigate him, Winchell immediately became an authority on Constitutional law. He advised his hearers and readers that, "as is provided in the Constitution," he was entitled to be confronted with witnesses and to cross-examine them. For once, even the violently pro-Winchell PM was forced to say in its editorial: "Unfortunately there is no such provision in the Constitution."

On this point, Congressman Hoffman also had something to say:

"The right to be confronted with witnesses, the right to cross-examine, is given to every individual when tried before any court. That right is not given to people who are under investigation.

"And who is Winchell and what has been his conduct that he should complain because he was not first given a hearing, confronted by the witnesses? When did Winchell ever, during his long course of vilification and scandalmongering, ever give any of his victims an opportunity to state their side of the case before he went on the air slandering or libeling them?

"Winchell should be the last to complain that he has not been given a fair trial. Winchell is yellow. And when he sees exposure coming he hides behind the Constitution."

Time after time in public, in his column and over the air, Winchell has sneered his defiance at those who protested the untruthfulness of items which damaged reputations and destroyed good names. It was with disdain and contempt that he invited them to sue him . . . and then brazenly added the cheap and sneering flippancy: "You will have to wait your turn . . . the line forms on the right."

Many suits have been filed against Winchell. Some have been settled while others have dragged along for years as mounting legal fees discouraged litigants who were only interested in vindication. And, besides, they soon found out that, even in the event of victory and heavy damages, it would cost the gossip monger nothing, since his contracts with both the Andrew Jergens Company and King Features provided that in the event Winchell is sued for libel they will assume all responsibility in defending suits and paying damages.

Now, Winchell of all people, has announced that he has filed a libel suit against Representative Hoffman because the Congressman wrote a letter to the editor of the Marcellus (Mich.) News in which he said that Winchell had been "stripped" of his uniform. A month has already gone by and Mr. Hoffman has not as yet been served with any process.

This suit is just a trick . . . a defense mechanism . . . Right now, the tide is turning and Winchell is looking around for ways and means to intimidate his victims who have suddenly become vocal.

He "tipped his hand" when, in his column of April 12, 1944, he wrote:

"Some gazettes read the libel action against Congressman Hoffman too fast. We are suing because he allegedly told a Michigan newspaper that we were 'stripped' of our naval uniform . . . This is to warn anybody — don't print it or say it again. Outside of Congress or your straitjacket."

We insist on exercising our right of free speech to tell the truth. We refuse to be intimidated. We won't skirt the libel laws. We won't say it with loopholes!

The February 19, 1943, issue of PM, bright scarlet rag which is Winchell's co-worker in smearing Congress, under the headline "WINCHELL PUT OUT OF SERVICE," reported:

"The Navy stripped Winchell of his lieutenant-commander's uniform yesterday to appease the one-time isolationist bloc in Congress."

No phony libel suit or intimidating gossip "col'm" item can change that.

Winchell's libel suit against Mr. Hoffman is a year late and has the wrong defendant, if any.

If he had wanted to sue Congressman Hoffman, he could have filed suit at that time, a year ago, because on hearing the news, Hoffman told the press, and without Congressional immunity; "the Secretary's assurance that Winchell will not be recalled to active duty will prove a boon to Naval morale. No longer will Navy men wince at the spectacle of a Broadway gossipier sporting a lieutenant-commander's stripes while he snoops about in search of sexy tid-bits."

Congress was told that while Winchell has been placed on inactive status, he was retained on Navy rolls only "by virtue of pressure from the White House." Winchell has said that he offered to resign, but not to anyone in the Navy, and that the mysterious someone . . . "a spokesman for the government" . . . sort of talked him out of it . . . "Ho, Hum."

The use of the word "stripped" does not mean that Winchell was actually denuded . . . neither does it necessarily imply that Winchell was "drummed off the base." This explanation is not to suggest, however, that he should not have been kicked out of the Navy.

Winchell can argue all he wants to about the implications of the word "stripped" . . . he's used words to mean a lot of different things in his smearing throughout the years

BUT, there is no way he can get around the fact that he is out of uniform. More than that, he knows his present status is permanent . . . with the "blessing" of his Commander-in-Chief. He was told this in the offices of the House Naval Affairs Committee and two hours of abject pleading failed to change the decision.

Nevertheless, "Walter-the-Winch," as his patron saint might dub him, appears in a ridiculous role . . . the victim of a strip-tease . . . "Heheheh!"

Winchell's complaint against Congressman Hoffman is a lulu. He avers that Hoffman's "letter to the editor" holds him up to "public scorn, hatred, ridicule, contempt, shame and disgrace; to induce an evil opinion of him in minds of right-thinking persons, to make him an object of reproach and to dishonor and disgrace him in the estimation of the public and his friends and acquaintances, to his injury and personal damage in his reputation."

"Looka whooz talkin!"

Why are Winchell's reactions pathological? Why does he rant and rave and become hysterical? Why is he fanatically determined to destroy the reputations of others? Why does he accuse the objects of his hatred of being homosexual?

A psychiatrist or a psycho-analyst would have no trouble in finding the answers to these questions. Even a layman of some intelligence, without delving too far into diagnostic procedure or becoming involved in medical terminology, would conclude that:

1. Walter Winchell has a narcissus complex . . . an exaggerated ego . . . is an ego-maniac. (Like Hitler!)
2. He is abnormally sex-conscious to the point of vulgar exhibitionism . . . in print.
3. He is a confirmed neurotic . . . and definitely psychopathic . . . strictly whackpot.
4. He is a sadist.

There is more than one simple explanation of Winchell's psychoses. They could have evolved from the trials, tribulations and disappointments of his youth . . . They could have grown from his suspicion or knowledge of a family abnormality. Len De Caux, labor psychoanalyst and columnist for the CIO Union News Service, writes that "brainless bluster, pig-headedness, emotional tantrums and apparently aimless malice are often symptoms of some psychological maladjustment."

On the basis of any one of such unfortunate conditions, or, perhaps, because of all of them put together, Winchell developed a very definite inferiority complex early in life. The resulting frustrations caused him to exert himself to overcome imaginary barriers in the way of his ambition to succeed. By constantly finding fault and depreciating everybody else, he creates a feeling of superiority in himself.

Considering the peculiar way he acts at times, the crazy things he says and the goofy things he has done, there is a growing conviction on the part of many that Winchell should have his head examined . . . to use his own language, they think he's a fugitive from a nut factory. "Fervensakes!"

To others, he is "crazy like a fox" . . . smart, knows everything, and, according to Moe Annenberg, late racing sheet tycoon, "knows too many things about too many people."

There is something sly and sneaky, wily and tricky, cunning and stealthy about the way Winchell operates . . . His vulpine physiognomy . . . (a foxy puss to you, Walter) . . . plus the fact that he yelps and yaps are points in favor of this school of thought.

Those who contend that he is a mental case seem to have the edge, however, since Fred Allhoff, a recent biographer, sustains suspicion in this regard by recalling in Liberty magazine, that in his youth, Winchell was kicked in the head by a horse.

I'll Be back in a Flash with a FLASH . . .

On April 7, 1942, Walter Winchell colym'd an important observation: "Comforting thought: Our belittlers can only resort to name-calling, but the one name they can't call us is anti-American."

Well . . . that "comforting thought" is now and hereby cancelled out of Walter's consciousness. As a sponsor of the anti-American book UNDER COVER, as a stooge of the Smear Bund and as America's No. 1 promoter of dissension, discord and disunity in time of war, Walter Winchell IS anti-American! "Why isn't something done about that?"

And that, ladies and gentlemen, winds up our edition on the Jergens' Journal and, "with lotions of love" on the "remains" of your New York correspondent, Walter Winchell, who believes that when you "dish it out," but can't take it the only thing to do is to invoke the Constitution and yip and yowl about "free speech."

Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception, as we will show you. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are nonpartisan, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information from over the world.

PRES. TRUMAN AND O. P. A.

TRUMAN AND O. P. A.

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE U. S.:

We address you in the spirit of cooperation, being prompted by a desire to do or say something constructive for the greatest good for America. It is realized that your position is not an easy one and that most of your headaches have been inherited from your predecessor.

Listening to your talk over the radio Saturday night we visualized you as tired and worn out from continual advice and threats from pressure groups and from politicians of your own party telling you how your decisions will affect the party at the next election. We also visualize groups of manufacturers and business men urging you in your decisions. You are told of disaster either way.

You receive plenty of advice from the ring-side lobbyists, hence, here is a little from out in the bleachers. We talk with business men, working men, housewives, lawyers.

The basic reason for the failure of O.P.A. or the scrapping of it is LACK OF CONFIDENCE.

It is important that you examine the situation and benefit from experience with O.P.A., for other agencies and departments of the government will be on trial soon. O.P.A. may be a blessing or a curse, we will leave that decision to others smarter than we.

True or false, millions of Americans believe the O.P.A. is packed with Reds, hence, this agency cannot be judged on its merits. If all these Reds were taken out of O.P.A. and their enemies put in charge, so the Russian Firsters could not use O.P.A. to advance their cause, then all the Communist Fronts and fellow travelers in U.S. would line up to kill the O.P.A.

So that, Mr. President, is the situation we have in America, by allowing agents of a foreign government a free hand to organize in our country. We are now so divided either half will have no confidence in any movement conducted by the other half. There is no doubt there is some good and some bad in O.P.A. as well as the other departments and agencies of our government, but they are all due to failure, unless the Reds are taken completely out and these departments returned to true Americans—Democrats or Republicans.

The American Government is doomed to bankruptcy and failure as sure as the O.P.A. unless Communists are removed. Many of us are certain that that is what this Red Fifth Column is in there to bring

RABBI BENJAMIN SCHUTZ OF YONKERS, N. Y., WROTE TO THE NEW YORK TIMES:

Rabbi Schultz wrote:

"In his recent warning against Communism, Cardinal Spellman, I believe, spoke not only for his Church but for adherents of all faiths.

"Religious persons cannot, and must not, remain silent in the face of Marxist propaganda here, coupled with its military aggression abroad.

"The two are part of the same master plan.

"It is not merely the philosophy that is frightening.

"Communist practice behind the 'iron curtain' has meant blood, agony and death.

"The fate of pious Jews there is not generally known to the public. Yet enough authenticated facts have come to light to make protests necessary.

"Oldsters in Russia may worship in their synagogues.

"But the teachings of my faith to children is forbidden.

"Hebrew instruction is a crime.

"Thousands of Zionists languish in jail.

"Yiddish is slowly disappearing.

"There is no true Jewish communal life.

"Committees, like the famous Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee, are Government units.

"Of 150,000 Jews who escaped into Russia from Nazi-occupied Poland, one-third died in six years.

"They were kept at heavy forest labor with criminals in Siberia and other frozen lands.

"Since the godlessness professed by the party in power does not preclude cruelty to individuals, aroused world indignation might ease conditions.

"It would not be right, on any grounds, to ignore these facts any longer.

"The truth can still make men free."

"The Soviet leaders are aware that Communism will be accepted only by men who have the souls crushed out of them, when they are slaves, cowed and hopeless and groveling.

It cannot live in a land where men are men, where they can fortify themselves with spiritual strength and stand up and say, 'I am free; I am the captain of my soul!'

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF COMMUNISM

by George Nelson

Most Americans have some knowledge of the definition of child psychology, army psychology, psychology of love, sales and advertising psychology, etc. Since the psychology of Communism is so little known, we devote this article to that subject. Those who wish to inflict a Red regime upon the world promise the masses of people that more liberty and more equality will be had by the people when the government owns all property including private property. When all open and visible religion is suppressed and when the peoples lives are governed and regulated by centrally directed government politicians the Red Communist regime is really misnamed, because the word Communism means community life such as lived by the Eskimos, the African tribes, the primitive Indian tribes and others. Government Super-Capitalism is a name for it. Throughout history people have accepted orators words or empty promises for fulfilled deeds. For example, over eighteen hundred years ago there are instances named in the bible where the people were warned against being deceived by those who promise freedom and liberty but who are themselves the servants of corruption. This is to be found in 2nd Peter, 2nd Chapter, the 18 to 21 verse, either in the King James or the Douay Catholic bible. While these schemes are very old the modern mechanisms and stream-lined psychological schemes will certainly deliver us into a worse slavery than was inflicted upon people in ancient times. Therefore, it is not strange to see people today accepting and practicing false ideas and unworkable theories today. Countless numbers of unworkable theories and impractical ideas are in our patent offices at Washington, D. C. Therefore, it is an established rule that not every idea or theory that orators advertise is a fact or a practical success.

Brave ex-Communists tell us their own experiences at the risk of their lives. Victor Kravchenko, Alexander Bellarmine, who were Russian officials and Andrew Smith and Louis Budenz who were American Communists, have edited books and newspaper articles about their experiences with the Red slavery. Communist conspirators tasks are made easier by the fact that so many people seek only the pleasures of life and don't give a hang about certain necessities of life, such as civil government, unions, religion, etc. They say "I watch out for myself". As long as I enjoy myself I don't

BUREAUCRATIC GOVERNMENT

Any thoughtful citizen admits that our government is becoming more Bureaucratic; that compared with the United States of some years back, we are moving fast towards a Totalitarian government. What we were told we were fighting to destroy in Europe, we are building here fast. What ten million of our boys sacrificed for and hundreds of thousands died and were crippled to defeat three thousand miles from home, we are now setting up to live under in America.

WHY?

Because we are confused and afraid of our government so it is running away with us. Fourteen years ago we had three hundred thousand Federal employees. Compared with other countries, this was too many and we were told it would be cut down. To-day, one year after war is over, the government has three million on its payroll. If you had a store needing ten clerks, would you hire one hundred?

Communism used war as an excuse to create many bureaus so they could load them down with Reds to undermine our government, like termites working for years on the understructure of a building. Termites are blind but they do a devastating job.

Now the Reds and fellow travelers not wanting to return to private life and allow us a really American government are creating new bureaus to regiment our citizens in everything from making a hamburger to constructing a building. Always an emergency to scare us so we cannot think! They tell us it is to protect us from ourselves but they make the situation much worse while employing thousands of Reds and Pinks to tangle you up in red tape and aggravate you while you pay their salaries so they may be in position at election time to keep their Red crowd in office. Three million in office can swing twelve million votes.

These bureaus are actually to see that we do NOT build houses and do NOT get merchandise — to put men out of work, disgust people and help bankrupt us.

How Do We Get These Leeches Out?

More than three hundred Communist Fronts and other organizations controlled by Communists are pressure groups on Congress to force passage of Communist inspired bills and bureaus. The members of these organizations must be fearless in putting these Reds out of control. Sidney Hillman and his Red crowd must be prevented from defeating good men for Congress in November. They are raising millions to do this. If real American Republicans and real American Democrats think they can capture the government from these Reds and fellow travelers and drive Stalin's agents from Washington by regular political tactics that they use every election they might just as well save the expense and work of an election. That is twenty years out of date! Democrats and Republicans fight each other telling the people what great parties they are. That is just what Hillman and his followers, from the highest court down to Joseph Curran on the water front, want them to do.

It will take a crusade by angry Americans with sleeves rolled up and their brains active. What chance have these old line politicians had in the past, devoting a few weeks making lots of noise and afraid to really speak the truth, against thousands of Hillmans men who devote twelve months a year getting their men educated, registered and to the polls. They pull strikers

COMMUNIST SPEAKER GETS UNSYMPATHETIC RECEPTION

LONG BRANCH.—It was almost a case of more police and hecklers on hand than Communists last Thursday night, June 27, when the state Communist party committee opened its campaign in Monmouth and Larry Mahon, Newark, Communist candidate for Governor, spoke at Chelsea and Morris avenue.

With police in evidence on all sides awaiting possible disorder, Mahon spoke for more than half an hour, but few heard his full speech. Motorists and hecklers constantly interrupted him and kept his full speech from reaching the few interested persons.

Perched on a stepladder-like platform, Mahon wore a NAVY UNIFORM MINUS THE INSIGNIA, and carried his appeal to the few army enlisted men and veterans in his audience. He outlined the Communist platform which included the plea for jobs for veterans and told the group present that he "too, wants a job."

This brought out more cat-calls and shouts and Mahon then turned to blasting the construction of the Monmouth Park race track during the period of lumber shortages.

Apparently here, too, he hit his audience in a wrong vein, for more hoots from the crowd and honking of automobile horns followed.

Finally, as darkness neared, Mahon stepped down to be surrounded by the group and loud discussions started.

A police squad was on hand to prevent disorder with Police Chief Thomas J. Marks in charge of the group and Detective Capt. Robert Gurley and Capt. Carl Huhn in charge of squads. Police kept aloof until loud-voiced discussions started. Then the three commanding officers with Detective Joseph Purdy ordered the sidewalks cleared.

Members of the army intelligence corps said they questioned enlisted men taking part in the activities.

TWO BILLION BOOKS IN FOUR YEARS

Writing in the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial for April 26, 1937 — an edition which in its entirety is a sickening example of the Red propaganda that has been granted "recognition" by America — B. Mandelzweig, member of the press group known as the State Planning Commission, informs his readers that the U.S.S.R. has published during the four years 1933-1936, in 105 different languages, nearly 2,000,000,000 books (read billion, not million), each averaging between 110 and 120 pages. In 1936 alone 500,000,000 books were published.

BY JOSEF STALIN

"The world wide nature of our program is not mere talk, but an all-embracing and blood-soaked reality. It cannot be otherwise. Our ultimate aim is world Communism; our fighting preparations is for world revolution, for the conquest of power on a world-wide scale, and the establishment of a world proletarian dictatorship" care." Too many people are found who will sell their nation, race, and religion down the river for their own personal gain. People act according to sentiment, prejudice and passion, rather than by intellect and reason. Thus, disloyalty and gullibility on the part of many, make the task of the Communist conspirators easier. It must be kept in mind that most American Communists are well meaning and believe that evil action such as the killing of certain government officials, church leaders and certain wealthy individuals, is an evil which must be done so as to, theoretically, gain a good final result.

We say certain wealthy individuals only are killed by Communists, because other wealthy international minded persons actually finance Communism. It is a fact that without this financial aid, Communism could not be successfully inflicted upon the people. Great psychological leverage is gained when Communists use the "opinion" and "need" scheme. Control the opinion and create the scarcity or need of vital commodities and it is possible to overthrow existing social systems. For example, this was done in Russia in 1905, when conspirators flooded the Russian prisoner soldiers and their officer with tons of Red literature while they were Japanese prisoners. At home in Russia they caused strikes, bought up and hoarded vital commodities and told the people that the capitalists, the Czar and church leaders were to blame. It is no surprise then that thousands gave active violent opposition to the trouble weary government officials. Let us hope that thinking loyal Americans will rise up against this menace in America.

THE COMMUNIST

We could read in "The Communist" of November, 1935, pages 1057 and on:

"The Soviet Union will be forced to ally herself with capitalist powers; but the Soviet government will conduct the war as a revolutionary war, a war of propaganda for the overthrow of the capitalistic system. Socialism must not forget that the aims of the capitalist governments fighting on the side of the Soviet Union are entirely different from its own. It must, therefore, maintain with regard to these governments, its complete independence. It must not accept political responsibility for their conduct of the war; IT MUST NOT ENTER INTO A CIVIL PEACE WITH THEM."

about. To cause confusion and sabotage our government, hence, we are not convinced by the vast program of propaganda to perpetuate themselves. The taxpayers money is being spent by these agencies, not to carry on the purpose of the agency, but to keep the public sold on them. Frankly, Mr. President, if all the Reds would suddenly support the Constitution of the United States, many true Americans would hesitate, because they would know there was something fishy from Russia.

If the largest, most successful bank or Insurance Company was packed with Reds, then Congressmen, business men and citizens would lose confidence in this concern.

How would you reinstate this confidence? We all know. Take the Reds out. Until you do this, Mr. President, you, as the leader of this government, are going up stream with one paddle. You will have to do the first thing first. It is your move. You may be one of those who think they will force unity between true Americans and Reds. But in the words of Stalin as quoted by Max Eastman who knows Stalin, "It cannot be done, one will have to go". Mr. President, we think you need to listen to friends—not Reds or politicians, but real, true Americans, if you do not want to see real trouble. The Reds' preach trouble every day—they are bold in saying what they will do to get charge of America, but millions of us are ready to fight to the death before we will surrender.

You will have to take a stand and it is not going to be easy. You will make enemies. You will have to decide which side you are going to line up with. You cannot play on both sides.

It is not as important that you be elected next term, as it is that an American rules the United States and not Stalin. We were glad to hear you say in your talk that it was time to call a spade a spade—may we warn you also Mr. President that it is time to call a traitor a traitor.

Just in the event you do not know it, your State Department is packed with Reds and a Communist School is being conducted in it with the taxpayers money. This Department is going to fall apart or blow up. It is a joke in South America, but the Reds love it in parts of Europe.

Mr. President, as we listened to your efforts to discredit Congress in connection with O.P.A. we were thinking of the continual efforts of the Communist front papers and commentators during the last twelve years to smear Congress. We were thinking of Congressmen and Senators, true Americans smeared out of Congress by Sidney Hillman's Red crowd. Which naturally brings us around to wondering if the same person is still advising you on your speeches and important moves.

We understand that David Nilas, now Niles, is still on the job in the White House all these years. May we suggest you look Mr. Nilas up in Mass. and learn if he has been writing for Communist papers before coming down to the White House. Pardon us for asking Mr. President, but who do you think Mr. Nilas reports White House activities to? If you are interested in saving other agencies we suggest you have the F.B.I. look up some of the key men in departments—men who were recommended by Mr. Frankfurter. Also, investigate employees hired in these departments by these Frankfurter Harvard students.

Then you will be calling a spade a spade. But you will have to face it, sooner or later.

And another thing, many people would like to know how many are on the government payroll, who are not even citizens, while many of our Veterans look for jobs.

U. S. A. AND CANADA TRUMAN AND MACKENZIE KING

In doing some things, the United States no doubt excels Canada, but, when it comes to looking after the safety of the government, Canada is up on their toes and we are asleep or afraid and trembling.

Last winter when Canada uncovered the Russian spies in their efforts to steal the Atomic Bomb secrets, MacKenzie King also gave President Truman a list of Russian Firsters who were in our government working to undermine us on the Bomb secret. Canada jailed the Russian spies and sentenced one of the members of Parliament, Mr. Rose, six years in prison for giving secrets to Russia.

What did we do here in Washington? Did we arrest anyone? Did we sentence anyone? Did we even discharge one? NO, these agents of Stalin are right on the job. Keeping the Kremlin informed. Suppose President Truman did not dare throw them out. The difference in Canada and the U.S. is that MacKenzie King only had a few and could still throw them out but here we have so many Reds in Washington, suppose Truman feels lucky they don't throw him out.

It would not do to even make their names public, it may offend Russia, to say nothing of how angry Sidney Hillman and his C.I.O. P.A.C. crowd would be.

We were far ahead of Canada in drafting our boys to go to fight for Russia, but when Russian spies operate in America we are far behind Canada in looking after our safety.

REVOLUTION

From an Article by Geo. E. Sokolosky.
"I attended meetings of the constituent assembly after Kerensky had disappeared. The bolsheviks were a tiny minority. Did they mind? Not at all. Lenin waved his hand to his secretary in the balcony and smiled—it was to show how little his mind was upon the tragic struggle for Russian freedom.

Then he came no more. No bolshevik appeared. The representatives of the Russian people—like our Congress—they sat and waited. One moment we heard a rumor that Lenin's dinner was prolonged. At another moment, we heard he was in the building—the Duma, I think it was.

Men stood in groups and spoke to one another. Not a person smiled. Then there were prolonged silences.

Finally, the president of the constituent assembly arose to speak his mind on behalf of the representatives of the people. The assembly hall filled with troops. One approached the dais.

"Comrade, you have spoken enough," the soldier said, "Go home!"

The representatives of the people were filled with consternation. Strong men wept. I remember my own emotions—my anguish in the presence of futility. Chernoff tried to be heroic. The soldier stopped him. Workers were already marching in the streets.

The representatives of the people were dispersed. A tiny minority had conquered Russia by organized minority pressure. They had seized the means of production and distribution. First, they destroyed human rights. It was the end of Russia's chance for freedom.

What were intelligent, educated people doing? At that moment each man was for himself. Some were seeking to get in under the tape. They would assist the bolsheviks; maybe the bolsheviks would let them live. Some tried one compromise, others another.

Some were speculating in their country's misfortunes. They were gambling on money exchange; gambling with bonds and stocks; holding on to raw materials for higher prices. Everywhere prices were rising and the value of the ruble was constantly declining.

Not a constructive word came from these people, or idea. Only such news and views as the union wanted could be printed. — — — But the great mass of Russia's intelligentsia its economic and middle class, were incapable of defense.

In the end, all the speculators in their country's misfortune had nothing. Their property, their human rights, even their lives, were taken from them. I met many of their wives and daughters later in Harbin, Peking and Shanghai, where they were forced to earn their living by prostitution.

Those days of Russia compare to this country now—the seizure of property, the compromises that are being made.

Revolutions are successful when an organized minority discovers that the majority is split, is confused, is without vigilance. Then it is revolutionary tactics to confound and confuse the majority by side issues, by speeches on humane subjects, by beating the drum of progress and liberalism. They play upon distress; they create emergencies."

FRONTS

If this paper was twice as large and we used every inch to list them, we could not cover them all, but give you a few each week.

No doubt many true Americans belong to the more than three hundred Red Fronts. They were forced to join or joined not knowing they were being used to give strength and numbers to an organization whose key men—men who direct the important activities—are working under instructions from the POLITBURO of the Kremlin. We say to the men who are not for Communism and who belong to these Fronts, if you are really sincere and want to know the truth, look up the men who are the brains of the National Organization. You will learn they belong to many Red Fronts and support Communistic movements. If you do not believe us, send the names of just three into the Un-American Activities Committee, in Washington, D. C., and ask them for a report. You will get their history and will be surprised.

These Fronts are organized under unsuspecting names to trap and use you. They do everything possible to prevent you from knowing you are being used. Are you helping one of these?

Will You Pay 3c for This Paper? - - A New Plan Starting July 14

How should we finance this educational program? If you have any ideas we welcome them. With an ordinary paper this problem would be easier — advertising is the main support of papers. Communists have succeeded in scaring many, therefore we do not expect advertising. However, later some courageous factory owners may decide to give us a boost by placing advertising which would help us in giving you a better paper and more of them. In the meantime we must make every effort to be in a position to furnish papers to those giving them away in new sections. How best to do this we admit we do not know. We ourselves have not hesitated to put up, what to us is a large sum, always believing the American people will back us up in this movement, once they realize the danger. To those who so kindly have contributed — subscribed and written us encouraging letters — we are more grateful than we can express here. Also, to those cheerful, willing workers who have been so helpful, we assure you of our appreciation.

No doubt many people intend to respond but neglect it. Human nature being what it is we do not yet receive sufficient money to pay the printing bills alone, hence, we have been financing at least 60% of the expenses each week for ten weeks. We would continue without reducing our activity until the paper is better established but we are not financially able to do this and meet demands from people who volunteer to give away THINKS.

We have decided to adopt the following plan until someone suggests a better one.

In the locations where we have been passing these out free for weeks, we will ask you to pay 3c for each copy of Think. In the new locations and towns we are opening up they will be given away for four weeks to acquaint people with THINK and to give everyone an opportunity to subscribe, then we will begin charging three cents per copy and move on to other sections to give them out free for four weeks. In this way people who buy papers or subscribe will be helping to cover our weekly loss so we may furnish papers to willing workers to distribute where they will do the most good.

WE WANT TO MAKE PLAIN THAT EVERY DOLLAR WE RECEIVE ACTUALLY GOES TO SPREAD THIS PROGRAM OF EDUCATION. If you send us $25.00 or $100.00 it will be spent wisely. We invite investigation.

Here we give you an idea of the kind of distribution this paper is receiving. Many people are passing them out free, some 700 copies a week. Union men - Veterans - Teachers - Policemen - Breadmen - Milkmen - Doctors - Business men - Ministers - three lawyers - and a Congressman. We will mail papers free each week to any subscriber who will give them away.

This little paper has done much good during the short time it has been issued — more good than we are free to tell you until later. "THINK-WEEKLY" belongs to all true Americans to use to help save our American institutions.

WILL YOU HELP IT? — First by Sending us your subscription or buying one from our bulk distributors — next by speaking to your friends about "THINK".

KARL MARX SAID

"If you want to know in one word what is Communism, it is the destruction of private ownership."

Communist International, 1936 edition. "The Communist International advances the following fundamental tasks: the confiscating of factories, plants, mines, electric power stations, railway, waterway, automobile and air transport services; telegraphs, telephones and wireless; private, church, monastery and other lands; also large landed estates, buildings, machinery, cattle, flour mills, dairy farms, fruit and vegetable drying plants, big housing property; also gold reserves, all securities, deposits, banks, and the wholesale and retail trade."

THE COMMUNIST CLIQUE IN CONGRESS

Louis F. Budenz, former editor of the Communist Daily Worker who renounced Communism in 1945, told members of the House Committee on un-American Activities at a secret session on April 3rd, 1946, that "several" members of Congress — Senators and Representatives — were members of the Communist Party. It is well known that still others are outspoken Red fellow travelers. Budenz also said that every American Communist is "a potential spy against the United States."

RUSSIA IS THE MODEL

As Communism, the world anti-Christ political organization, goes about building a Godless world—Russia is their model—there where they have ruled with a free hand since 1917—they have the kind of government and conditions they are enforcing steadily on Poland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Hungary, Rumania, Yugoslavia, Germany, China, Korea, and are preparing and easing into France, Italy, England, India and soft, rich Uncle Sam.

We are their richest prize. They are trying hard not to fumble the ball here—they must not let us catch on until they have us tight and hopeless. Then these powerful and quiet men who are backing Communism will come out from behind the deception—they will be your Commissars.

They can face you then, for they will truly be your master. Now from their positions of dignity and power in our high courts and big business houses they prefer to remain so as to receive your votes and your commercial trade until the D day of Communism in the United States.

All the people in Russia under 30 years of age have been raised without God. A population of 190 million in Russia. Think this over.

Fifteen million Russians are now in concentration camps in Russia, and this does not include at least eleven million Europeans they have taken as slaves the last year from all over Europe. That is why they have the "iron curtain" and this is the model for the government you are to have in the United States when Communist D day comes. One week after Communists take over there will be rape and slaughter from Texas to Massachusetts. It has happened in every country Russia has taken and is happening today. If our State Department would allow the news to come in, everyone in the U.S. would learn this.

But still Communism sweeps on.

The opponents of Communism have relied too much on the sense of decency of the Reds—on prayer, on God's mercy—and the Reds have demonstrated in sixteen countries that they have no decency. God helps those who help themselves.

If we are too busy—lazy, stingy and afraid—to put up a solid front to save our homes, our liberty, our religion, and our children, we have little right to expect help from God.

Millions of Christians have been raped and murdered by the Red soldiers who were raised to detest God. Prayer is good, but it is not enough. It takes militant, fearless Americans with their sleeves rolled up.

Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are non-partisan and non-sectarian, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information.

The Fight To Communize Spain

Qualifications For Supreme Court Justices

By Felix Morley, Editor of Human Events

When the writer was growing up he always understood that a man who was to be placed on the Supreme Court had to be tops in every way and above reproach, for there the nine men sat as an inspiration to American manhood. Honorable, capable and stable, to render just decisions and deserve the highest respect of America.

Most of these have been strong men like Edward Douglas White and Charles Evans Hughes. Of course some of us do know that sworn testimony has connected Justice Brandies with the COMMUNIST COMMONWEALTH COLLEGE at Mena, Arkansas twenty years ago.

During the last ten years some Supreme Court Justices have been appointed that are really placing the Supreme Court on the front page. The knock down and drag out between Associate Justice Jackson, now in Germany conducting the trials at Nurnberg, and Justice Black is interesting. The knock down and drag out between Black and Jackson has been better than the Louis-Conn bout, with no $100.00 seats. Jackson has not done so well for himself at Nurnberg—creating laws as he goes. Goering and others caused Jackson to look ridiculous. Many big lawyers believe that Jackson's brilliancy has been dulled much by his conduct there. He was a good manager of the SPEAKERS BUREAU for the Roosevelt campaign. It may not have been WHAT HE KNEW but WHO HE KNEW, however, he landed on the Supreme Court just in time to do some good in legalizing the GIFT of fifty battle ships to England while we were a NEUTRAL Nation.

Justice Black was a judge in the Police Court in Birmingham, Alabama when he heard the call to duty in Washington. He hid his bed sheet, cleared it with Sidney and came right up to the Capitol in 1937. Soon after, while he was in Europe, some unkind person let the cat out of the bag. WAS BLACK A KNIGHT OF THE BED SHEET? That really had the New Deal boys scratching their heads. They were visualizing eight of the Judges in Court wearing black robes and Justice Black covered with a white bed sheet. Some wise politicians did not think that arrangement would go over. Reporters met the boat when Justice Black landed from Europe. Some looked thru his baggage for a bed sheet and some were firing questions. Black sparred for time and at the hearing there were more questions. But, Black had his friends too, and the anxious folks did not ask the right questions. They asked if Black was a member of the KKK; but if he was, he knew that he had taken an oath always to deny that he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan. The question that should have been asked is: Are you a citizen of the INVISIBLE EMPIRE? They did not ask him if he knew Mr. KO POK, or if he was a member of the K DUO INNER CIRCLE. The Circle he was entitled to as a big shot. You guessed it—we have been around too!

But, Mr. Black got by—and now, Justice Jackson says Justice Black is not fit to sit on the high court, like an Umpire who threw the game. We don't know, but Justice Jackson should know. The Reds and Pinks like both Black and Jackson.

And while this is going on it is reported some of the Justices will resign if Jackson comes back. The Reds like Justice Murphy too, but it looks like he is sitting on a powder keg. Murphy had some special training for the Supreme Court similar to Justice Black when he sat as a Judge in the City Court of Detroit, Mich.. We understand he was vaccinated for a Catholic. However, how well it took we don't know. On the way up from City Judge he was in some Red company and some fast company. A Red crowd has been in power the last ten years, hence, Murphy could afford to be broad minded in order to go up the ladder.

We must not neglect Felix Frankfurter, for he has contributed in no small way to the fame of the Court, and has been a big help these last twelve years in placing his Harvard students as Key men in Government agencies and departments. After all, he should know the minds of these students; he helped to shape those minds. Dear David

COMMUNST OATH DECLARES:

"I pledge myself to remain at all times a vigilant and firm defender of the Leninist line of the Party, the only line that insures the triumph of Soviet power in the United States".

"The Spanish ulcer killed me", said Napoleon in one of his moments of reminiscence at St. Helena. Now another, not dissimilar, Spanish ulcer threatens Stalin's heretofore increasingly successful efforts to dominate and communize Europe.

By the "Spanish ulcer" Napoleon meant simply the proud and deeply religious conservatism of that ancient land. In 1808, despite the blunders and corruption of their rulers, these Spanish people rose to expel the French in what Herbert Fisher, the great English historian, has called "the first example of a long series of popular and national movements which ultimately shattered the Napoleonic Empire".

Today, the same dignity, the same poise, the same ingrained conservatism, have made of Spain a greater Rock of Gibraltar against which all the Communist machinations have broken in vain. The scheming of Moscow to overthrow Franco's unsavory rule by a planted revolution has been as Machiavellian, and almost as successful, as the steps whereby Napoleon contrived the downfall of the equally shameful Spanish monarchy in 1897. Then, as now, it was intelligent English diplomacy which operated to foil the plot. The chief difference in the historical parallel is that the Government of the United States, which preserved neutrality toward Napoleon's attack on Spain, has done much to assist Stalin's effort to absorb that nation.

At the eleventh hour, however, we have switched from our Russian to our British ally, with the result that the red tide in Russia may now, if we continue firm, begin to recede. But it was a near thing, and the efficacy, if not the very existence, of the United Nations Organization may prove to be the price of Stalin's loss of face.

II

Just ten years ago, on July 17, 1936, General Franco raised the standard of revolt against the Leftist Republican regime then in power at Madrid. Since then, so much water has gone down the Potomac that many Americans have forgotten the "plague on both your houses" attitude with which this ugly European complication was at first received in the United States. Balance is restored by recalling the objective judgement of the 1937 annual of the Council on Foreign Relations, entitled "The United States in World Affairs". Said this authoritative study:

"The conflict in Spain purported to be a civil war, and logically, therefore, the only correct course of conduct was for the rest of the world not to intervene. Unfortunately, however, neither Soviet NILAS (now Niles), still Presidential advisor, owes his long success in the White House to Felix. They tell us if all Frankfurter's appointees had gone in the Army (where they did not go) they would have had a division of their own. It would have been the FFFP Division (Felix Frankfurter Pen Pushers Division). Frankfurter has been a very efficient lawyer. We remember some GOOD men he has helped. Back in May 1920, when Sacco and Vanzetti, the Anarchists, were up for murder at Braintree, Mass., the Reds from all over the world contributed to their defense. Felix Frankfurter was their right hand man. Seven times they were sentenced and seven times the Anarchists and Reds all over the world made demonstrations—but they were finally hanged.

Wm. Z. Foster was an Anarchist then, and on the job. Frankfurter had better luck later with fellows like Harry Bridges—Several times the courts ordered Harry deported as a Communist alien, and for five years efforts were made to send him back to Australia against Australia's wishes. But Felix was loyal to Harry and Harry is still with us, ready to call a Seamen's strike to prevent food from reaching Europe to check hunger, Stalin's most valuable asset. Sidney Hillman considered Frankfurter his best lawyer, even better than La Guardia. Hillman should be a good judge of a criminal lawyer. Experience is the best teacher.

We don't say Frankfurter is a RED CARD COMMUNIST—in fact we don't believe F.D.R. would have appointed him if that was a fact. When the Senate held the investigation at the time of his appointment Congress was not successful in proving that he was, even though many accused him of being one. He was cleared, even as well as Justice Black was cleared of the bed sheet connection.

THE OLD HIGH COURT AIN'T WHAT SHE USED TO BE MANY LONG YEARS AGO!

During the years Felix Frankfurter taught at Harvard, he surrounded himself with some GOOD friends. Of his many friends, DAVID NILAS and HAROLD LASKI, who taught there, were really his pals.

Some unkind persons called attention to the coincidence that while Harold Laski, chairman of the British Labor Party, was pushing England ¾ of the way into Stalin's lap, Felix Frankfurter was coordinating as the Master Mind of the Administration in Washington, during the past ten years.

Apparently Frankfurter and Laski are a good team like F.D.R. and Winnie. We are wondering what Justice Frankfurter thought of the statement his old team mate, Harold Laski, made in a speech last month. We quote, "TO THOSE WHO SAY WE HAVE TO CHOOSE, AS I DO NOT BELIEVE WE HAVE TO CHOOSE, BETWEEN THE SOVIET UNION AND THE UNITED STATES, WITH ITS PASSION FOR FREE ENTERPRISE WHICH IS NOT FREE AND IS NOT ENTERPRISE, WE, THE LABOR PARTY, STAND FOUR SQUARE BEHIND THE SOVIET UNION!" So it looks like the High Court has not increased in dignity the last ten years.

One judges a tree by its fruit and a Court by its decisions. The decision of the Court on June 3rd, is food for thought. It declared UNCONSTITUTIONAL the action of the Congressional Legislative body in cutting off salaries of three Federal Employees, because of their RED SUBMERS-

From this it appears that once, a RUSSIAN FIRSTER gets on the Federal payroll it will take an Atomic Bomb to get him off.

Some time back we heard much about packing the Supreme Court and it appears now that it was packed. All of these agencies and bureaus are due to go thru the washing machine—O.P.A., Supreme Court, and the State Department alike. We hope that no HAMMERS AND SICKLES get caught in the washing machine.

SHADWELL SAID: Communism is the most poisonous doctrine ever poured into the ears of men. (T.N.T., p.40).

BY UPTON CLOSE

During the past week there has been a flood of speeches and articles exposing and condemning Communism. The Commander of the American Legion and the Massachusetts Veterans of Foreign Wars have taken the lead. Some of our most flagrant New Dealers are trying to wash themselves white by warning against the Reds. Attorney General Clark made a resounding speech against anti-Americanism. Then the Attorney General himself discounted it in a following talk on the air by toadying to the Leftists with the statement which was not a all necessary for him to make, that: "Not all Leftists are Communists." That "cover" or "softener" is so helpful to Communists that they themselves put it out.

Ralph Ingersoll, publisher of PM, is imploring help to keep that scurrilous sheet alive, implying that Marshall Field is leaving it high and dry. Field's Chicago Sun is turning American—it actually attacked Justice Frankfurter editorially. Pinko and pro-Russian commentators have, according to the latest Hooper rating, lost so much of their listening audiences that they are scarcely worth their keep to their sponsors. An ordinary commentator rating is between 4 and 8; a good rating is from 8 to 12. These figures indicate the number of radio sets out of one hundred tuned in to a given program at the moment when the Hooper girls conduct their telephone polls in the selected number of cities where Dr. Hooper operates.

Here are some latest ratings: Raymond Swing, 1.8; William Shirer, 2.5; Cecil Brown, 2.8; Bob Trout, 2.6; Gabriel Heater, 3.4. Against this the rating for the Tuesday night Upton Close program—opposite Bob Hope—is 3.9. It came up 1.6 while all the others dropped. It must be taken into reckoning that we have only a 250-watt suburban station in the entire New York metropolitan area, due to the refusal of Mutual Broadcasting System's proper outlet, WOR, to carry the program. WOR thinks it is un-American—WOR's definition of un-American apparently being "un-Soviet". We understand this attitude comes from officials of Macy's in New York, which owns WOR. Of course, Dr. Hooper reckons, in figuring our rating, the enormous metropolitan population of New York which can equal the population of the 64 other areas that get this program. Therefore, it would be safe to say that, if we had a 50,000 watt New York outlet, our rating would be between 7 and 8. The full network Upton Close program which closed on Mutual one year ago had a rating between 6 and 8—they vary from week to week. The rating of the Sheaffer Pen-Upton Close program on NBC was between 10 and 12 when that broadcasting company forced the sponsor to give it up.

RADIO IS THE CLOCK

This will give you an idea of our present radio program's success. But, more than that, it clocks the failing grip of Leftism among the Nation's radio listeners. Radio listening is the best barometer of trends in this or any other nation today. It is far more reliable than the Gallup Poll. He who has the radio ear of the masses is master of their opinions in our modern life.

Russia, nor Italy, nor the German Reich regarded the internal war in Spain as a local matter. Soviet Russia saw a promising new extension of Communism threatened by General Franco's insurrection, Hitler correspondingly found in him an ally, and Mussolini discovered in the situation a chance to increase the prestige of Italy and her dominion over the Middle Sea.

Existing neutrality legislation, at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War, applied only to wars "between or among" foreign States. Nevertheless, the Department of State, on August 7, 1936, made public its emergency instructions to all our consular and diplomatic representatives in Spain, which read in part:

"... in conformity with its well-established policy of non-interference with internal affairs in other countries... this government will, of course, scrupulously refrain from any interference whatsoever in the unfortunate Spanish situation."

That this conformed with American public opinion was made abundantly clear as soon as the newly-elected Congress met, on January 5, 1937. The very next day it adopted a joint resolution, passed unanimously by the Senate and signed with alacrity by President Roosevelt, forbidding the export of arms, ammunition and implements of war "for the use of either of the opposing forces in Spain".

Aggravated by continuous Nazi, Fascist and Communist intervention, the Spanish Civil War spread devastation until Franco's military victory, early in 1939. His Government was recognized as the 'de jure' government of Spain by France and Great Britain on February 27, 1939, and by the Roosevelt Administration a few weeks later. Since then, both the United States and Great Britain have maintained this recognition.

III

The Kremlin has a longer memory than the American public. The latter was, and for the most part probably still is, allergic to the triumph of either Leftist or Rightist totalitarianism in Spain. But Moscow, smarting under the liquidation of Spanish Communism, has seemingly made the establishment of a Red Iberia (first Spain, then Portugal) a major objective of its post-war policy.

In this wholly understandable effort — a Spanish Soviet Republic would mean the permanent communization of Western Europe — Stalin has utilized many innocent Americans as his dupes. While some have seen the picture dispassionately, few have dared publicly to discount the picture of "Fascist Franco" which is so easy to portray. An honorable exception is Alexander Weddell, experienced career diplomat who served as Ambassador to Spain from 1939 to 1942. In a speech in Richmond, on June 25, Mr. Weddell called Franco's Government "bad", but said that if the United Nations overthrows him:

"... it will plunge innocent people into another ferocious civil war and make the country a breeding ground for Communist ideology."

Lacking access to diplomatic archives, it cannot be charged with assurance that Stalin joined the United Nations Organization partly to use it as a lever to establish a Communist Spain. But surface indication points toward that conclusion. Although there is no scintilla of evidence to show that the Franco Government is at the moment a threat to world peace, the Kremlin has cleverly engineered a policy of having this vulnerable regime perpetually attacked, and if possible diplomatically ostracized and overthrown, through the agency of UN. In this subtle procedure the puppet government of Poland has been utilized as Russia's stooge, drawing from Winston Churchill the caustic observation:

"... there is as much freedom in Spain under the Franco regime and a good deal more security and happiness for ordinary folk, than there is in Poland at this time."

While the British, with their better understanding of European problems, were from the outset alert to the overtones of Stalin's anti-Franco drive, our official contribution during several critical months was to play the Communist game. Thus the Department of State, on March 4 of this year, released to the press a most tendentious selection of documents carefully culled to prove Franco's wartime subservience to the Axis. Russia promptly cited these in support of the resolution demanding collective intervention in Spain, which the Polish delegate introduced in the Security Council on April 17.

It may be noted that the Department of State, in "screening" the Spanish documents so as to inflame American public opinion against Franco, let one of contrary purport slip through the mesh. This was a minutes conversation, dated December 15, 1943, in which the German Ambassador to Spain criticized Franco for being pro-Ally and told him that this was "a very dangerous policy for Spain". Few, if any, American newspapers, however, picked out that part of this single document.

IV

It was less than two months ago, after bombing diplomacy had stumbled to the very edge of the abyss, that wise counsels in the Department of State forced a change from the previously pronounced subservience to Stalin's policy. And it is no mere coincidence that Russian venom against the United States, now made clear in one form or another almost daily, began to be officially sponsored with this change in our attitude. A Communist Spain is very important to Russia's long-range plans, and for the United States to have blocked this on the verge of achievement is, in the eyes of Moscow, an unforgivable offense.

Nevertheless, the Russian policy has been blocked, and largely by American action in the Security Council of UN. First of all, we joined in a refusal to pass the Polish Resolution, calling for immediate intervention in Spain. Instead, we backed the appointment of a subcommittee which was unable to define Franco as a threat to world peace; which found no evidence of atomic research in Spain; and which recommended passing the buck on the whole issue to the next meeting of the United Nations General Assembly, scheduled for September 3.

It was at this point that Russian irritation became suspiciously intense, culminating in the disgraceful Security Council session of June 26, ironically enough the first anniversary of the adoption of the San Francisco Charter. At this session, Delegate Gromyko invoked the veto power no less than three times, drawing from Australian Delegate Evatt the remark that clearly: "The veto will be exercised... until the only proposal left is the proposal that Mr. Gromyko supports."

That, however, is not quite the case. The Russians seemingly have cut off their nose to spite their face. Gromyko's wanton use of the veto has certainly proved that the United Nations is of dubious efficiency as compared with the discarded League of Nations. But it has also prevented, by Russia's own action, any formal international condemnation of Franco which might have positive effect in unseating him. The whole episode, unfortunately, would seem to have strengthened this dictator's position.

It is not the Communist custom to regard no bread as better than half a loaf. So

Gentlemen:-

I thank you for sending me a few copies of your paper and I want to congratulate you in your hard task in front of you.

Any way, it makes me feel good to know that there are some Americans who have the courage to go out and deliver the facts and the truth.

Do not get discouraged, it will take hard work and patience and somebody must do that job, otherwise we certainly would go down fast.

Enclosed is $10.00 to help in your work.
Sincerely yours,

BY WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, PRESIDENT OF COMMUNIST PARTY OF AMERICA

"The Communist is unscrupulous in his choice of weapons. He allows no consideration of legality, religion, patriotism, honor, duty, etc., to stand in the way of his adoption of effective tactics".

A LITERARY GEM

Langston Hughes of the Political Action Committee and a writer for "Daily Worker", gives us a Communist literary gem:

"GOODBY CHRIST:

"Listen, Christ. You did all right in your day, I reckon
But that day is gone now.
They ghosted you up a swell story, too,
Call it Bible, but it is dead now.
The popes and the preachers have made too much money from it;
You ain't no good no more; they've pawned you
Till you done worn out.
Goodby, Christ Jesus, Lord God Jehovah,
Beat it away from here now,
Make way for a new guy with no religion at all,
A real guy named Marx, communist; Lenin, peasant; Stalin, worker; ME.
Go ahead on now and step on the gas, Christ.
The world is mine from now on; move, don't be so slow about movin',
And nobody's goin' to sell me to a king or a general or a millionaire."

This is an example of the thousands of Communist books and papers that are circulating around America. And some may wonder why we refer to these characters as "Red Rats".

the question of why this negative attitude was finally chosen in respect to Franco is mysterious—unless Russian plans call for an upheaval in Spain prior to the September date to which the majority of the Council sought to defer the issue as a compromise measure.

Your Answer is 5c For This Little Paper - Plan Starts This Week

We asked for your ideas on financing this educational campaign and we received many replies in favor of a price of five cents. The readers and distributors do not want to be bothered with pennies. They would rather pay 5c and let the extra few cents help pay for the cost of giving away thousands of free samples in new territories.

Last week we explained to you that we had put up a large amount of money during the past ten weeks in our effort to assist THINK-WEEKLY to become self-supporting. We also explained that we were not able to take care of the loss and continue to give away free copies much longer.

The subscriptions and contributions received are a great encouragement but so far we have not received a sufficient amount of money to cover the cost of printing and postage alone.

So here is our plan which we have adopted at your suggestion: THE PRICE OF THINK-WEEKLY WILL BE 5c. We will hand the paper to anyone without payment but the price is 5c to those who wish to pay our distributors. The profit will be used to spread our cause and to circulate thousands of sample copies into new territories.

Our distributors will give THINK-WEEKLY away in new areas to acquaint the public with the paper and to allow them time to mail in their subscriptions. At the end of four weeks we will ask the people to purchase the paper for 5c.

THINK-WEEKLY belongs to all true patriots who wish to use it in helping deliver our government back into the hands of the real Americans.

To any subscriber who wishes to give away more copies of THINK-WEEKLY each week we will be glad to forward them on request. America means as much to true Americans as it does to us and therefore spreading the truth is everyone's job.

Communism has thousands of rich men in America who are backing Red Fronts with real money. These men are millionaires whose names we have on record. We make it plain that every dollar we receive in any way is used entirely in this campaign of education.

HERE IS HOW YOU CAN HELP YOUR CAMPAIGN FOR SAVING AMERICA

Buy a copy from our distributor for 5c.

Send us a year's subscription.

Mail us a check for what you can afford.

Speak to your friends about THINK-WEEKLY.

So we can spread this campaign faster by giving out more free papers.

Turn the government back to the citizens who are for AMERICA FIRST and not RUSSIA FIRST.

COMMUNIST BLASPHEMY

Russia through her world wide political organization teaches hatred for God.

Children in Russia and countries controlled by Russia are taught such hymns as this. They will teach these to your children here in the United States unless you stop them. No wonder Andrei Gromyko at the U.N. meetings before last Good Friday stated that he did not know the meaning of Good Friday. He, the Ambassador of his country, so ignorant of the things concerning God.

"The whole world at last is beginning to see
The blight of the world is Jesus.
Keep out the blight or blighted you'll be;
Blighted for life by credulity.
Once I believed but now I can see

LENIN AND MARX

Nicoli Lenin was always an ardent follower of the doctrines and philosophy of Carl Marx, however, on few occasions Lenin disagreed. It is true that Marx once said that there were certain countries such as the United States and England in which the workers may hope to secure their ends by peaceful means.

In Lenin's book "The State and the Revolution" he disagreed with Marx in the following statement:

"Today, in 1917, in the epoch of the first great imperialist war, this distinction of Marx's becomes unreal, and England and America, the greatest and last representatives of Anglo-Saxon 'liberty,' in the sense of the absence of militarism and bureaucracy, have today completely rolled down into the dirty, bloody morass of military-bureaucratic institutions common to all Europe, subordinating all else to themselves. Today, both in England and America, the preliminary condition of any real people's revolution is the breakup, the shattering of the available ready machinery of the State."

DO YOU WANT TO HELP EDUCATE?

Some of our readers no doubt would enjoy giving out one hundred or one thousand of these little weapons against Communism.

You would like to see them given out each week in factories or any place where men meet, so that good men would have some argument against the Red propaganda being used by clever Communists planted in the organizations. You don't have the time to give these away or you don't know where to go or that is out of your line.

Here is where we can make it possible for you to help in this crusade against pagan Communism. Veterans and Union men are ready to give these away where they will do good. Thousands of working men are fighting Red ideas in their Unions and Veteran Organizations. If you send us a check for $5, 10, $25 or $100.00 it will be used to pay for these papers. The work putting them out is contributed.

IT IS TIME TO DRIVE THESE RED RATS OUT OF AMERICA.

A COMMUNIST-BRED INFLATION ADDS TO THE DANGER BY DESTROYING THE VALUE OF OUR MONEY

Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception, as we will show you. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are nonpartisan, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information from over the world.

NO WAR WITH RUSSIA

There is no need for war with Russia if we will trade our wishbone for a backbone. First, we need to clean these Red Russian Firsters out of our government so we may present a solid American front and talk turkey to Mr. Stalin.

As long as Stalin knows more about what is going on in our State Department than the American Citizen, he is not worrying about the moves he makes over the World. He knows our real policy better than most of our Senators and Congressmen. He knows when we are barking and why we won't bite. He knows how far he can go. That is why these Communists were placed in our State Department.

Last year six of them were arrested by the F.B.I. for giving Stalin information—four were given a slap on the wrist and all are still in some departments. One was sent on a mysterious trip to the Far East by the War Department, John Service was given a promotion, sent to Japan and China. Patrick Hurley, Ambassador to China, said in resigning that Service followed him to meetings and dinners, telling important people to pay no attention to Hurley, as the U.S. was backing Communism in China. Should six men in Russia's State Department be caught giving information to the United States they would be shot.

How many Russian Firsters are in our State Department today? Canada was still strong enough to throw them out. Are the Communists too strong in our government for us to throw them out?

MINISTER MISLED INTO SPEAKING AT WIN-THE-PEACE MEETING

The Win the Peace Movement of Union County recently managed to deceive Rev. Charles A. Ross, of the First Presbyterian Church of Elizabeth, into speaking before their meeting by telling him that he was doing a patriotic and American act by his presence.

Rev. Ross did not learn until a later date that the Win the Peace Movement was a Communist Front and he was quick to make it publicly known by submitting the following letter to the press:

Editor:

My attention has been called to the fact that the "Win the Peace Movement" which has held several meetings in Elizabeth is listed with a number of subversive organizations now active in this country which have revealed distinctly Communist tendencies and sympathies. This information has recently come to my notice from unimpeachable sources. Had I known it several weeks ago I would not have been present as a speaker at their first meeting which was represented to me as being set up solely in the interests of peace.

Upon the subject of world peace and the best methods of attaining and preserving it, I am as zealous and as wholeheartedly committed as any other unadulterated American; but I cannot allow my name to be used in connection with a movement which has as its supporters many individuals whose records tie them in with the Communist movement. I am not a sponsor of the "Win the Peace Movement," having refused the use of my name for that purpose; nor am I scheduled to speak at any future meeting of this group.

I believe that my position in the City of Elizabeth justifies publicity to this effect through your esteemed paper.

Very truly yours,

Charles Alexander Ross.

IS SPAIN A MENACE TO PEACE?

The Red Fascist charge, alleged by the Red Fascists of Communistic Russia and their Red Fascist henchmen elsewhere, that the present Government of Spain is a threat to world peace, is ridiculous as well as false.

Recently, even the United Nations Security Council went on record to declare that the Franco Government of Spain is not a threat to world peace. When, despite this conclusion, the Security Council went on to malign the present Government of Spain, it was indulging in the cowardly act of appeasing Red Fascist Russia and her Polish stooge on the Council, namely, Mr. Oscar Lange, who once thought so much of his American citizenship that he abandoned it.

Incidentally, why was not the Spanish Government invited to appear before the Security Council and to present its side of the case? Elemental justice demands that those who are attacked be given the chance to defend themselves against attack. The procedure pursued by the Security Council was unilateral, totalitarian, un-American and hypocritical.

Let us look at the record. It is Stalin who brutally invaded Poland side by side with Hitler in 1939, not Franco. It is Stalin who took over Lithuania and Latvia and Esthonia, not Franco. It is Stalin who stabbed the brave little Republic of Finland in the back, not Franco. It is Stalin, the former ally of Hitler, who contributed to the downfall of France in June 1940, not Franco.

It is Stalin who bullies Iran, not Franco. It is Stalin who loots Manchuria, not Franco. It is Stalin who used his Red Fascist agents to steal atomic bomb secrets from Canada and the United States, not Franco. It is Stalin who has encircled the nations of Europe with a totalitarian chain of Red Fascist terrorism and tyranny, not Franco.

The only Government in the world that is an actual menace to world peace is the Red Fascist atheistic and totalitarian Government of Communistic Russia. The United States should not lend itself to the anti-Spanish campaign of Red Fascist Russia, who has already liquidated Christianity in every country under its post-war control.

STARVATION IN EUROPE

It is a wonderful humanitarian move for the United States citizens to do all possible to relieve the hunger and suffering in Europe: Much food is being sent and will be sent, costing many millions. But this is not the only way we can relieve hunger and suffering.

We are told by good sources that the Red soldiers loot, steal, and carry away great stores of food from all over Europe. They are living like great droves of gypsies off the countries in which they are so numerous. While this is going on we do know that Stalin has refused Herbert Hoover any cooperation in hunger relief. He will not give a pound of food.

This reminds us of a chapter in the recent book, "I Chose Freedom", where Kravchenko tells of finding large stores of food in Russian towns where most of the population had starved. Many lay starved on the street outside the brick warehouses filled with food. Those in Europe who embrace Communism and slavery will be fed by Stalin's agents.

If the American taxpayers are spending millions at this end to relieve starvation, and at the same time the Reds all over Europe are working to cause starvation, the public should know it.

COMMUNISM IS SUPER-CAPITALISM

Many people have the idea Communism aims mainly to divide up the wealth of the United States, hence, if people have little they may come out better than at present. The truth is they are sure to come out with much less. Communism is Super-Capitalism.

To see what the Reds would do in the United States we should learn what they have done in the countries they rule. In Russia they have taken all wealth as the property of the State. The use of this wealth, such as automobiles, entertainment, sufficient food, proper housing, is allowed to the Commissars who rule with an iron hand to maintain a state of slavery over the remaining 96% of the population who enjoy less privileges than the inmates of Sing Sing penitentiary.

The promise of distribution of wealth is not the driving power behind the Communists. It is anti-Christian Fanaticism.

Do you know any good Christians who are Communists?

BY SOVIET COMMISSAR OF EDUCATION

"We hate Christians. Even the best of them must be regarded as our enemies. They preach love to one's neighbor and pity, which is contrary to our principles.

"Christian love is a hindrance to the development of the revolution. Down with love for one's neighbor; what we want is hatred. We must know how to hate, for only at this price can we conquer the Universe. We have done with the kings of the earth; let us now deal with the kings of the sky. All religions are poison and they intoxicate and deaden the mind, the will, and the conscience.

"A fight to the death must be declared on religion. Our task is to destroy all kinds of religion and all kinds of morality."

OUR STATE DEPARTMENT

This is one of the Departments that is packed with Reds. Last year six were exposed and arrested, then quietly promoted or transferred to other Departments. One John Service is now adviser to Gen. MacArthur, looking out for the interests of the Communist Army as against Chiang Kai-shek. Over two thousand more Reds were placed in the State Department when the O.W.I. was absorbed. It is estimated about 4000 Reds are in this Department. Today a Communist school is conducted in this Department. Frederick Schuman and Owen Lattimore are two of the many teachers who conduct regular classes—while the taxpayer pays both teachers and students to prepare them as better Red termites to destroy the government left us by such men as Washington and Jefferson and defended by millions of Americans on the battlefield.

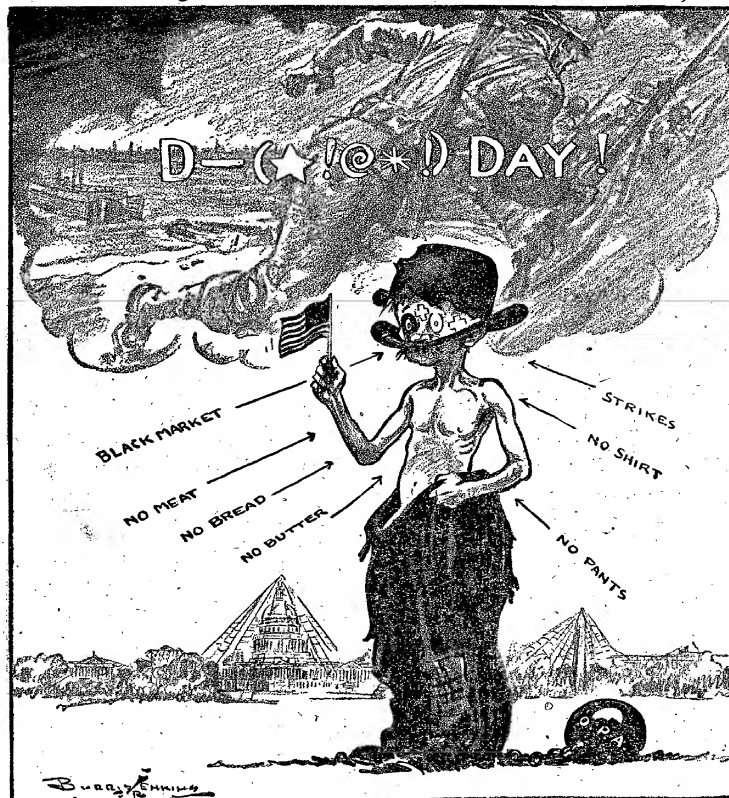

BY JOSEPH STALIN

"I think the moment is not far off when a REVOLUTIONARY CRISIS will develop in America that will be the beginning of the END OF WORLD CAPITALISM as a whole. It is essential that the American Communist Party should be capable of meeting that historical moment fully prepared."

We are grateful to Burris Jenkins and the New York Journal-American for the privilege of using this cartoon. It so well depicts the confused conditions brought about by careful planning and direction from the Kremlin.

After we have lived under this confusion long enough to become disgusted with Congress, the Reds and Fellow Travelers will have a plan to replace this American institution. The Reds are ready with the Russian form of government when we are sufficiently softened up. Their object now is confusion—loss of confidence—despair and bankruptcy.

THE DUTY OF ALL AMERICANS TO FIGHT COMMUNISM

"To my mind, it is the duty of every patriotic American to assist in every way possible in preserving the American Government as contemplated by the Constitution, and when we give aid and comfort under the guise of free speech and personal liberty, to these alien Communists it only means we are attempting to tear down and destroy that Government which has protected and will continue to protect our American institution." (Hon. Carl G. Bachmann, Rep. from West Virginia, January 21, 1932, Cong Rec., Vol. 75, p. 2465)

LENIN SAID

"Marxism is materialism. We must combat religion—this is the A.B.C. of all materialism, and consequently of Marxism. Down with religion! Long live Atheism! The dissemination of Atheist views is our chief task". (Religion, Lenin, P.14)

REPORT BY THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES

"The Communist Party aims to furnish the motion picture industry with technical employees who have been trained in Marxist philosophy.

"The importance of the motion picture industry to the Communist lies not alone in the propaganda field. It should also be stated that one of the major objectives of the Communist Party in the motion picture field is to secure money from those engaged in the film industry.

"This is garnered in the form of salaries and in contributions in order to have funds for the dissemination of propaganda and for the furtherance of the work of the party."

KARL MARX MANIFESTO, P.29

"Communism abolishes eternal truths, it abolishes all religion, and all morality; it therefore acts in contradiction to all past experiences".

From the book "I CHOSE FREEDOM"

By Victor Kravchenko, former Soviet Official now in the United States.

"A long time before, an N.K.V.D. friend had told me that in case of war all "dangerous elements" would be stamped out. In every village, town and city long blacklists were ready: hundreds of thousands would be taken into custody. He had not exaggerated.

The liquidation of "internal enemies" was, in sober fact, the only party of the war effort that worked quickly and efficiently in the first terrible phases of the struggle. It was a purge of the rear in accordance with an elaborate advance plan, as ordered by Stalin himself.

Several years later, in America, I was to hear the amazing nonsense—apparently accepted by intelligent Americans—that "there was no fifth column in Russia" because the blood purges had wisely eradicated all "traitors" in advance. I read this obscene absurdity in a strange, half-literate book by former Ambassador Joseph Davies, in the frivolous writings of others who pass as experts on the subject despite a profound ignorance of the nature of Stalin's policies and regime. I could only marvel at the success of this childish propaganda evidently exported by Moscow."

INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMITTEE OF ARTS, SCIENCES & PROFESSIONS

At the Communist Party convention in New York in August 1944, June Hoffman, reporting for the "Cultural Section" of the party, told her assembled comrades:

"We built the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions and it is a great political weapon. The radio and film propaganda organizations can help our activities as Communists. We can bring in the middle strata too."

Orson Welles and Frank Sinatra, two prominent film and radio figures who have become notorious Communist fellow travelers, are among ICCASP's most active leaders. Herman Shumlin, a New York theatrical producer who has an unenviable record of affiliation with Communist fronts, is chairman of the finance committee. Hannah Dorman, Executive Director, was formerly with the Council of American-Soviet Friendship and press agent Ray Torr is from the staff of the Daily Worker.

WHY IS U.N. SILENT?

We were told the war was started to prevent Germany from taking Danzig, one town in Poland, but we let Russia take Poland, carry off millions of people for slaves, turn thousands of her women to the Red Soldiers, starve the people and slaughter all religious people and intellectuals who refuse Communism.

This is going on today. Why is the U. N. silent while Polish people who still live are in slavery? Is the U. N. run by hypocrites who created it to work out favors for the most powerful nations?

HENRY WALLACE

A real business man and a real Fellow Traveler. Henry believes in putting money into circulation. His report on his activity collecting for food shows he is not stingy with the taxpayers' money. He reported collecting 323 thousand dollars — expense to collect it 300 thousand.

Henry is straining every nerve to move into the White House next election — no doubt he would really put money in circulation. They tell us his Grandfather left the Farm paper business in Iowa to Henry's father, who increased the value, leaving to Henry a large institution. In a few years it was bankrupt.

We have some real efficiency experts in our government at Washington.

AMERICAN RED CROSS AID TO RUSSIA

By the end of this year, the American Red Cross will have contributed $27,000,000 worth of wartime and postwar equipment, drugs and supplies to the Soviet Union. The main program for this year will include:

Finishing the installation of 10,000 visiting nurse centers in rural areas; equipping two 300-bed sanatoria in Minsk and Smolensk, and six 250-bed clinics.

Establishing three penicillin drying plants and one blood-plasma drying plant already shipped from the United States. (To meet present requirements 10,000,000,000 oxford units of penicillin are being received by air in monthly installments.)

Clothing for orphans in White Russia, part of a $240,000 project.

If this paper was twice as large and we used every inch to list them, we could not cover them all, but will give you a few each week.

No doubt many true Americans belong to the more than three hundred Red Fronts. They were forced to join or joined not knowing they were being used to give strength and numbers to an organization whose key men—men who direct the important activities—are working under instructions from the POLITBURO of the Kremlin. We say to the men who are not for Communism and who belong to these Fronts, if you are really sincere and want to know the truth, look up the men who are the brains of the National Organization. You will learn they belong to many Red Fronts and support Communistic movements. If you do not believe us, send the names of just three into the Un-American Activities Committee, in Washington, D. C., and ask them for a report. You will get their history and will be suprised.

These Fronts are organized under unsuspecting names to trap and use you. They do everything possible to prevent you from knowing you are being used. Are you helping one of these?

DON'T WASTE YOUR TIME

It is a waste of energy trying to change the mind of any Communist or one who says he is not a Communist but defends them. We have explored the hidden corners of Communists' minds—we have seen and heard their storehouse of misinformation—and we advise you not to waste time or this little paper by giving one to these people. They are not open to argument—you do harm to your cause and not good. Devote your time to people who have not had their minds poisoned. People yet with an open mind.

There is one class of people that is 99% for Communism. To give them this little paper only aggravates them and gains nothing. We can tell you from years of experience and personal contact that this class is sold on Communism three times stronger than you are on America.

THE BEST WAY TO COMBAT COMMUNISM

"The Committee appointed by the House of Representatives of which I had the honor to be chairman, to investigate Communist propaganda in the United States, was convinced that the most effective way of combatting Communism in the United States was to give the fullest possible publicity to the fundamental principles and aims of the Communists, which are the same throughout the world, as they are not likely to prove acceptable to any considerable number of American citizens unless camouflaged by extraneous issues, such as unemployment insurance, protection of foreign-born or other current topics that have nothing to do with Communism." (Hon. Hamilton Fish, Jr., Dec. 19, 1931, Cong. Record Vol. 75, p. 929.)

PROPAGANDISTS FEAR PUBLICITY

"In the experiences of this committee nothing could be clearer than that Communists hate the light of publicity, which exposes their aims and methods. A recent editorial in the Daily Worker, official newspaper of the Communist Party, demands that the work of this committee to investigate un-American activities must not go on. Communists have good reasons to fear criticism which focuses the attention of the American people upon their sinister purposes and reprehensible methods. Communism will not be able to advance one step in the face of a fearless and complete exposure of its true nature. (Dies Com. Report. House Report No. 2, p. 30)

Gentlemen:-

Very truly yours,

Here we reproduce part of a letter received from the employees union in a large factory in New Jersey:

THINK,
P. O. Box 816,
Newark 1, N. J.
Gentlemen:-

Thank you for your letters of June 3rd. We tried to spread "THINK" as far as we could, first by asking our shop delegates to read a copy and then asking them to circulate it as long as it would hold together from constant handling.

I sincerely hope you succeed in awakening people to the dangers of Communism.

Those of us who work here today are faced by the serious threat of losing our INDEPENDENCE through the inroads of the Communist-dominated C.I.O. We like our INDEPENDENCE. We intend to keep it. We will appreciate any help you can give us, because you seem to understand the situation well. Of course any help we can give you, we certainly will.

Sincerely yours,

Veterans halls, Police Stations, Churches, Colleges.

One hundred and twelve men and women are making it their business to give these away in twenty-nine cities and towns. Americans have had enough of Red regimentation.

Citizens are waking up to the fact we cannot stop Communism until we educate people to the facts. Not everyone is willing to let George do it. Veterans and other workers are sticking their necks out for America. In the months to come thousands in America will take their stand, the Red Smear and intimidation be damned.

If we are afraid to stand up and be counted for America we belong in Stalin's labor camps. This little paper will be much needed until all the Red Rats and Fellow Travelers are removed from office in Washington.

AMERICAN VETERANS COMMITTEE SPREADS

A new chapter of the American Veterans Committee has been established in Vauxhall, N. J., after receiving a cold reception from the vigilant veterans of Union. Since the V. F. W. and American Legion members of Union demanded to know certain facts regarding the A.V.C. as a Communist front the organization did not return to Union and went to more fertile fields to plant their seeds of Communism.

YOU HAVE BEEN STARVED FOR FACTS

When people have been starved for some time they cannot be started off again with full meals, their systems would not survive it. The amount of food must be increased gradually. So it is with our American people who have for at least six years been starved for the truth. Our minds are not ready for the full facts — we could not accept them even though it meant the saving of America.

Hundreds of millions of dollars have been spent and are being spent to make us believe black is white, that two and two are five and we still believe it. Some now are beginning to open their eyes and THINK and figure out who is behind this powerful propaganda and why. Some wide-awake citizens find it interesting and are slowly putting this jig-saw puzzle together and as the picture gradually takes shape it looks as though we were taken over. This paper does not attempt to tell you fully what has happened. You can think for yourself and you will find it a most interesting and shocking subject. It will jar the dust off your brains. It is possible for you to understand it as well as anyone and it is necessary if you wish to help save America.

You may be innocently helping Communism. You will need to learn how to classify our public men in these dozens of newly-created bureaus, agencies and organizations. You judge a man by the company he keeps. But most of these screen their movements so it takes an informed mind to trace them. However, most leave a thread leading to the Kremlin. And then there are those dumb, greedy politicians who will front for any movement and say they are liberal just to get the grandstand seat and applause.

Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red Slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception, as we will show you. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are non-partisan, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information from over the world.

GERMANY

Herbert Hoover or Morgenthau Plan?

Morgenthau, the great humanitarian, author of the Morgenthau Plan of slavery and annihilation of the German race as covered at least by the American Zone of Occupation. There is no question that the taxpayers of the United States are paying for the carrying out of two exact opposite programs in Germany—we are trying to go two opposite directions at the same time.

It is not clear how the Morgenthau Plan got into action in Germany. Nor is it clear by whom it was approved and allowed to operate. England is too wise to use a cruel plan like this on the Germans.

We do know that this plan is entirely contrary to Herbert Hoover's plan of preventing starvation. Shouldn't we drop one or the other, unless we believe that we have enough money to destroy Germany and rebuild it at the same time?

Samuel Lubin is given most of the credit for the brain work in figuring out the plan for transforming the chemists, machinists, skilled workmen, and professional people of Germany into farmers. In this section, which is not a farming section, each German family is to have a small piece of ground to scratch out a living. The catch is, which Mr. Lubin probably knew, that if the area was divided up among the population, a family would not get enough to support a pair of rabbits.

In Stalin's half of Germany is located the agricultural section. Millions of Germans escaping rape and murder by the Reds came into the American Zone, giving us more to feed. Even in normal times the Germans could not support themselves in this zone. These people always depended upon the part now occupied by Russia for their food, as in the United States, the East depends upon the West.

Great Britain has the zone rich in industry; France received the rich Saar and Ruhr; Uncle Sam pulled the short straw as usual, for our part of Germany has little resources.

The Red politicians sent over to enforce the Morgenthau Plan have been directing that the few factories which the Germans had for self-support be dismantled. They ordered that the machinery be given to Pal Joey and hauled to Russia on our lend-lease gift trucks.

Our military men in Germany have been putting up strong objection to the War Department about these politicians throwing their weight around over there and crippling Germany. We have in operation this plan of despair and starvation operating on the whole German race one year after the war is ended, and we are told we are only fighting Hitlerism.

The Germans who still live are to be driven into Communism. In the whole of Germany three million have already starved and four million have been carried off to Russia as slaves, while thousands commit suicide.

With one hand we operate the Morgenthau plan of starvation and with the other we operate the Herbert Hoover plan of relieving hunger. Something like the Kill the Pigs and Plow Under the Corn program, and pay the farmers to not plant cotton and then pay them a subsidy to plant cotton.

As the other nations watch our manipulations, what do they think we are trying to do—and do we know ourselves?

We destroy all means of Germany supporting themselves so they will be dependent on us for years, then we carry on a campaign in our churches and papers to get hundreds of shiploads of food to prevent starvation. Herbert Hoover covered practically the whole world in his trip, investigating hunger, visiting every country surrounding Germany, but what pressure on the White House prevented Hoover from going there?

The Army thinks the Morgenthau plan is insane, that we should build factories for Germans to support themselves — Morgenthau plan says tear them down. What power keeps it in action? Is this in cooperation with Stalin? Is the State Department working with or against the War Department?

We do know that the UNRA did not try to prevent starvation in Germany—either under Herbert Lehman or the Big Hat.

Lehman and Morgenthau are hostile to Herbert Hoover's work and they both are now asking for strict rationing of the whole U. S. again. A bigger O.P.A. with more jobs for Russia Firsters.

There is no reason why we cannot write our Congressman and ask which of these plans is to prevail in Germany.

BY EARL BROWDER

It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses we are able to bring for the first time our Anti-religious ideas to them.

From Earl Browder's book "What is Communism".

ELECTION PLATFORM

From the "Election Platform" of the Communist Party of the United States.

"The revolutionary way out of the crises begins with the fight for unemployment insurance, against wage cuts, for wage increase, for relief for the farmers through demonstrations, strikes, general strikes leading up to seizure of power, to the destruction of Capitalism by a revolutionary workers' government.

MR. BUSINESSMAN:

We do not strive for a journalistic achievement. Our effort is in plain words for busy people. Our object is to cause you to think for yourself in an honest and courageous way. For at least six years much of your thinking has been done for you and now you wake up to find that your government has almost been taken away.

Our returning veterans say the same thing. While they were away and the rest of the people asleep, the Reds, by scaring them with emergencies, have created agencies and bureaus on top of each other, so as to give jobs to thousands of Stalin's students who have been slowly smothering out the government that was given to us by Jefferson and Washington—and since defended by millions of Americans. Defended by men who had the courage to face death to preserve our United States. But our big men of today are afraid to roll up their sleeves and step forward to demand that these Reds be locked up. What are they afraid of? Not bullets. They are afraid of Smear from the Red-controlled radio and Red writers.

Mr. Businessman, you gain nothing! Your business faces Red regimentation and for you a concentration camp — unless you stop these Reds while they can still be stopped. These clever Reds will have you so divided that you will destroy each other while they wait to come in and take over in the confusion.

Your business won't be worth a lead nickel if Stalin takes over as he has done in thirteen European countries and much of China.

You think that all this confusion just happened. You are alarmed because you cannot get merchandise, building material, shirts, machinery, or even allowed, to price your own merchandise. You are waiting for conditions to get better, but we, who have made a close study of the problem day after day, know that this confusion was planned carefully even before the United States went into War.

Clever Communists in the Kremlin were figuring this out long ago, consulting with the American Reds, who continually came and went to Moscow to report on the United States and receive their instructions. The Politbureau in the Kremlin has a report on all our agencies, such as the OPA, and as to the effect on the morale of our people.

A confused, disorganized and disgusted people are as easy to handle as cattle. What deceives you are the heads of bureaus and agencies who you know are really not Reds. Reds try to use everyone they can and try not to let them know they are being used.

They create and use emergencies to give excuse for more regimentation. They cause conflicting statements to be issued by departments and anything to disgust you and cause you to lose faith in Congress and your government. When you are really disgusted they have a plan all ready to push down your throat. Public opinion can stop them but now they practically control the sources of information to the public. They have you disorganized while they are organized.

It is going to take time and money to whip these Reds. They are using both.

PROF. HAROLD J. LASKI

On May the 12th, 1946, Professor Laski, chairman of the British Labor Party, in his speech at Wales, Scotland, let us know what he thinks of the United States and what he thinks of Russia.

Of all times to tell us off — when England has an application in for a 4 Billion Dollar gift loan at 2% interest before Congress, and with several joker clauses in the loan agreement, such as: "Unless in exceptional circumstances a later date for payment is agreed upon". And while our returning veterans are paying 4% interest for that same kind of money, with no such joker clauses to avoid payment.

Professor Laski quoted in his recent speech: "To those who say we have to choose—as I do not believe we have to choose—between the Soviet Union and the United States, with its passion for free enterprise, which is not free and not enterprise, we, the Labor Party, stand four-square behind the Soviet Union".

So we have the brains of the British Labor Party in there pitching for Stalin, but they would accept a gift loan from Uncle SAP. If Russia was contemplating a loan to a country which had a government not sympathetic to Communism, Stalin would direct that this regime be replaced with Communists before he would consider the loan, but it makes no difference to us. You might wonder why the Professor has so much crust, but he knows something that the American citizen does not know — that he and Mr. Stalin have some very influential friends in our Treasury department who will not be offended by Laski's remarks.

THIS LITTLE PAPER IS GROWING

Giving away one hundred and fifty a week was our start. We increased it each week, until now we are distributing TEN THOUSAND this issue. It is estimated that at least three persons read each copy, which greatly increases our circulation and our MORALE.

We thank everyone who has helped us in any way. It is your paper, all we are interested in is exposing Communism.

Businessmen have volunteered to give these away in their stores, filling station owners are passing them out to customers, barber shops have them handy for customers to take home, veterans are passing them out at meetings, and union men are distributing them at halls.

The mayor of one of our cities gave out 200 at a meeting of businessmen. If you are attending a meeting or dinner and wish to give Think out we will furnish them.

The Communists are not too timid nor too busy to put out their literature. America is in ten times more danger today than from this last war. The enemy is boring in like termites to destroy the foundation of our government.

We will expose the facts that will destroy Communism in America. Help us to give you a better paper and more of them.

Help Think to spread to more towns and other states. Volunteer to pass these little papers out in your locality.

DOCTORS - NURSES - HOSPITALS

The Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill is the socialized medicine bill. It would create another agency to employ thousands of Reds, and all doctors, nurses, and hospitals, would be controlled by Red politicians. A medical dictatorship! One would go to the doctor he was sent to and he would pay taxes for the red tape, waste, and confusion. The better the politician the doctor became, the better he would get along. The plan is to own you from the day you are born until the day you die. They keep your mind on the 15% of the bill that is good but not on the 85% that is Communism.

The three bills above are being pushed by Communists and Fellow Travelers, using every available means. Over 300 different Fronts and more than 250 Red and Pink newspapers and magazines are behind these.

In November they will try to elect Congressmen who have agreed to vote for their passage. Be careful you are not tricked into helping any of these Un-American movements. If you are not sure, we will give you correct information about any present or future political figure or movement.

This will guarantee to everyone that every dollar they give will be used to fight Communism. So far we have given our time and our finances. We know how to effectively fight Communism and we know their weak spots. It is a tough job and we know what has happened to dozens of others who have stood up to them before. Smeared until they are pushed off the Radio or the platform, or put out of print.

We ask your money and prayers.

OUR FRIEND WILL ROGERS

The Communist tells us about the wonderful results of Communism in Russia and how it would benefit the United States. This reminds us of a story our dear Will Rogers used to tell about a fellow who had no horse and had never owned one, but he was continually telling people about his horse. He kept it up so long that he began believing it himself and went to town and bought a saddle for it.

The worst thing about this deal is that the Reds are making us pay for the saddle and they want to do the riding.

DO YOU WANT TO HELP ?

Should you like to have five copies of Think to give to friends ask our distributor. He will gladly give them to you, or we will mail them if you write us. Think is not motivated by a desire to make money. We welcome investigation.

Communists spend millions and push tons of propaganda on unthinking Americans. Let's wake up! How can you spend money better than to help stop these Reds from bringing present European conditions to America?

We give away several thousand copies of Think each week. We want to give away ten times as many. HOW MANY DEPENDS ON THE SUPPORT WE RECEIVE. Do you wish to help us grow? Every dollar will be used carefully. Small contributions are welcome. You may send cash or check to

Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception, as we will show you. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are nonpartisan, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information from over the world.

AMERICA IS IN DANGER

DIVIDE AND CONQUER

Communists are artists at dividing and conquering — and how easily it is worked on the gullible, busy Americans. So busy making money they have no time to think.

Courageous Americans who have opposed Communism, the diabolical Red schemes and clever fronts, were objects of smear by the Reds and Red stooges. Fellow Travelers are sent out to smear these real Americans who dare defend the Constitution and our American system. Traps are set for these Patriots, they are accused of just the opposite of what they stand for. The smear is kept up by radio commentators and Red-controlled papers and magazines, until American citizens are afraid of these Patriots—afraid of the men who are defending America. These smears are so strong that the different Patriots themselves who are fighting for America are afraid to defend each other, so the Red Fifth Column takes them one at a time and ruins them. They are removed from the radio or platform or the editors are scared silent and the power of Hell, the un-Christian power of Stalin and Communism sweeps on over the wrecked efforts of Patriots. Why?

Lack of organization—lack of courage and understanding. It is the organized minority making monkeys of the unorganized majority. When America learns to rally to the support of a Patriot who sticks his neck out for America—who has the courage to face these Reds and tell the truth — and when this Patriot is attacked, support him, black or white, Methodist, Catholic or Jew, Democrat or Republican—asking only that he is against Communism and for America. Then the smear artist will be defeated.

The Communists are not divided—they stand a united front all over the world under directions from the Kremlin.

Just one example—Herbert Hoover has been all over the world lately, working efficiently to reduce hunger. In every country he visited, he was attacked by the Communist papers. That did not just happen—that was close cooperation at direction of Stalin. We will not stop these Reds until we take time to learn their tactics and not be confused and intimidated by the smear.

Learn who the Communist stooges and Fellow Travelers are, learn their fronts. When they open up the smear campaign on a man, forget everything else about that man and support him to the limit. If they smear a monkey, support that monkey.

ARREST OR DEPORT THE REDS

The Communists who are foreigners should be deported and the home-grown Reds should be thrown into the Clink, or we should take this law off the books and adopt Communism completely.

"If two or more persons in any state or territory or at any place subject to the United States conspire to overthrow, put down or to destroy by force the Government of the United States, or to levy war against them, or to oppose by force the authority thereof, or by force to prevent, hinder, or delay the execution of any law of the United States, or by force to seize, take, or possess any property of the United States contrary to the authority thereof, they shall each be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than six years, or both."

WIN-THE-PEACE MOVEMENT

The citizens of Elizabeth, New Jersey, have fought and won a small but very important battle against the Communists this week by exposing the "Committee to Win the Peace" of Union County.

After much pressure had been brought upon the Committee to Win the Peace by Veteran organizations and citizens of Elizabeth, the organization failed to receive permission to use public places such as the Y.M.C.A., for their meetings. The Win the Peace Movement had scheduled a meeting at the Y.M.C.A. for June 26th under a different name so that the public would not be any the wiser. However, the Y.M.C.A. will not let them meet under any name, because of their un-American activities.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

"There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, and this excludes the Red flag, which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization, just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Above was written by Theodore Roosevelt while in bed the day before he died.

THE HISTORY OF COMMUNISM IN RUSSIA

by George Nelson

Since so little is known about Russia before the revolution by Americans in general, and since it is of such great importance that Americans learn exactly how the Russians were conquered by the Red revolutionists, we give here a brief general history of Communism in Russia.

This practical historical observation will indicate the similarity of fundamental plans employed here in America now to overthrow our government.

Over a thousand years ago there existed in northern Russia a wonderful republic known as NOVGOROD. It was governed by a congress elected by the people which in turn elected its chief or "POSADNIK". For centuries this republic prospered until the Mongolian tartar, "GENGHIS KHAN", with his mighty armies, conquered and subjected Russia to horrible slavery for about three hundred years. It was not until the reign of Catherine II in 1783 that the last tartar was disposed.

Russian history indicates that prior to the tartar invasion, the Russians were thrifty, hard-working, law-abiding persons. After this infiltration of alien blood there was a strong tendency for many of the Russian people to live after the pattern of their conquerors. Non-productive, plundering, nomadic lives were now led by many Russians with one tribe continually plundering or retaliating against the invaders, with few or no permanent settlements or no agricultural production.

This continued until BORIS GODUNOFF of the RURIK dynasty became convinced that there could be no progress or cohesion in his empire unless this disruptive custom was abolished. He therefore enacted laws forbidding the migration of peasants from the estates where they were employed. Efforts to enforce these laws failed because inadequate penalties were provided. Determined, however, Godunoff then enacted another law which gave the right to all noblemen who were wealthy land owners to hold in bondage all peasants employed by him or even those unemployed or unattached to any estate.

Thus serfdom or slavery was established in Russia. By the year 1858 almost half the population in Russia was serfs.

BARUCH AND THE BOMB

Congress is waking up. The Baruch plan to give the Atomic Bomb secret to U.N. and indirectly to Russia is dead—WE HOPE. Baruch has had such wonderful press agent activity the last twenty-five years he is regarded as a super intellectual—America's brain on a park bench. Hence, we were afraid he would get away with this. We shuddered when he was appointed. He has plenty of money and plenty of brains. But to trust the existence of 130 million Americans in his hands. NO.

The secretary of U.N. has been palsywalsy with Stalin for a long while. If Harold Laski, chairman of the British Labour Party, succeeds in pushing England the rest of the way into Communism they will replace Mr. Bevin with a Red and Great Britain's representative on U.N. will be a Red picked by Stalin—then what happens? Shall all America rest on the mercy of this election in England?

If the U.N. gets the secret, Stalin would not wait for developments in England. He would take Alaska and the Reds in U.S. would revolt against us as they have in all the countries taken by Stalin. If Stalin had the Atomic Bomb now, he would quickly erase some of our cities to bring us to our knees in front of William Z. Foster. If we had not developed this bomb, Stalin would have slaughtered everyone in Europe who opposed Communism and the Reds here would have revolted by now.

The bomb is what is holding Stalin back—that is why hundreds of spies have been busy in Canada and inside our Atom Bomb plants trying to steal all information. That is why the "Win the Peace Movement" and other Red Fronts want Russia to get the Atom Bomb.

Ridge Atom Bomb plant admit under oath that they want to see Russia get the secret and many admitted under oath that they hold allegiance to the Russian flag. How long would men live in a Russian bomb plant who admitted this, and we don't even discharge them. Where are our Americans?

This little paper will keep you informed of the men who are on the Red smear list. You know many who have been smeared out of the picture during the last ten years. Valuable men branded anything to turn their friends against them. Judge a man by his enemies.

Three men who are now objects of smear by the Red Rats are: Douglas MacArthur, Herbert Hoover and Upton Close.

Who cares if they are Republicans, Baptists, Vegetarian or whatnot? Support them. Stalin has a good reason for wanting them smeared and ruined.

Stalin does not want hunger checked and he does not want the Hoover plan. He wants the Morgenthau plan and every Red in the U. S. wants the Morgenthau plan of starvation enforced.

Every Red and Fellow Traveler in the United States wants the Stalin-dictated Potsdam agreement enforced. Our Army thinks the Morgenthau plan and the Potsdam agreement are insane. Every Red wants Upton Close taken off the seventy radio stations, because he is exposing the Red traitors. Committees of Reds, backed by stooges and powerful businessmen, are demanding of the radio stations that Upton Close be removed. This has been going on for weeks.

Mark Twain said: "If you cannot answer a man's argument, don't be discouraged, you can still call him names".

IN AGAIN -- OUT AGAIN

In the sworn testimony of George Berthelon, former Communist, before a special committee of the California Legislature, he said: "We (the Communists) had a rule that whenever anyone asked us if we were members, we were automatically expelled. Of course, after we had replied 'No', we were immediately reinstated. All this was automatic.

DON'T LET THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG

Some of our high government officials, who are in the know, are very nervous these days—they are afraid Stalin will release some of the messages he received from F. D. Roosevelt.

We are informed that some of these messages, tossing our friends to the Russian Bear, would be very embarrassing now, and cause high blood pressure with some of the International boys.

By the way, why is Joseph Davies so quiet these days—what is he up to now? We did not hear his patriotic voice since he supported the Russian Spies who stole secrets from Canada. His "Mission to Moscow" is a wonderful book, at least Sidney Hillman thinks so.

However, it is not so popular since Victor Kravchenko published "I Chose Freedom". Kravchenko's book makes "Mission to Moscow" ridiculous.

HISTORY OF COMMUNISM

ators followed the pattern of the French Revolution by inciting a group of people with the idea that they could gain more liberty and social equality by killing their Czar, government officials, wealthy citizens and church leaders. Then in November 1825 some five thousand revolutionists attacked the winter palace. These were defeated with much slaughter, but these revolutionary ideas and theories continued, to be propagated by secret international groups who established funds and printing plants in London, Paris, and Geneva. Alexander HERZEN was a leader of one of these groups.

These revolutionary societies made little progress until in February 19, 1861, the emperor decided to free the Russian serfs or slaves. On that date the emperor issued the emancipation proclamation.

We in America know the violent reaction to President Lincoln's "Emancipation Proclamation" and the bloody Civil War that followed in America. It is therefore easy to understand the violent anti-czar and anti-government feeling many wealthy nobles had since they were deprived of a great part of their income in this social upheaval. At this time many of the wealthy nobles and their sons become revolutionists to have revenge upon the Czar and government for interfering with their source of income.

From this time on the revolutionists became a serious problem for the Russian government and later many officials were assassinated, including the Czar Alexander II on March 1, 1881, by the revolutionists. The conspirators, then as now, used the organize, disorganize, reorganize plan of action.

First they organized themselves by the aid of international secret revolutionary societies and international funds. They gained great strength and loyalty by generating a persecution against themselves. Their cry then, as now, was, "WE ARE BEING PERSECUTED; THEREFORE WE MUST STICK TOGETHER". Also, "WE ARE FOR LIBERTY AND EQUALITY FOR LABOR; THAT IS WHY WE ARE BEING PERSECUTED". It is easy to see how gullible people from all ranks of life rush to aid these impostors.

Second, the conspirators disorganized by inducing the people to practice false, unworkable, ideas and theories. To divide, and corrupt, anything that would cause the people to separate and ruin themselves, was the method taught to the dreamy, gullible people.

Next, they reorganized finally by inflicting slavery unparalleled in history upon the people. Thus the people did not get the liberty and equality they were promised, but only a change of masters, the latter far more severe than the former, as the abolition of private property does not prevent the exploitation of man by man, but on the other hand, only increases it.

The fact that the majority of the people were gullible and disloyal made the work of the revolutionists much easier in Russia. Many people would sacrifice the welfare of the others for their own personal gain. Drunkenness was one of the worst vices and immorality likewise was common among the wealthy. The final result was that few could be trusted or depended upon to do anything except that which satisfied their own shallow greed or vices. In 1905 there was an unsuccessful revolution in Russia.

Finally, in 1917, after the World War I, revolutionaries from all over the world—from Berlin, Paris, London, New York, Geneva—poured into Russia with finances coming in from all over the world, and they inflicted the Red slavery in Russia. Without the help of certain wealthy international financiers, the Russian revolution would have surely failed. Such is the brief history of Russian Communism.

Of course, it must be remembered that there are two distinct types of Communists—the idealist and the opportunist. The idealist is one who is fooled into thinking that Communism will work for the best interest of the people. The opportunist is the one who runs Communism as a business and who knows that it can only mean tyranny and slavery for the people.

Let us illustrate more clearly what is meant by the term "false ideas". For example, when a man takes out of his medicine cabinet a bottle of poison, mistaking it for cough medicine, and takes a drink of it, he is granting rights to a false idea or an unworkable theory. Of course, only trouble results when he does this, simply because he violates laws of nature.

Likewise, when the man who grants rights to the idea that men will gain more equality and liberty when the government owns all private property, and when the Communist politicians are the only and all powerful possessors of the government, can only expect trouble because wherever these unworkable theories have been put into practice much less liberty and much less equality were to be had by the majority of people.

The Russian people were not trained to oppose Communism, whereas the Communist had hundreds of schools and enormous sums of money received from certain international financiers from all parts of the world. These financiers stand to lose nothing but to benefit by Communism.

Likewise, the American people are not trained today to oppose Communism, but actually are deluded into tolerating it by the radio, press and movies. By keeping the people in "continual pursuit" of shallow pleasures. Those devices prevent the people from getting a clear view of what is really going on in the world or how they are slowly but surely being enchained.

Just as surely as the sun rises and sets, so, also, is this Red slavery coming to America, because it might be an unpleasant fact, but it still is a fact, that the majority of the Americans are out to have a good time, to mind their own business, and to look for themselves. Therefore they don't

If this paper was twice as large and we used every inch to list them, we could not cover them all, but will give you a few each week.

No doubt many true Americans belong to the more than three hundred Red Fronts. They were forced to join or joined not knowing they were being used to give strength and numbers to an organization whose key men—men who direct the important activities—are working under instructions from the POLITBURO of the Kremlin. We say to the men who are not for Communism and who belong to these Fronts, if you are really sincere and want to know the truth, look up the men who are the brains of the National Organization. You will learn they belong to many Red Fronts and support Communistic movements. If you do not believe us, send the names of just three into the Un-American Activities Committee, in Washington, D. C., and ask them for a report. You will get their history and will be surprised.

These Fronts are organized under unsuspecting names to trap and use you. They do everything possible to prevent you from knowing you are being used. Are you helping one of these?

RED TERMITE IN THE DARK

Reds and Pinks are fired with anti-Christian zeal—they are busy seven days a week pumping poison into the blood stream of America. We are in far more danger now than we were from World War II. We have the Communist open, above-ground, organization, William Z. Foster, President, and we have the far more powerful Communist Underground organization, mainly composed of Russia Reds—here in America giving orders to the open organization which handles the fronts and fellow travelers.

We fight Red Termites in the dark.

WE DON'T RECEIVE BIG CHECKS

Our support comes in small amounts from the average citizen and some from people who probably make a sacrifice to send us a few dollars.

We don't receive any large checks—and when we do, the money will be used to print and give away more papers.

This little paper doesn't receive checks from Orson Welles, Edward G. Robinson, Charles Chaplin, Henry Morgenthau, Felix Frankfurter, Joseph Davies and many others who write big checks to support papers and magazines. But our cause is right—the American cause.

Communism is anti-Christ — a world political organization creating hate, hunger, bankruptcy, despair. Then, using them as tools for building a Godless world.

There are several ways of combatting Communism, but the most effective way is the printed word—combat ignorance and hate with light, education. That is our Mission. Many voluntary workers are coming forward but it takes money to expose the Red Fifth Column, which has unlimited funds and over three hundred papers and magazines and hundreds of writers. 435 writers in the Movie Industry alone. We did not fight this war to be ruled by the Reds.

THEY PLAY BOTH HORSES

The powerful secret group which has directed our government toward bankruptcy the last ten years is playing safe—recently they made arrangements with Mr. Stassen, and greased the way so, should it develop that they have gone as far as they can on the New Deal horse, they will slide right over behind Mr. Stassen and give him powerful finance and support.

They are also nursing the American Labor Party for they are not sure which way the wind will blow next election.

BROWDER RETURNS

Earl Browder arrived in New York by plane, having just visited Stalin and the Russian publishing houses.

It is understood that he has made preparations to completely cover the United States with Soviet books.

"I CHOSE FREEDOM"

by Victor Kravchenko, former Soviet Official. This is from Chapter XXIV.

Party Gatherings

At ten in the evening we foregather for our weekly meeting. Comrade Mironov presides under a huge picture of Lenin; other important comrades are with him on the rostrum. Comrade Yudin, head of the government publishing agencies but now representing Agitation-Propaganda section of the Central Committee of the Party, is our guest tonight.

Because we know that he is one of Stalin's foremost theoreticians, we are keyed up to listen attentively. His theme is world affairs. Yudin will speak with the voice of Stalin, the voice of the Party and the Soviet dictatorship.

When the applause subsides, Comrade Yudin takes the floor. We listen with every pore of our bodies.

In England and America, Yudin tells us, a mighty tide of faith in the Soviet system is rising among the masses. He quotes from Priestley, Laski and others. Neither the Churchills, the Roosevelts nor their socialist and "labor" lackeys can stop it. In England the social fascist Clement Attlee is often the guest of the fascist Lady Astor. Make your own deductions, comrades!

The seeming struggle between Churchill and the Labor opposition, according to Yudin, is therefore just shadow boxing. Both groups are working together to hold down the proletariat and both are ready to sing God Save the King.

"As for their attitude to Russia," he declares, "the Laborite leaders love us about as much as we love Hitler."

The quip draws laughter and scattered applause. A thrust at Laborites and other such spurious "democrats" is always good showmanship at a Party session. Turkey and Japan then come in for installments of Yudin's vitriol. We know, he shouts, that Matsuoko—the man whom Comrade Stalin honored by seeing him off at the railroad station—urged his Mikado to make war on Russia when the Germans were pressing for Moscow, before Pearl Harbor. Japan and its Matsuokos will get what's coming to them after we've disposed of the Hitler gang!

Anti-Soviet Drive.

"In Turkey, General Erkilet and a gang of yelping journalists—with the tacit approval of the government, of course—unloose a wild anti-Soviet campaign. A day of reckoning with these good, sweet neighbors of ours will come, we may be sure. . . .

"I come now to America, comrades. There the Roosevelt policy of playing along with the Soviets as long as it's useful has evoked a strong opposition, as is only natural in the greatest stronghold of capitalism. The opposition is led by former President Herbert Hoover and certain reactionary Senators and other people in the pay of Morgan, Rockefeller and duPont.

"Comical as it may sound to us, these people think that ROOSEVELT has sold out to the U.S.S.R. and to Communism. They don't understand that ROOSEVELT, like ATTLEE, represents the LAST OUT-POST AGAINST INEVITABLE COMMUNISM. They don't understand that his war alliance with the U.S.S.R. is just a marriage of convenience. We hate capitalism as much as they hate us. We will never retreat from the tasks set before us and before history by Lenin and Stalin!"

When Yudin finishes, we all stand up and sing the Internationale.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands

We are nonpartisan, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information from over the world.

IRON CURTAINS REPLACE FOUR FREEDOMS

AND SEE THE RED UTOPIA

Did we go into this war just for the fun of fighting and using up our resources, accumulating a three hundred billion dollar debt—to help wreck Europe and pauperize the people just so we could feed them and build it up again?

That is not the reason we were given day and night over the radio. We were told our sacrifices were to establish the Four Freedoms all over the world. Some of us believed our leaders were sincere, so we made hundreds of sacrifices, worked the night shifts in factories. Ten million of our sons quit school or positions and were shipped to more than 75 points in world—from Iceland to Africa. 275 thousand are now buried in 327 overseas cemeteries.

Again and again, we were urged to hold on a little longer, to turn out more weapons, to do without everything from cigarettes to automobiles, and soon peace would come and the Atlantic Charter would be put into operation.

FREEDOM

Something must be wrong. Peace did not come and there is less freedom in the world than at any time in history. If there is freedom, let's lift this iron curtain from around Europe so we may see WHAT we fought for—and WHO we fought for.

FEAR

More people are living under fear—at least thirteen countries of Europe—four hundred million in China and Manchuria, ninety-six percent of the Russians, and in the United States there never has been as much fear or distrust of our Government. Japan has less fear than most of the World, thanks to MacArthur. One hundred seventy million in Europe are on the verge of starvation—three million Germans have starved.

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

This is nearing the end in Europe because the Red hand of Stalin is trying to end Christianity. Religion of all kinds is practically driven underground in all countries where Stalin dominates. Religious women are turned over to Red soldiers. Hundreds of priests from many countries are now in slave labor camps in Russia, hundreds more killed. This is done by the world-wide political organization that is determined to take charge in the United States.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

During the War we got practically no real news from Europe—we were told it was military necessity. What is it now, one year after the end of the War? During the War we were told it's best for you not to know; just give us your sons and your billions, let us do the thinking. We did that. But now! Again we are asked to sacrifice—cut down on our food, ration bread, deny ourselves—so we can send thousands of shiploads to Europe. Again we say O.K.—but we would like to know what is going on in Europe. Millions of U. S. citizens are anxious about their relatives.

We would like to be sure none of this food is being used to bring hungry people to Communism—we have heard that it is. Are American Reds distributing this food? We know our lend-lease trucks and arms sent to Russia are being used to kill anti-Communists in Manchuria.

We understand the iron curtain around Russia is to prevent the world from seeing how a few million Communists govern one hundred ninety million Russians with fear and slavery, and what they are doing to four million Germans, one and one-half million Poles and two million other Europeans carried into Russia as slaves. But why the Iron Curtain around Europe?

The other reason for war, we are told, was to abolish dictatorship in the world—that it would be worth sacrificing our sons to do this—to do away with Hitler. Now it develops Hitler was a small-time operator. We crushed him and made way for Stalin, who does the dictator job on a world-wide scale, with fifteen million Russians in concentration camps, seven and one-half million European slaves in Siberia and his active agents in every country—preparing to take over for Stalin.

In our State Department alone, it is estimated there are from two to four thousand Russia Firsters. So we did not establish the Four Freedoms, the Atlantic Charter hangs in no library, and we have dictatorship. And we have Communism all over the world. We crushed the obstacles to Communism in Europe allowing it to spread fast.

After all our sacrifices, we are afraid to be Americans—are afraid to tell Stalin to get his Reds out of our government. We are afraid to speak for the Polish people who fought five years as a faithful ally—we are afraid to speak up for any of the countries that were promised the Four Freedoms and are now under the heel of Stalin. What will these countries think of the U.S.? Looks like Uncle Sam needs to read Dale Carnegie's book.

POLAND WAS BETRAYED

The so-called Polish Government is protesting for freedom of the Spanish people—while the Polish people would rejoice to have Franco. They could worship God as they wish and thousands of Polish boys who have been fighting in other countries, supposedly for Polish freedom, could come home now without fear of death or being carried off to Russia. Dr. Lange, representative from Poland to U.N.,

Communism may be a good thing for America. If so, we should adopt it soon—we need to get our home problems settled and present an united front before we have lost the respect of all nations. We should be able to learn now if it is an improvement on our form of government. Communism has been in operation since 1917 with a free hand in Russia—one hundred ninety million people. If Marx, Lenin and Stalin's idea of government is better than George Washington's and Thomas Jefferson's, we should be able to learn it now. Why don't we? Our government cannot function long, half American and half Communist. We learned this from our Civil War. We cannot be neutral on this—it is a far too important subject—we should be for or against it.

Communists say it will change our government entirely and make a tremendous change in our lives. So it must be a good thing for the United States or a bad thing. If it is what America needs, we are for it. It may be that all we have read or heard is wrong. If it has been good for Russia then America should have it.

The writer will be glad to make a trip to Russia to learn with an open mind, if the Russian Ambassador will guarantee the writer freedom to travel in Russia, as we do thousands of Russians here who do not even have their names listed in Washington and are free to go where they wish. We ask only to be allowed to talk to Russians and visit their homes and factories with no government agent at our side. If we are wrong, we want to know it. If the Russian people prosper under Communism, this paper will endorse and promote it in America. We will support all these Communist-inspired bills and endorse these many agencies that the Reds want continued even in peacetime. We will help push more Communists into key positions in our government in order to smother Washington's and Jefferson's ideas.

We are told that 96% of the Russian people are practically slaves—have no liberty, are paid mostly in ration books, are not allowed to own a home, have to trade in the government store they are sent to. We understand that fifteen million Russians are in Concentration Camps today because they complained of the government. We understand if men even talk of a strike they are shot. It is said that all newspapers are owned by the government and an editor may print only what is permitted. We understand that now, one year after the war, when our army is practically demobilized and most of our boys have returned home, Russia is drafting all boys over fifteen years of age—that Russia has all arms and ammunition factories, taken over by her in several European countries, now running full time. We wonder why?

We have read that they have practically run religion of every kind underground in countries held by them. We are informed that even our Ambassador lives where the house and yard is lit by powerful flood lights at night and Russian agents watch and trail him and his assistants—that they are forbidden to leave a certain district around Moscow without a permit and a guide. Compare this with the freedom we allow thousands of Russians here, where they may take car, train or plane—go day or night where they wish.

Still we hear, "Don't offend Russia, you may cause disunity". We cannot have unity of right and wrong. If we are wrong, and Russia will allow those opposed to Communism freedom to see what it has done for their country, if we like it, then we could have unity.

We have nothing to hide here in the United States or if we do, we are too dumb to hide it. What are they hiding in Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania and Germany? Why not raise the "iron curtain"? Let's see what Communism has done for those countries so we may appreciate what our Communists and fellow-travelers are trying to sell us here in America. We will make the job easier for them.

SAINT JOE STALIN LOVES CHILDREN

Having over four hundred fronts operating here in the United States to catch all races, and all professions, from the pants presser to the minister, the Kremlin master minds now set a booby trap for the children. They believe in getting their minds poisoned before they get old enough to think for themselves.

In Russia, children spy and report on their own parents. They are taught this in the governmental schools. We predict this for dumb America within three years; at the longest.

A four-colored comic magazine with 640 pages has been launched. "The Challenger" is the name and it is a comic about the war, bringing out how the democratic people are to get unity and paradise. They ask the children to sign and send in this pledge: "I hereby join hands with the youth of the world in its fight against Facism and bigotry and by so doing, declare myself a Challenger."

The Editor is known as a bigot and as a half-baked American. We understand that one and a half million dollars is being spent for this Communist poison sheet. What about Think? We are scratching our heads figuring out how to get typewriters.

O. W. I.

Why is information about Europe, and Germany in particular, being suppressed now—a year after war is ended?

The O.W.I., which screened the news during the war, was saturated with Reds, who were too valuable to carry a rifle.

Now the news is screened and suppressed through the State Department, which absorbed the O.W.I. and the REDS.

What is going on in Germany that the Russia Firsters don't want the public to know?

A MINISTER IN OKLAHOMA

A few ministers have been tricked into helping push Communism in America. They remind us of a former county preacher we knew in Oklahoma. He told us that when he was young, one night when he was looking at the clouds he saw plain large letters, P. C. His brother told him that was his call, it meant PREACH CHRIST.

But later a fellow who heard his preaching told him it meant PLOW CORN.

These ministers who are working for Pal Joey got their signals confused, or it could be that collections were very slow.

WE RESPECT A REAL COMMUNIST

We can respect a real Communist, who carries his Red Card. One like Wm. Foster, head of the American Communist Party, who stated over the air last week that he recognized only one flag—the flag of Russia. Now there is a Communist who would make Lenin, in his grave, smile with pride.

Foster has always lived here, except for numerous trips to the Kremlin, where he receives instructions on the latest strategy to be used here in America. The fact is that he lives here in luxury, working to destroy our fat, rich country, and he insults the government that prevents his being hung—which he has deserved for years.

Millions of listeners are told by him that he owes allegiance to a foreign flag. After this statement, he is allowed to leave his platform and go where he wishes to direct his Red Fifth Column in destroying our liberty. Mr. Foster directs an enormous campaign to make traitors, even of our children, and we stand bewildered and afraid.

How long would a man live in Russia after he announced over the radio in Moscow that he held allegiance only to America's flag? We give these real-Reds credit—they know when they can rub it in. And we know where they stand—they are out to destroy our government, for they tell us so.

But the Fellow Traveler—the man who says that he is a liberal—he is not ready to be branded as a Communist. The Reds do not want him known as a Communist, for that would destroy his usefulness.

He is the fellow permitted to belong to our clubs and occupy offices in agencies and governmental departments. He is the Judas—a decoy to fool his countrymen. This man is like the buck sheep at the slaughter house; each day they follow him in, trusting to his leadership, and he is allowed to pass the butcher's big hammer, but the other sheep never come back. His name is usually Judas. These Fellow Travelers who want to ride the white horse in the parade and become a commissar in America after the change, don't know that Stalin will erase them quickly when he gets control.

Do they know about the purges in Russia and all the countries taken by Stalin? Even the Red army had few officers at the outbreak of World War II. They had been shot without a trial. Stalin trusts very few individuals, if any.

Someday we will tell you who these Fellow Travelers are. In the meantime, THINK. Which radio commentators and public men continually support Communistic moves, and bills in Congress, and who want to give the Atomic Bomb to Russia? Who wants to let Stalin in on the Pacific islands our Marines died to capture?

There you have the Fellow Traveler. He would sell out America for thirty pieces of silver. The writer knew Frank James, the train robber, and he was a man who could be trusted. His word was good, and that is more than can be said about these Fellow Travelers.

STRIKES ARE 'THE PARTY LINE'

BENJAMIN GITLOW, former Communist leader and candidate for the vice presidency of the United States on the Communist Party ticket, has said: "The situation more nearly resembles insurrection than a labor strike. The distinction between loyal labor leaders and those following the Communist Party line is easy to observe. Loyal labor leaders fight for a settlement of grievances. Disloyal men who have wormed their way into the labor movement don't want settlement. They want strikes. That is the Communist Party line."

DEFEATING COMMUNISM IS EASY

The Red fifth column is not the most difficult obstacle we have in saving America. The Reds could be discredited and locked up or deported immediately IF and BUT.

America's problem is the people who don't think it can happen here. The kind that wait until the house is burned to the ground before they grab a bucket of water. Waiting for someone else to do it. The kind with a bag of money in their arms, drowning and won't turn loose the money and save themselves. Too busy at a club or parties.

The night that Stalin's crowd took over, the parties were going strong in Moscow. Everyone was having a wonderful time. They were part of the nineteen million people soon liquidated . . . "for not cooperating", Mr. Stalin said.

We are too busy; we cannot stop to see we are drifting into a concentration camp. A Commissar will never take your business? Stalin has just done this in Russia, Poland, Hungary, Roumania, Latvia, Estonia, Lithuania, Finland, Germany, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Korea, and Manchuria. He has a death grip on England, Italy, France, and Austria. The U.N. is helping him get into Spain and our Fellow Travelers in the United States are helping him here day and night. Do we have backbones or wishbone? What kind of Americans are we?

This crowd cannot be bothered . . . draw another beer (if we can still get beer) . . . turn on the radio and let's hear how the horses are making out today.

If you told them their wives and daughters will be digging into a garbage can for a piece of bread within two years unless they drop their pleasure long enough to save our government, they would think you should be sent to the nuthouse.

Only three hundred thousand Reds took over Russia; one hundred and eighty million people, then. Only three million Communist members are there now and a million are really Communist at heart, but they rule as they will here if you don't decide which you want, the Hammer and Sickle or the Stars and Stripes.

Veterans, you took an oath to defend the flag. Now is the time it needs you. Stick your neck out for America. Come forward and let's do a bang-up, intelligent, wise, cool, legal, job before you are so disgusted and confused that your anger gives way to the wrong activity and we have bloodshed.

When Washington was fighting for our freedom, thousands of people in New York and New Jersey were for Great Britain. They gave Washington no help and criticized him as a trouble-maker. But he received help from other countries. France sent Lafayette, Poland sent Thaddeus Kosciuszko and Pulaski. Germany sent a great officer, Baron von Steuben, but now we have other countries making this fight for freedom more difficult for us. We patriots who love America must work and fight. Next December is too late.

Don't let George do it. George will be playing golf when our flag is taken down from the Capitol.

UNCLE SAM AND RED INK

If Uncle Sam is going to take over business, we suggest he take over the largest ink plant in the U.S.A. and manufacture RED INK exclusively. The Red fifth column steering our government is determined to operate the Treasury department on a red ink diet. Some people think it is wonderful. That is what the fellow said when he smoked his first marijuana cigarette.

IRON CURTAINS REPLACE FREEDOMS

a former Chicago professor, gives up his U.S. citizenship to serve Stalin—he asks U.N. to put Franco out and is backed by Andrei Gromyko, who said he did not know what Good Friday was.

No doubt Gromyko is one of Communism's brightest scholars to be chosen to represent them at the most important meetings of the world. We have other U.S. citizens like Dr. Lange, who would give up their U.S. citizenship to serve Stalin, but at present we allow them to disrupt and reorganize America.

The writer has stood on the spot where Patrick Henry made his speech heard around the world. If he repeated that speech today, no doubt he would be called a Fascist. Poor George Washington was all wrong about Americanism.

MAXIM LITVINOV

Maxim Litvinov, the last of five names he has used. When he schemed and used the Red fifth column to get American recognition of Russia in 1933, he pledged Franklin D. Roosevelt that it would be the fixed policy of the Soviet government to restrain all of its representatives from any act liable in any way to injure the tranquility and order of the American Nation.

As soon as Russia was recognized, the Reds started over two hundred Communist papers under five languages here to disrupt us.

As the Communist Mejinsky said later, "As long as there are fools to take our signature seriously, we will promise anything, providing that we can get something tangible in exchange."

Twelve billion of our lend-lease gift was very tangible. Our second front to break down Germany for Stalin and Communism was tangible. We were sold a bill of goods and they still sell us.

COMMUNIST AUTHORITY

"Communists fight for the attainment of immediate aims, for the enforcement of the monetary interest of the working classes; but in the movement of the present, they also represent and take care of the future of the movement," — Manifesto, p43 M.K.R. p94.

The "future of the movement" means world Communism, world revolution, conquest of power, on a world-wide scale, and world dictatorship". — Proveda, Sept, 1928, MKR, p33.

It means the literal destruction of the United States government and the establishment of a Soviet America under a Communist dictator. (Platform of the class struggle, p 37, MKR, p33, 79.

It means the abolition of all religion, of all morality, of the family relationship, of all freedom, and of all property rights.—Manifesto, pp26-27-28-29-30.

JOHN L. LEWIS

John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Works of America and former head of the C. I. O., said in a published interview in New York on February 29, 1944: "The Communists dominate the C.I.O. today. Philip Murray is today the prisoner of the Communists in his own union. They control him through their seats on his Executive Committee and there isn't a blessed thing he can do about it. Sidney Hillman is just as badly off. Both of them have to play ball with the Communists now or die. Communism has an anti-national and basically an anti-economic quality. It does not care for history or the experience of humanity for the freedom or the dignity of man. And the last thing on earth in which the American Communists are interested is the American way of life."

UNIMPEACHABLE TESTIMONIES IN FAVOR OF SPAIN'S NEUTRALITY

To anyone studying dispassionately the so-called Spanish problem, it is a curious thing to observe that the more efforts Spain makes to demonstrate her goodwill towards the United Nations, and especially towards the United States, the more pressure is exerted upon her and the more warnings she receives. It seems that one of the grounds on which it is sought to justify this course of action is the allegation that the Spanish Government aided the Axis powers.

Generally, it can be established that any Spanish action apparently favorable to the Axis powers, was taken under pressure and in self-defense, in order to prevent an Axis invasion which would have ruined Spain and caused incalculable injury to the Allied cause. On the other hand, action taken favorable to the United Nations was prompted by a friendly feeling towards them.

The late President Roosevelt in his letter to Generalissimo Franco in November, 1942, fully assured Spain that she had "nothing to fear from the United Nations" and also said:

"It is because your nation and mine are friends in the best sense of the word and because you and I are sincerely desirous of the continuation of that friendship for our mutual good that I want very simply to tell you of the compelling reasons that have forced me to send a powerful American military force to the assistance of the French possessions in North Africa."

And Mr. Churchill, in his speech of May 24, 1944, in the House of Commons, stated that "there is no doubt that if Spain had yielded to German blandishment and pressure, our burden would have been much heavier. The Straits of Gibraltar would have been closed and all access to the Mediterranean would have been cut off from the west, and the Spanish coasts would have become a nesting place for German U-boats. . . . I shall always consider it a service rendered by Spain, not only to the United Kingdom and the British Empire and Commonwealth, but to the cause of the United Nations. . . . I am here today to speak kindly words about Spain. Let me add this hope, that she will be a strong influence for the peace of the Mediterranean after the war. . . . The internal political arrangements in Spain are a matter for Spaniards themselves. It is not for us to meddle in these affairs as a government."

STRIKES

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstrations and finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of the bourgeoisie".

From the "Program of the Communist International", an official Red document published with imprint of the Communist party of the U.S.A.

DIES COMM. REPORT No. 2, p. 30

In the experiences of this Committee nothing could be clearer than that Communists hate the light of publicity, which exposes their aims and methods. A recent editorial in the Daily Worker, official newspaper of the Communist party, demands that the work of this committee to investigate un-American activities must not go on. Communists have good reasons to fear criticism which focuses the attention of the American people upon their sinister purposes and reprehensible methods. Communism will not be able to advance one step in the face of a fearless and complete exposure of its true nature. (Dies Com. House Report No. 2, p. 30).

FELLOW TRAVELERS

Would you like us to publish a list of Fellow Travelers each week? Hold tight—we will give them to you soon—and will you be surprised!

Pal Joey has some smart agents here picking out some active gents who like to sit up on the grand stand and draw down the checks. These heads of the Fronts don't get chicken feed.

Ask Honest Harold Ickes. His wife has two thousand chickens but she doesn't feed them the stuff Harold brings home. She doesn't feed it to her cows, either, for forty thousand a year isn't hay.

DON'T SAY WE DIDN'T WARN YOU

This is the name of a booklet published by the Constitutional Educational League—sells for 25c.

It could easily be worth $100 to you and your government if you read it. Read one page and you cannot lay it down until you have finished it. Your red American blood won't let you.

If you are interested in protecting your investment in America—in your home—in saving your factory—or your religion—you will read it. If you don't want your children to be taught Communism and free love by a Communist appointed teacher within two years, read this booklet and learn how you can stop it.

We will mail one free to each person who sends us a contribution to help us publish and give away more Thinks. Every dollar goes to fight Communism—not one cent for salaries or rent.

DON'T BE SURPRISED

When elections come up and we are not for some candidate you are sold on, don't blame us. We admit we are prejudiced. If a Communist is running against a monkey, we will support the monkey.

WE HAVE NO ANGELS

This paper must depend upon voluntary contributions. The editors of this paper, fully realizing that all this confusion has been created by Communist master minds to soften us up for Red slavery, have waited years for other men to start a paper of this kind.

We were willing to follow some big men, but, apparently, they are too busy making money and accumulating property to turn over to the commissars appointed by Stalin.

So, we are not afraid to lead. If the business men and professional men, educators, ministers, and office holders, will forget their golf long enough and drop their business for enough time to THINK what is happening to their government, they will know that they are wasting their time getting something that is going to be taken away from them. Not from your children, but from you, within two years. If you doubt this, pin this article up on the wall or file it in your desk reminder to come up in December. See how it sounds then.

We have valuable knowledge, gained over many years. We know Communism, from Karl Marx to Sidney Hillman.

We are capable of directing a nation-wide Crusade. Not amateurs who have just awakened. We could say we told you so. On our resources we can carry on only a limited crusade.

THINK

P. O. Box 816,

Every day we receive requests for help in combatting the Red fifth column. They want to know who are Red fronts, because they find themselves helping Communism. They want information to use in preventing their unions from being taken over by Communists. They want speakers to appear at veterans' meetings to educate them so they might stop these Reds from boring into their veterans' organizations.

We are asked for Thousands of Thinks to distribute. We want to give you a better grade paper, much larger and effective. Something so full of news that you will be interested in each page.

Much detail work is to be done and the demands on us are increasing. We find workers in various towns every day, but no one has a plan—everyone is confused.

Veterans are much concerned. They are passing out Thinks—more veterans are coming to us every day. We are organizing workers over a large area, and requests are coming in from other states.

It takes money to print Thinks, even though the labor to put them out is free and our time is donated. Even the Red Cross could not offer a proposition like this. We would like to double our output each week.

You men who can afford it: Can you get a better set up to save America? We do not operate in the parlor or the club. We go on the streets and every place possible. We know the Communist language and we know their weaknesses.

We have an effective plan, which is the printed word. Learn what Mr. Stalin thinks of the printed word. We use the truth, with facts, and we have the courage to stick our necks out while we still have a neck. Your neck is no safer than ours.

Our plan is to educate the people with plain and simple language, and unmask the fifth column of Red Russia before them. We invite investigation and can give gilt-edge references as to our honesty. We welcome a plan whereby a committee of red-blooded Americans will be willing to pay the printers and not us. James Roosevelt and Harold Ickes, the two heads of only one front (Independent Citizens Committee of Arts, Sciences and Professions) draw a combined salary of sixty-five thousand a year. We don't draw a dime. Which work do you approve of?

We like to fight, but we must have plenty of ammunition for this job. One dollar spent now is worth twenty spent next December.

Money people in Europe who were worth fifty thousand dollars wish now that they had spent half then to save the other half.

HOW MUCH IS AMERICA WORTH TO YOU? Small contributions are welcomed. You may send cash or check to

Think,

DO YOU WANT SOME "THINKS"?

This is your paper—we are the managers. Patriots use Think to expose the traitors. Should you like to have some copies to give out, ask our distributors or write us. We will gladly give you any amount that you will give out wisely.

POLAND

By Stanley Pieza, Chicago Herald-American Correspondent

Quotations

As a nation, Poland is starving. Nearly 5,000,000 Polish children require food at once; more than half that number are subnormal from under-nourishment.

The hordes of Soviet troops, sent to guard the "new liberty" of the "Workers' Paradise" in the once-free Polish Republic, are ruthlessly snatching the available food for themselves.

Red soldiers of occupation murder and rape on the streets, sack and destroy in stores and private homes, loot and desecrate the churches.

In the minds of the conquering Russians, no atrocity is rejected as too gruesome. Predominant among rape victims are girls of 12 to 16 years of age, and even Catholic nuns in convents.

Unbelievable, that this could happen to friendly Poland under the benign "protectorate" of Marshal Josef Stalin.

It is, all authenticated by reports contained in official documents prepared by Poland's brave Underground leaders.

These leaders include peasants, former soldiers in the valorous Polish Army, women of great courage, Catholic church officials.

The invaluable documents which have come into my hands were prepared with a view to introduction at the Nuremberg war-guilt trials.

Polish leaders hoped to offer them as grim, conclusive evidence against Soviet Russia's reign of terror in Poland.

They were not admitted. Red intrigue succeeded in smothering them. They are now in the hands of various Government officials.

YIDDISH MARXISTS PLOT U.S.A. DEFEAT BY U.S.S.R TRAITORS PLAN SLAUGHTER AND CONQUEST U.S.A. CAN LOSE WAR NOW! SYMINGTON WARNS

To give light to them that sit in darkness... to guide our feet into the way of peace. St. Luke, I, 79.

● EXTRA URGENT EDITOR'S NOTE: The threatening shadows across the world which coming events are abundantly casting before them give to the contents of this issue of Common Sense an importance at this time equal to the historic significance of the midnight ride of Paul Revere. The American public must be alerted immediately, and correctly, to perils which threaten the existence of their priceless American heritage. If they are not alerted they may very shortly witness the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse riding rough-shod across the nation. The contents of this issue of Common Sense fully explain these perils. If the American heritage is lost now, it is lost forever!!! Historic and scientific facts are revealed here to the American public for the first time. Intensive and expensive research assembled them. Read them with care. Read them again, and again, and again!!! This will perform a service for every American of far greater value than it is possible to realize at this moment. Obtain extra copies and give them to your friends. Never forget that at the time of the midnight ride of Paul Revere even its beneficiaries were unable to grasp its historic significance. To undervalue the contents of this issue is to be unprepared for security and defense. These facts are vital to the security and welfare of every American alive today and the countless generations of their posterity. OBEY THAT IMPULSE!!!

FACING FIRST DEFEAT

Best qualified Administration spokesman on the subject breaks bad news to public suddenly

The person best qualified to pass an opinion upon the gravity of the situation is W. Stuart Symington, Chairman of the National Security Resources Board. He has more authentic information available to him at this moment than any other person in the country, excluding no one. In the New York Times, of October 4, 1950, W. Stuart Symington is quoted as having stated the following concerning the possibility of the defeat of the United States in the next war, "I believe to-day there is a very good chance of losing."

W. Stuart Symington was guilty of a serious error of omission on that occasion. He performed a great disservice to the American people. W. Stuart Symington upon that occasion did not avail himself of the opportunity to disclose to the American people the source of the peril which is now threatening this nation with defeat. W. Stuart Symington will only disclose to the public expressions of sentiment which will not adversely affect the political health of the Administration. For good and valid political considerations the Administration frowns on mention in public by its spokesmen of Yiddish Marxists and their connection with the Soviet Union and with communist (Marxist) world-revolution activities.

W. Stuart Symington finds himself with this can-we-call-it gag in his mouth. This discourages reference to this subject by government officials holding responsible positions in the Executive branch. Under such circumstances the American people have not been alerted by their government to the source of the peril which now threatens the security and survival of the nation. The Administration is aware of the fact that Yiddish Marxists are the real rulers of the Soviet Union and that they have been the directing force behind the communist (Marxist) world-revolution from its very inception. The Administration has long been in possession of facts which establish beyond contradiction that Yiddish Marxists are exclusively responsible for the clear and present danger to which this nation now finds itself exposed.

W fight communism with common sense

FORRESTAL VINDICATED

The Nation lost this great patriot at a time when his knowledge could have averted the present crisis

The Administration cannot select a better spokesman than W. Stuart Symington to reveal the details of this danger to the American people. He should do this without any loss of time. Yiddish Marxists will find it difficult to discredit W. Stuart Symington in the eyes of the American people even with their deadly propaganda machines headed by the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League. The American people have learned their lesson from the sad fate of the late Hon. James E. Forrestal. During the last years of his life the late Hon. James E. Forrestal made heroic attempts to alert the American people to this threat to the nation's security.

The late Hon. James E. Forrestal understood the Yiddish Marxist peril and the implications of its impact upon the destiny of the United States. The late Hon. James E. Forrestal tried his very best to influence the defense and foreign policies of the government upon the basis of this danger. W. Stuart Symington will continue to receive the respect and support of the American people if he courageously discloses the sad fate of the late Hon. James E. Forrestal and brings the situation out into the open where it belongs. The public has infinite confidence in the integrity of W. Stuart Symington. Please speak up, Mr. Symington!

One of the world's outstanding authorities on the subject, Hanson W. Baldwin, military observer for the New York Times, writing in that paper on September 24, 1950, expressed his unqualified opinion that the United States could not be victor, and survive, in all-out-war to-day with the Soviet Union. This outstanding authority expresses his expert opinion that the existing superior military potential of the Soviet Union exists to-day primarily by virtue of the fact that they are now manufacturing atom-bombs and have accumulated a stockpile of them. That fact, Mr. Baldwin states, exposes the United States to the possibility of "mass destruction" by a Soviet Union atom-bomb which will "destroy in a night what we have built in a century." Need more be said on that subject?

TRAITORS PLAN BIG KILL

Counterfeit Americans supplying U.S.S.R. with all aids for coast-to-coast atom-bomb blitz

Twenty-five million American men, women and children face the prospect of being broiled to a cinder, fried to death, at any moment by a Soviet Union atom-bomb. That is the considered judgment of the most reliable sources of official information on the subject. It is the consensus of opinion of the best informed military and non-military members of important government agencies responsible for the security and defense of the nation. The administration is exerting every effort to "hush-hush" this great peril to the people of this nation.

An atom-bomb blitz by the Soviet Union, in a matter of moments, will transform at least ten of the nations leading industrial centers into as many heaps of smoking rubble and ruins. The concentration in the United States of industrial production, essential to its defense, within the confines of relatively few large manufacturing centers makes them easy targets for an atom-bomb blitz. The American method of mass-production in its gigantic factories increases the vulnerability of this vital industrial production.

It becomes very evident upon further consideration, that demoralization of the surviving population, devastation of vital centers of industrial production, and disruption of food transportation, water supply, and communications, will paralyze the ability of the nation to prevent defeat even if the will to resist remains. Sabotage by the Soviet Union fifth-column will multiply the horrors of an atom-bomb blitz. This fifth-column already exists in this country. They are ready, anxious, and able to crush out the last spark of resistance with the same type of terrorism which was so successfully employed in the conquest of their other satellite victims.

that the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, arrested recently as members of the spy ring which siphoned off our secret atom-bomb and other scientific discoveries to the Soviet Union, are Rosenberg, Greenglass, Moscowitz, Brothman, Sobel and Gold? Is it a coincidence or how does it happen, that the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, who infiltrated into high government places, and into other strategic spots throughout the nation, are Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Judith Coplon, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Gerhardt Eisler, Irving Potash, Philip Carl Weissburg (Carl Winter), Gilbert Greenberg, Jacob Golos, "J. Peters" Goldberger, Alexander Bittelman, Jacob Stachel, Sidney Weinbaum, Hanns Eisler, Israel Regenstein, Philip Bart, Ephraim Zinoyi Liberman (Michael J. Lee), Philip Jaffe, Mark Julius Ginsburg (Mark Gayn), Andrew Roth, Harry Dexter White (Dorn Weiss) and Avro Mike Halberg (Gus Hall)? There is an explanation how this happened. There also is a reason why it happened. And furthermore there was a purpose for it. It is much more than just "important" that the American people understand that each person mentioned is a Yiddish Marxist. They make up only a small fraction of the Yiddish Marxist "hard core" of Marxism in the United States. They are the pure breed of counterfeit Americans, Soviet Union agents masquerading as genuine Americans.

It is important to note that every name listed is a Yiddish Marxist. There is abundant proof that the top agents of the U.S.S.R. spy-ring in the United States are naturalized or alien Yiddish Marxists. There is equally certain proof that the active field-agents of the U.S.S.R. spy-ring in the United States are Yiddish Marxists who immigrated to this country and became citizens (?), or their children. In order to camouflage the source of Marxism (communism) Yiddish Marxist spy-ring policy-makers convert many Christian Americans to their fanaticism by the extravagant use of money or by appealing to their suppressed desire complex. Whether it is money or madness which lures Christian Americans to work for the Soviet Union spy-ring makes very little difference. They accomplish two things, firstly, they make it possible for the spy-ring to accomplish their objectives, and secondly, they camouflage from the American public the true character of the Marxist communist world-revolution.

Yiddish Marxists are the spirit and the substance of the world-revolution which seeks to wipe out the established institutions of civilized society and to replace them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society." Yiddish Marxists have an effective, highly-organized, world-wide network engaged in the overthrow of existing governments by force and violence. Yiddish Marxists claim they have a General Staff sitting in Moscow and functioning like the Board of Directors of a corporation with branches and subsidiaries in countries throughout the world. Yiddish Marxists in the United States are subject to authority and discipline by the Yiddish Marxist General Staff in Moscow exactly as employees of the Standard Oil Company at present working in London or in Timbuctoo are subject to authority and discipline by their headquarters in New York City.

Yiddish Marxists in the United States are counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. Yiddish Marxists owe allegiance and show loyalty to only one higher authority. That higher authority is the Yiddish Marxist General Staff, or Board of Directors sitting in Moscow. The official name for this General Staff is the Politburo of the Soviet Union. The Politburo of the Soviet Union has been the principal instrument of Yiddish Marxists since its creation. The Politburo of the Soviet Union in less than thirty-four years has been able to acquire control of 33% of the total land area of this globe in which they now dictate the destiny of 59% of the world's population. Yiddish Marxist ambition for world-domination will soon be rewarded with success at the rapid rate of progress now being made by them.

YIDDISH MARXIST SPY RING

facts obtained from sources whose reliability cannot be questioned, supply evidence beyond any question of a doubt, that the United States never at any time possessed that much-publicized monopoly of the atom-bomb. Just as fast as the secret scientific discoveries were made, they were stolen and transmitted to the Soviet Union by these counterfeit Americans, these agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. These traitors held positions of the highest trust in all important branches of the atom-bomb development projects as the public now knows.

If counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, had not deprived the United States of the atom-bomb monopoly, the United States would today be in a position to ignore this enormous war potential of the Soviet Union. Recent revelations confirm that theft of the atom-bomb secret scientific discoveries from the United States occurred as far back as 1943, from the very first day of the very first discovery.

The Soviet Union would not be a threat to the security of the United States today if these thefts had not occurred, despite the fact that the Soviet Union today occupies, or controls, 16,500,000 square miles of the earth's surface, approximately 33% of the total land area of the world and dictates the destinies of 1,000,000,000 people, half of the world's entire population. The military effort required to successfully combat such resources cannot be measured in terms of what the United States recently accomplished in Korea with its military forces.

The treasurable acts of counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, has robbed the American people of the strategic diplomatic value, as well as the military advantage, of an atom-bomb monopoly. Unless atom-bombs are dropped first upon the United States, its large and growing stockpile has lost its significance as a power for persuasion in international affairs. In international affairs, the United States has only one enemy. That enemy also happens to have its own stockpile of atom-bombs. Accordingly, the United States has been deprived of the incalculable power to persuade inherent in a monopoly of atom-bomb in international affairs.

As a result of treasonable acts by counterfeit Americans agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, the Soviet Union today has a stockpile of approximately fifty atom-bombs. This estimate has been made by competent authorities in the Armed Services and other highly placed authorities who are in the best position to know. Numerous statements by them to that effect have already appeared in leading newspapers. It can no longer be regarded as a secret. The Administration, and the pro-Administration press and radio commentators are trying their hardest to give this information the "hush-hush" treatment. Nobody knows the exact quantity except the highest officials in Moscow and their top agents in this country.

BEWARE OF BOOBY-TRAPS

Communists convinced Americans will surrender to U.S.S.R. under some booby-trap arrangement

As important as adequate defense against military aggression by the Soviet Union is the necessity for Americans to remain alert and vigilant against Soviet Union "booby-traps." The best defense against Soviet Union "booby-traps" is to re-arm "to the teeth." The nation will not find it unavoidable under such circumstances to walk into a Soviet Union "booby-trap" until its better judgment. Important spokesmen with the Administration have expressed themselves similarly on this question recently. They are 100% correct in their opinion although they appear to be a trifle late in arriving at it.

At the present time one of the most dangerous, and least suspected Soviet Union "booby-traps" is the world-government plan of United World Federalists. The identical enemies of the American people who created the present necessity for rearming are now also promoting the world-government "booby-trap" of the United World Federalists. These enemies of the American people think this nation is made up altogether of greedy and ignorant cowards. They think that Americans are interested only in making money and that they know, or care, very little about anything else. They think that Americans will chose to lose their American heritage rather than pay the cost for protecting it, or fighting to preserve it. They can be right! As an "escape (?) from either alternative these enemies of Americans offer them the world-government "booby-trap" of United World Federalists. The plan has been exposed by persons who are qualified to pass judgment on the subject who say it is another Soviet Union "booby-trap." If the United States joins any world-government this nation will be surrendering the precious heritage of the American people without suspecting what it is doing. By joining a world-government the American people will be signing away with one stroke of the pen their independence, their freedom and their liberty. Do they know the facts?

U.N. BOOBY-TRAP NO. 1

United Nations only a booby-trap to get U.S.A. to disarm and first step to world-government

For the benefit of those Americans who are not familiar with the early history of the United Nations "booby-trap," a few words at this time in brief review of its origin are much needed. After the death of the old League of Nations, the first step to set up United Nations was taken in Moscow in 1943. The Soviet Union arranged to bring up the question of a United Nations before a conference of Foreign Ministers at that time. This in itself should have alerted the American people. It evidently did not.

Preceded by a terrific propaganda barrage from the most notorious Communist organizations, Communist agents, and Communist Front organizations in the United States, acting on behalf of the Soviet Union, the United Nations Charter was adopted at San Francisco in 1945, with Alger Hiss, who requires no introduction to the American people, one of the principal authors of the Charter, presiding as Secretary of the Conference which gave birth to this Soviet Union "booby-trap No. 1."

Notorious Communist organizations which engaged in this terrific propaganda barrage on behalf of United Nations between the time of the Moscow meeting in 1943 and the San Francisco Conference in 1945, included "Americans United for World Organization," "Americans United for World Government," "Federal Union Now," "Friends of Democracy," and numerous organizations since exposed by Congressional investigation, F.B.I. reports and other reliable sources as 100% pro-Soviet Union organizations.

Many of the other leading figures in the terrific propaganda barrage for the creation of United Nations were the favorite pupils of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard Law School. It would be a very true statement to say that every leading propagandist for the creation of United Nations was either a favorite pupil of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard Law School or directly under the influence and control of one of these favorites of Felix Frankfurter the noted Yiddish jurist now sitting in the U.S. Supreme Court.

United Nations was offered to the American people as an instrument by which world peace and the security of the nations would be assured in a disarmed world. Dollar generosity was magnified out of all proportion to its significance to world peace. United Nations was in fact the greatest of all Communist Fronts. Recent occurrences in United Nations have demonstrated that insofar as the security and defense of the United States is concerned, United Nations is just a "booby-trap," conceived and created by the Soviet Union to lure the United States to its doom and destruction.

The people of this nation are now having a bad experience with a dangerous Soviet Union "booby-trap." Soviet Union "booby-trap No. 1" is United Nations. The United Nations is the peace of the world and security for the United States in the Charter of United Nations, the United States proceeded to forthwith disarm itself. All members of the United Nations were expected to do likewise under the terms of the Charter. The future peace of the world, and the security of United Nations members, was to be guaranteed by a United Nations armed force. Lulled into a false sense of security by this Soviet Union "booby-trap" the world let down its guard. That is, all nations with a single exception. That single exception was the Soviet Union. The world woke up with a jolt to that fact.

The birth of that notion in the brain of Franklin D. Roosevelt gave birth to United Nations. The miscarriage of that conception would have been a blessing in disguise, but it was not to be. Joe Stalin "out-foxed" F.D.R. again!

United Nations was created in sin and its passing may not prove to be a great loss to humanity. If United Nations survives the incubator stage, it will be for posterity to judge whether this generation inflicted a curse or a blessing upon the countless unborn generations if they are alive to tell the tale.

The military successes in Korea are referred to constantly in the press and on the radio as accomplishments of the United Nations. The United States seems to play the role of "second fiddle" in this great military victory. It develops that 6,000 Americans gave up their lives in Korea to bring about that victory. An additional 32,000 are still missing or wounded. Judging by the fact that the contribution of the United States was more than 97% of the men, material and money expended in that victory it should be regarded more for what it actually is, a military victory by the armed forces of the United States. In view of the fact that the contributions of other members of United Nations were more in the spirit than in the deed it may be in the best interests of the people of this nation to examine the implications of further "international(?)" organizations before this country commits itself again to assume the responsibilities it assumed in the Korean affair.

U.S.S.R. "friends" here spending millions to drag U.S.A. into United World Federalist plan

The Soviet Union having failed to obtain the results it anticipated with "booby-trap No. 1," the Soviet Union is now planning "booby-trap No. 2." The United World Federalist world-government plan, stripped of all its gadgets, is nothing other than "booby-trap No. 2" for the United States. The United States will only have the vote in such a world-government set-up. If the United States is out-voted, as it was recently out-voted in United Nations Security Council, and refuses to submit to the dictation of the majority, the world government will use its armed forces to impose the will of the other nations of the world upon the people of the United States. The United States like every other member, must agree to disarm. The United States will then have no armed force with which it can offer resistance.

In the newly created world-government "family of nations" the "have-not" nations will undoubtedly get together and determine how to dispose of the wealth of their newly acquired "rich relative." The more backward nations of the world, with a far lower standard of living than exists today in the United States, are all very much in favor of a world-government plan like that proposed by United World Federalists. A United World Federalist world-government will proceed without loss of time to implement the "share-the-wealth-of-the-United States" aims and aspirations of the less fortunate (?) nations.

The United World Federalists world-government plan will unquestionably raise the average standard of living throughout the world. This will be accomplished by lowering the standard of living in the United States to the level of the average international standard of living. Experts who have studied the United World Federalist world-government plan agree that the first result accruing to the people of the United States will be the lowering of the standard of living of the American people.

The world-government plan of United World Federalists is another Soviet Union "booby-trap" by which the Soviet Union hopes to hold for time until they are in a position to dictate terms to the world. When the Soviet Union is strong enough it plans to deliver an ultimatum to the United States stating simply, "Accept our terms, OR ELSE!" According to the best information available, which many top officials regard as very reliable, the Soviet Union has set this date as some time in 1952. This date will be advanced by the Soviet Union to the extent that the United States fails to exert its maximum efforts to rearm in the intervening period.

Entry into a world-government "booby-trap" by the United States will have an impact upon the God-given rights of Americans to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" far beyond the possibility of adequate description here. Same people fight to keep out of prison, not to get into prison. It is too late to fight to keep out of prison after the doors of the prison have snapped closed.

The "peace and security" which the American people will enjoy after the United States enters a world-government can be compared to the "peace and security" which is enjoyed by the inmates of Alcatraz prison. The prisoners in well-known Alcatraz enjoy "peace and security." That is exactly the type of "peace and security" which this nation will enjoy after the United States joins the world-government proposed by United World Federalists.

James P. Warburg, nephew of the "Max Warburg who helped finance the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in 1917 is the principal influence in United World Federalists. The association of the Warburg family places at the disposal of United World Federalists the unlimited funds privately controlled by the international banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Company. It would not have been possible for the revolution in Russia in 1917 to succeed, and the Soviet Union would never have come into existence, if Kuhn, Loeb and Company had not supplied funds for the revolution.

U.S.S.R. OUTSMARTS U.S.A.

In 1945 U.S.S.R. tricked U.S.A. into disarming while U.S.S.R. built mightiest fighting machine

As is well known to all, Japan surrendered to the United States six days after the Soviet Union formally declared war against Japan, three days after the United States dropped an atom-bomb on Japan. Soviet Union troops were never actually engaged in the war against Japan. In return for this worthless gesture, the Soviet Union was able to acquire, "lock, stock and barrel", the industrial war machine developed in Manchuria by Japan over a period of the last thirty years, which the Soviet Union promptly and completely transferred onto Soviet Union territory. It is working there full blast today.

The Japanese industrial war machine supplied Japan with the best part of the military potential with which Japan was able to fight for four years against the United States, after expending the military effort required to successfully over-run the greater part of Asia.

The Soviet Union was similarly able to acquire the war-making potential of Germany, the industrial war machine which almost made it possible for Germany to defeat the entire world. The Soviet Union likewise removed into Soviet Union territory this addition to its war-making potential, "lock, stock and barrel." The German and Japanese industrial war machines had supplied the military potential for two nations with populations totalling almost two hundred million people. And in spite of what may be said to the contrary, the industrial war machine of the Soviet Union had also given a very good account of itself before outside sources of assistance became available subsequent to holding Hitler at bay before Moscow and Stalingrad.

The United States could ignore this "arsenal of aggression" if the United States had a monopoly of the atom-bomb. In lieu of that the United States must prepare an "arsenal of democracy" capable of defeating the Soviet Union "arsenal of aggression," if called upon to do so. It is embarrassing, if not degrading, to print the relative proportions of the "arsenal of democracy" and the "arsenal of aggression." An optimistic estimate places this relative proportion at between fifteen percent (15%) and twenty percent (20%). That is quite a handicap in any competitive contest. In a military contest it appears to be a staggering handicap. Without the atom-bomb monopoly the United States finds itself in a dilemma. This predicament must fill with joy the hearts of the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, who can claim all the credit for it. Who are they? Where are they? Why are they? Are they still at their work?

During this five-year lull following the creation of United Nations, the Soviet Union feverishly proceeded to secretly arm itself to the limit of its capacity, and its ability to keep the fact a secret. The eyes of the world have at last been opened to this fact very fortunately. After playing financial wet-nurse to United Nations for five years at a cost to American taxpayers of several hundred million dollars, the American nation is now called upon to pay several hundred billion dollars to obtain protection against the threat to their existence created by this very United Nations "booby-trap."

Neither the domestic nor imported variety of enemies of the American people, nor the foreign contingent, look with favor upon the continued existence of the United States as a sovereign, independent and free nation. They created United Nations as the nucleus for a world-government which was to include United States. These conspirators against the United States promised Franklin D. Roosevelt that they would make him the first man to head the first world-government. There is written evidence in existence to support this statement. The egomania of Franklin D. Roosevelt made him extremely susceptible to such "bait." Franklin D. Roosevelt swallowed this story, "hook, line and sinker." Had Franklin D. Roosevelt known that these conspirators were planning at all times to make Joseph Stalin the first head of the first world-government, there undoubtedly never would have been a United Nations.

MONOPOLY PIPE-DREAM

The atom-bomb project was loaded with U.S.S.R. spies from the very first day of its creation

That the United States ever possessed a monopoly of the atom-bomb was a big "pipe-dream." That "pipe-dream" became the basis for the policy of scraping and junking the greatest armed force in the world. Bombers, battleships, tanks, and guns headed for the U.S. junk piles under that policy. The recent discovery by the Administration of atom-bomb explosions in the Soviet Union, compels us now to reverse that policy. The United States Army, Navy, and Air Force must now be made more than a match for the Soviet Union Army, Navy, and Air Force, plane for plane, submarine for submarine, tank for tank, and gun for gun.

The false sense of security produced by this "pipe-dream" of the atom-bomb monopoly made it very easy for the friends and agents of the Soviet Union holding high positions within the government of the United States to aid the Soviet Union with its plan to acquire the enormous German and Japanese industrial war machines. The acquisition of the war-making potentials of Germany and Japan was a "must" in the Soviet Union program for world domination.

These handicaps offer a challenge to the patriotism of American labor and management. The industrial effort of the nation must provide the necessary security and defense against the present danger of imminent slaughter and defeat. These handicaps will also test the glorified genius of American mass-production. The industrial production of this nation is its first line of defense unless it is sabotaged by the underground network of counterfeit Americans, Soviet Union agents masquerading as genuine Americans. The "pipe-dream" now turns out to be a "nightmare."

BOMB U.S. WITH OWN BOMB

Yiddish Marxists in U.S.A. steal for U.S.S.R. secrets to make atom-bombs to drop on U.S.A.

The irony of the predicament in which this country now finds itself results from the fact that the atom-bombs, which will be dropped on the American people by the Soviet Union, are the miracle of American scientific supremacy, the magic of American manufacturing genius and the multi-billion development cost borne by American tax payers. It has been estimated by leading scientists familiar with the subject, that the Soviet Union could not have discovered the secret of the atom-bomb by its own efforts for another five to fifteen years. What has taken place to change that situation? The answer to that question will also answer the question of what is now threatening the survival of the United States as an independent nation of free people. Lock the stable door before the horse is stolen! There must be a better way.

The traitors who stole these secrets for the Soviet Union understood the implications of what they were doing. These traitors looked upon the development of the atom-bomb by the United States as a project of the Soviet Union and they conducted themselves accordingly. The United States never at any time enjoyed a monopoly of its secret scientific discoveries. These traitors stole, and delivered the atom-bomb secrets to the Soviet Union, without hesitation or reservation, starting as early as the first successful result in 1943. These traitors knew that the Soviet Union wished to obtain the atom-bomb secrets in order to manufacture atom-bombs to drop on the United States.

Without the monopoly of the atom-bomb, the industrial production of the nation becomes its life-line for survival. Whoever participates in the sabotage of this industrial production acts to sever the nation's life-line. It appears quite certain that the underground network of saboteurs will be directed by the same Soviet Union international Board of Directors which directed the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, in their successful campaign to sabotage the nation's atom-bomb monopoly. Who controls that Board of Directors? Yiddish Marxists control it.

U.S.S.R. NO. 1 ARMED POWER

Intelligence divisions of Defense and State Departments see fighting power ratio 4 to 1.

A "pipe-dream" existed for almost six years in the minds of the preponderant majority of Americans that the United States actually possessed a monopoly of the atom-bomb. That "pipe-dream" is directly responsible for the present vastly superior military strength of the Soviet Union in every field of military importance. That "pipe-dream" is the reason the United States scrapped, or otherwise disposed of the world's mightiest military machine, immediately following V-J Day in 1945.

On the other hand, after V-J Day in 1945 the Soviet Union not only kept its military machine intact but it added to its formidable industrial war machine the enormous war-making potentials of Germany and Japan. The "pipe-dream" of the atom-bomb monopoly induced the United States to cancel orders for war materials after V-J Day in 1945, disintegrating the nation-wide industrial machine responsible for its supreme military strength.

After V-J Day in 1945 the United States promptly switched the entire economy of the nation to peace-time civilian production. On the other hand, the Soviet Union after V-J Day in 1945 did not interrupt its war-time production of military equipment, but increased its already large production by additional labor from its 20,000,000 returned soldiers, 6,000,000 prisoners of war, and slave-labor of 15,000,000 political prisoners.

As an index of the tremendous handicap which this nation must hasten to overcome, the following illustration offers a concrete example. Of the 100,000,000 ton annual steel production in the United States, about 2% or 2,000,000 tons, have been going into the manufacture of war equipment, and of this production a substantial portion has been given away for many years to other nations. Of the 24,000,000 tons of steel produced annually in the Soviet Union, more than 45% or 10,800,000 tons, have been going into the manufacture of military equipment for the Soviet Union, according to latest surveys.

The Soviet Union also utilizes for its military program, practically the entire substantial steel production of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania, and all its satellites, including China. The Skoda Steel Works in Pilsen, Czechoslovakia, is one of the world's largest manufacturers of the most up-to-the-minute ordinance and other military equipment, without equal anywhere. The Soviet Union this week ordered the Skoda Steel Works to go on a 24-hours a day production schedule. The United States has no outside source from which it can obtain additional supplies of steel. It has also become very obvious recently that this same condition exists in the United States with respect to its stockpiles of tin, rubber, manganese, chrome, tungsten, wool and many other raw materials vitally essential for successfully conducting modern warfare. The Soviet Union is bulging with its stockpiles of these same materials.

The Soviet Union now has 4,500,000 men under arms. There are available for immediate mobilization, an additional 20,000,000 fully trained men with combat experience or the equivalent. These figures do not include China. The Soviet Union Air Force has between 40,000 and 50,000 latest type planes including the most modern long-range bombers and most effective tactical fighters to support ground forces. The Soviet Union is now manufacturing the most up-to-date planes at the rate of 40,000 to 50,000 a year. The Soviet Union has at least 350 submarines and will have 500 by 1952. These submarines are of the latest types, can travel under water at high-speed, cannot be detected with radar, can remain under water indefinitely, and are constructed to fire long-range radio-guided missiles with atom-bomb war heads. The Soviet Union has 50,000 tanks of the most modern types. United States Army ordinance experts admit that Soviet Union tanks have no equal in the world. These facts are taken from the latest figures available to the intelligence divisions of the Department of Defense and are regarded by them as reliable and accurate.

The United States thus finds itself today with reserves of military equipment which are dwarfed by comparison with the gigantic reserves of comparable military equipment accumulated by the Soviet Union during the five years since the end of World War II.

The tyranny exercised by the Soviet Union over its "workers" is the reason why duplicates of American machine-tools in the Soviet Union are turning out, around the clock, at least ten times as much as the identical machine-tools operating in Detroit, in Cleveland, or in factories anywhere in the United States. In the Soviet Union there are no labor unions to dictate to the worker limitations upon the production of machine-tools. There are no labor unions in the Soviet Union to tell the worker how little he is to produce on the machine-tool which he operates, "OR ELSE."

For the reason above stated there is no valid basis for making a comparison between the present industrial output of the Soviet Union, including the German and Japanese industrial war-machines, with the industrial output of the United States in comparable fields. There is no way to estimate the present production of the Soviet Union war-making potential. In this connection the American Federation of Labor has submitted affidavits to Washington describing the condition under which 20,000,000 political prisoners work as slave-labor battalions. The additional slave-labor of political prisoners of the Soviet Union satellites, including China, considerably increases the production potential of the Soviet Union industrial war-machine.

U.S.S.R. IMPROVES A-BOMBS

U.S.S.R. alone possesses the secret scientific atom-bomb discoveries of every atomic project

As a result of this treason, it is believed by the most competent authorities on questions relating to the atom-bomb, that up to at least July 1950, the Soviet Union was far ahead of the United States in work upon nuclear fission, the secret of exploding the atom-bomb. In addition to these stolen secrets, the Soviet Union had the benefit of work done on nuclear fission in its own country, and in other countries where Soviet Union spies had infiltrated into nuclear fission projects. Convictions in the United States, England and Canada confirm these treasonous acts.

In addition to a number of experimental atom-bomb explosions in the Soviet Union since the summer of 1949, the Soviet Union is reported to have exploded an atom-bomb of very advanced type, believed by competent authorities to have been an H-bomb, the so-called Hydrogen Bomb, which possesses a destructive power exceeding a thousand atom-bombs of the type dropped on Hiroshima. Success in this field by the Soviet Union, ahead of the United States, is the result of the theft by Soviet Union spies of the secret scientific discoveries made by the United States in connection with its own development of the H-bomb, or the so-called Hydrogen Bomb.

The Soviet Union has developed two special planes with which they hope to deliver their atom-bombs to their targets in the United States. The new PE 16 X has four jet turbine motors incorporating all the latest features to be found in the improved Rolls Royce jet turbines which England has been delivering to the Soviet Union, with complete specifications for their manufacture. The new IL 24 X is a fast bomber which carries another plane, the DFS 83 46, a rocket monoplane in which the atom-bomb is carried and delivered. The rocket monoplane separates from its mother-ship and proceeds by itself to its target. Both of these aircraft are now in production under the direction of General Savitsky in large, modern, concealed underground aircraft factories, situated between the Volga and the Urals. By the grace of American scientific discovery of atom-bomb secrets and the British specifications for manufacturing the Rolls Royce jet turbines, the Soviet Union at this moment is in a position to carry out a full-scale atom-bomb attack upon this nation. No defense against such an attack has been developed so far by any nation.

MARXISM UNION ENEMY

Marxist regimes exterminates all labor unions but labor blindly keeps up fight for Marxism

"Workers" in the United States will hardly allow themselves to be completely hypnotized by the ravings and rantings of Marxists into believing that they have no "reserve of capital," or that they are "indigents." Do the "workers" of the United States realize that Marxists plan to create a "dictatorship of the proletariat of the world." That appears to be something different from what the American "workers" are being told by Marxists!

Labor unions become the first targets of Marxists when they install a Marxist regime. Labor unions are among the first institutions to disappear when Marxists appear. To Marxists, "workers" become merely a source of labor for the "dictatorship of the proletariat." From recent happenings reported in the newspapers, "workers" in the United States are waking up to this fact. Even Walter Reuther, who with his brother took their course in Marxism in Moscow for a period of almost two years, does not look with the same relish upon the "Soviet America" to which reference is made in a letter from them which was introduced into the Congressional Record. What further light on this subject is needed to bring addition repentant sinners back into the fold? Walter Reuther and many of his friends appear willing and anxious to make this light shine brightly for "workers" to see. It is to be hoped that all the "red" lights will change to "green" lights and stay that way. It will keep traffic moving in the right direction.

As the people in the United States well know by this time, the Soviet Union dictatorship extends its tyranny into every phase of food production and distribution. Also within its territory, the Soviet Union is the only employer of labor. It has a case of "no work, no food!" The "worker" must submit unconditionally to the terms and conditions dictated to him by his "lords and masters." A "worker" who objects may enjoy the privilege of remaining at home and starving to death, unless he is shipped to a slave-labor camp for political-prisoners, or shot.

"Workers" in the United States must be alerted to the true intention of Marxists towards their groups. What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions in the savings banks? What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions put aside for a rainy day into life insurance policies? What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions invested in securities of corporations of the world's greatest industrial organization of which they are one of the most important cogs? What do the Marxists propose to do about the 10,000,000 homes of "workers" in the United States? What do the Marxists propose to do about the 6,000,000 farms of "workers" in the United States? What do the Marxists propose to do about the oil burners, electric refrigerators, washing machines, radios and television sets of the "workers" in the United States? And 38,000,000 automobiles? What about them?

Marxists have been compelled to alter their slogan in the United States from "Proletariat of the world, unite!" to "Workers of the world, unite!" Marxists do not inform "workers" in the United States that it will not be the "worker of the world" who will run the show when Marxists come into power. Marxists do not inform "workers" that it will be the "proletariat of the world" who will mount the Marxist throne to establish the "dictatorship of the world." To address a Marxist appeal to the "proletariat" in the United States, the appeal must be directed exclusively to relief-parasites, unemployment-insurance addicts, bums, tramps, hoboes, alcoholics, criminals and other similar social groups. Surely the "workers" in the United States cannot be included as an integrated segment of the "proletariat" in this or in any other nation. In the case of the United States, it would be a Marxist libel upon one of the worthiest groups which make this great nation what it is today.

PROLETARIAT A BIG IDEA

"Dictatorship of the proletariat" is not just like what it seems. It is mob-rule by massacre.

The selection of the word "proletariat" by Karl Marx was not a matter of accident. The selection of the word "proletariat" was deliberate and intentional. Karl Marx created as his slogan, "Proletariat of the world, unite!" The appeal by Karl Marx is to "Proletariat of the world."

According to definitions of the word "proletariat," in leading dictionaries, "proletariat" makes up over 80% of the world's population. According to these same definitions, the "proletariat" in the United States makes up less than 2% of this nation's total population.

In ancient Rome according to definitions in leading dictionaries, "proletariat" of the Roman Empire was "the class of the community regarded as contributing nothing to the State but off-spring." Marxists base their appeal upon the literal meaning of the word. Marxism measures the usefulness of a Marxist by off-spring he contributes to the State. That Marxist doctrine is responsible for the fact that, according to reliable actuarial calculations, the population of the Soviet Union will reach 600,000,000 by the year 2,000, only a short 49 years away. The skyrocketing line on the official birth-rate chart of the Soviet Union supports this prediction. For this reason time is a very precious ally of the Soviet Union.

As applied to modern society, according to these dictionary definitions, the "proletariat" is "the lowest class in the community." As applied to political economics, according to these dictionary definitions, the "proletariat" are "indigents," and "that class which depends upon daily labor for subsistence and has no reserve capital." In the United States less than 2% of the total population falls into these categories. The existence of this condition makes it essential that Marxists address their appeals in the United States to the 64,000,000 "workers" and not to the "proletariat." The "workers" form the largest individual social group while the "proletariat" forms the smallest individual social group.

$300,000,000,000. BIG BABY

$300,000,000,000. is a lot of money but it is the price of not being swallowed up by U.S.S.R.

Somebody must know much more than the public is being told regarding the present size of the Soviet Union atom-bomb stockpile, as well as the rate at which it is being increased !!!

Is it a puzzle why President Truman is asking Congress for $380,000,000 with which to build an underground hide-away for himself and the Executive branches of the government outside the range of an atom-bomb blitz on the City of Washington? Is it a puzzle why New York City is planning to spend $450,000,000 as its first installment of the total cost to build underground atom-bomb shelters for the protection of its 8,000,000 people? Is it a puzzle why the nation is planning to spend many additional billions to protect the population from coast-to-coast against extermination by a Soviet Union atom-bomb blitz? Is it a puzzle why billions upon billions of dollars are to be spent organizing, and maintaining, every man, woman, and child of the nation in a civilian defense army in an attempt to minimize death and destruction?

The cost to the American people in dollars, the lost labor-supply to create this expanded military force, and to keep it supplied, must be charged to the counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. It makes quite a debt!

Is it a puzzle why President Truman is spending thirty billions dollars this year for the security and defense of the nation? Is it a puzzle why the highest government spokesmen state that a minimum of thirty billion dollars will have to be spent each year for many years to come for that purpose? Recent estimates have raised that estimate to fifty billion dollars annually. Is it a puzzle why this colossal burden is being placed upon taxpayers today, and upon countless unborn future generations? There is only one truthful reply. It is because the Soviet Union has, (1) the knowledge to manufacture atom-bombs, (2) an ever-increasing stockpile of atom-bombs, and (3) the means required to deposit these atom-bombs at will anywhere upon the territory of the United States. These are the facts which compel the American people to make every sacrifice now necessary to insure security and defense for their country.

This is the realistic "Report on the State of the Union" as it exists today. Whether the American people are willing to face these "facts of life," or whether they find it more agreeable, or more profitable, to do the "ostrich act," they should not ignore this sad state of affairs. As of today, the nation stands, with one foot in the grave and with the other foot on a banana peel! The only hope for survival as an independent nation of free people is to inform Americans immediately, and completely, about the threat which at this moment spells the doom of the nation.

The intelligence of informed American public opinion will again show the wisdom of making the necessary sacrifices to preserve our liberty. The American people will gladly make the choice of paying the cost to defend their security, and if called upon to do so, will gladly choose to pay with their lives rather than to supinely surrender to the Marxist monsters in Moscow. If Americans are undecided on this question, they need only ask the people of those nations who were unwilling to make those sacrifices while they still had the opportunity. Will these people ever get a "second chance"? Only time will tell.

The American people cannot afford to take the chance that they will be able to enjoy the luxury of a "second guess." If the United States surrenders its sovereignty to the Soviet Union either as the result of a war or a "booby-trap," the world is lost, and forever! There will never be a "second chance" for the world after that event occurs! Unlike past history, there will never be a dawn on the morrow of the day after that darkness blackens the world.

Discretion still continues to be the better part of valor. It is still good practice to be safe rather than to be sorry. This nation can be safe only if (1) it adequately and promptly arms itself, and (2) organizes the manpower of the nation to resist Soviet aggression, and (3) avoids falling into a Soviet Union "booby-trap," like the world-government United World Federalist plan. "Booby-traps" must be avoided at all costs. "Booby-traps" mean surrender of sovereignty of the nation without a shot being fired by the Soviet Union. Americans surely are smart enough and brave enough to choose a better alternative than a self-inflicted surrender.

KARL MARX NOT NORMAL

Leopold Schwarzschild, in "The Red Prussian", the greatest Karl Marx biography, proves him insane

Marxism is the spirit of world-revolution to create a universal society in which mankind must submit to the acceptance of the way of life born in the brain of demented Karl Marx. Marxist organizations translate this revolutionary concept into dynamic reality by their barbaric brutality. "Communism" is but one phase of Marxism-in-action. "Bolshevism" is another phase of Marxism-in-action. "Fabianism" is a cleverly disguised phase of Marxism-in-action. "Socialism" is a well-camouflaged phase of Marxism-in-action. "Liberalism" is the sugar-coated phase of Marxism-in-action. They are the apparatus of Marxism-in-action. "Marxism-in-action" varies only in form and structure. The purpose and policy never varies. The form and structure of Marxism-in-action differ to meet the needs and requirements of local conditions.

Karl Marx was born in 1818 and died in 1883. The ancestors of Karl Marx, on both his mother's and father's side, were members of the eastern European Judaic community referred to by themselves, their historians, and known to the world, as the Yiddish people. These ancestors of Karl Marx, for countless centuries, included many of the most prominent Yiddish Talmudic Rabbis. Karl Marx was not a victim of "religious persecution." His father was wealthy and was the trusted advisor of the Count of Westphalen. The King of Prussia had granted full political rights to Judaic Prussians by the Edict of Emancipation of 1822.

Karl Marx gave the first signs of his later insanity before he reached the age of maturity. At this early age he already advocated the revolutionary ideologies which are today associated with his name. What is there in the teachings of Karl Marx which makes Marxism so dangerous to humanity? What are the implications of Marxism? What effect will be produced by the impact of Marxism upon civilization? How will Marxism affect the American heritage?

Marxism teaches the fundamental belief in world-wide "dictatorship of the proletariat" and "classless society." Marxism abolishes government by popular choice. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" does not countenance free choice by the people of the government under which they exist. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" precludes government "by the consent of the governed." Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" prohibits political equality. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" excludes the use of popular secret ballot.

OBSESSION OF A MADMAN

Only a man who never earned one cent could be lunatic enough to try to destroy civilization

Marxism demands that the "proletariat" segregate itself from all other classes to fight them." Marxism is responsible for class wars which are disrupting the peace of the world, arresting the progress of social reforms and squandering human and material resources of the world upon preparations for war. Marxism calls upon the "proletariat" to wage their fight against all other classes to the bitter end. Marxists refer to this policy as "fragmentation of the population." Marxists split nations into the greatest possible number of "fragments." The more numerous these "fragments," the more successfully Marxists can infiltrate and dominate them.

Marxism preaches and practices that "democracy is unrealistic so long as the machinery of the government and "all the means of production" are not the exclusive possession of the "proletariat." They include agricultural as well as industrial means of production as of today. Marxists tempt the "proletariat" (?) with this bait. Where the "proletariat" takes over control of the "machinery of the government" and possession of the "means of production" there never has been evidence of any trace of "realistic democracy."

The identical pattern which Marxist developments follow in widely separated areas of the world is not due to accident. They cannot be called historic phenomena. They are the result of preparations which cover a long period of time. The sad comment upon this fact is that during this period the remainder of the world was too busily engaged in making money and in providing itself with entertainment to take any interest in the fate that was being prepared for them by Marxists.

Marxists are taught that a successful revolution requires that execution of the planning must await the time when the combination of all circumstances are favorable to success. Marx said, "Revolution is an art." Marx emphasized the necessity for determining when both the preparations and the existing conditions combine to make the time ideal for the Marxist revolution. If a mistake is made, Marxists retrace their steps and try again later. The planning and the preparations are permitted to vary according to the necessities of local conditions. The aims and the purposes are never permitted any deviation or compromise.

Marxists are taught that successful revolution is only possible as the result of careful preparation. Preparations for what is taking place in the world today go back at least fifty years, and possibly longer. What is now taking place in the world is not the spontaneous expression of extemporaneous political, social, or economic discontent.

The Yiddish Marxist, high-priests lounging in luxury in Moscow and New York do not appear to be interested in creating anything resembling "realistic democracy" for the "proletariat" which exists under Marxist regimes. Neither does it appear that the Yiddish Marxist high-priests are in the least bit interested in utilizing "all the means of production" for the "general welfare" of the "proletariat." From news items and photographs which slip into the newspapers accidentally from time to time, it requires quite a stretch of the imagination to interpret them as examples of "realistic democracy."

MARX POLITICAL PERVERT

Marxism nullifies every political right which mankind won by 2000 years of bloody struggles

Marxism teaches that "government is merely the instrument of class oppression." Marxists urge the "proletariat" to seize power and to use this power to destroy the class-structure of society. Once the Marxists have reduced all classes of society to the status of "proletariat," the "proletariat" ceases to be the "proletariat." In a Marxist "classless society" there will be no classes. Class distinction will no longer exist and "classless society" will become a living reality with the complete disappearance of the middle and upper classes.

Marxist doctrine prohibits any fraternizing with the principle of constitutional government. Representative government disappears when Marxism appears, and never reappears. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" aspires to one world, one people, and one government. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" is the closest

Marxism comes to "government of the people, for the people, and by the people."

Of equal importance with the Marxist doctrine "dictatorship of the proletariat" is the Marxist "classless society" dogma. Marxists preach and practice that a "classless society" must be the ultimate aim of "dictatorship of the proletariat." Marxism teaches that the "proletariat" must crush out the opposition of all other social classes by destroying them. Marxists are instructed how to obliterate the political, social and economic systems of the defeated regime to aid in the extermination of all other social classes. Marxism teaches that "revolution is war." Only the methods of warfare should be adopted in waging war upon other social classes. War must be waged until all other social classes surrender unconditionally on terms dictated by the "proletariat." The Marxist version of "unconditional surrender." God help us!

Trotsky, a leading apostle of Marxism, stated, "THE ENEMY MUST BE MADE HARMLESS AND THIS MEANS HE MUST BE DESTROYED." Trotsky proved how well he had learned this lesson at his first opportunity. Trotsky was at the head of the revolutionary forces in Russia in 1917 when they massacred between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000 middle and upper class Russians for no other reason than they were not members of the "proletariat." Marxists follow the policy employed in Russia by Trotsky wherever Marxist regimes are established.

Marxism teaches that "dictatorship of the proletariat" in a "classless society" is their ultimate goal and Marxists must not hesitate to use any means to accomplish it. No form of bestiality, brutality or barbarism is to be overlooked if it will hasten the realization of Marxist ambitions. Marx cautioned his followers against hesitation, weakness, pity, or any compromise with Marxist fundamental tactics or strategy. Marx taught his followers that human considerations must play no part in dealing with their enemies. Marx stressed that display of human qualities encourages opposition and invites resistance.

Marx taught his followers that only violence could win their revolution and that only "dictatorship of the proletariat" could guaranty its permanence. Any means to this end was justified. Marx impressed his disciples, because the "dictatorship of the proletariat" was the trustee of the world-revolution which was to be the fulfillment of the mission to which the "proletariat" was historically called.

MARXISTS KILL REFORMS

Marxists only pay lip-service to reforms but sabotage them and fight them if they succeed

Marx instructed his followers to join reform movements and become active members of organizations dedicated to reform. Marx ordered his followers to join these organizations and enter upon this work with the determination to use every effort to make these reform movements fail. Marx instructed his followers that if reform movements succeed in spite of Marxist sabotage that Marxists were to withdraw from them and fight them. Marx could not afford to have reform movements succeed and improve the living conditions of the "proletariat." Conditions which existed among the "proletariat" in European countries were assets of infinite value to Marx as basic to the success of world-revolution. Marx demanded that his followers sabotage social reforms and social progress. Social reforms and social progress deprived Marxists of the inflammatory propaganda necessary to incite world-revolution.

Marx prohibited adoption of any of the institutions most sought after by western Europe under threat of the most severe penalties. For centuries the western European nations had been striving for personal freedom, government by law, control of the Executive by the Judiciary, government by secret popular ballot, and government by the consent of the governed. Marx branded such beliefs as heresies.

MARX SOCIAL DEGENERATE

Marxism destroys the middle and upper classes reducing society to level of the lowest class

Marx regarded religion as "an instrument of capital." Marx taught that religion served no purpose other than an opiate with which to drug "proletariat." Marx concentrated his initial efforts to destroy influence of religion wherever it existed. Marxists make Christianity their Enemy No. 1 wherever they exert influence or authority. Marxists are aware that as long as Christianity survives Marxism cannot fulfill its "historic mission." Marxists are instructed that they must erase Christianity from the face of the earth as quickly as possible. Marxism cannot survive in a climate where Christianity flourishes. Marxists advocate acts of sacrilege against all domains sacred to Christianity as strategy essential to the success of Marxism.

Marx attributed no value at all to the claim of the individual to personal freedom and personal liberties. Marx would not recognize any right of a human being to equal political suffrage. Marx taught that violence against humanity was sanctified by the uses to which Marx asked his followers to put it. Marx relied for the success of world revolution upon his belief that if a human being is exposed to prolonged violence for a sufficiently long period that brutality will give birth to acceptance of the most repugnant principles. Marx preached "fraternity is the outcome of violence."

The totalitarian tyranny of Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" has never been paralleled in all the recorded history of mankind. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" seeks to repeal the God-given right of the individual to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" translates into dynamic reality the doctrine that the individual is created for the benefit of the government, not that the government is created for the benefit of the people.

Marxists use words to conceal their ideas and not to express them. Marxists use words like "liberation," "aggression," "democracy," "Peoples Democracy," "Peoples Republic," and other similar words in the extreme opposite sense of these words. Marxists use such words to complete contradiction to their generally accepted definitions. Marxist world-wide propaganda machines have been blasting the United States for its "aggression" in Korea. Marxist world-wide propaganda machines refer to the "liberation" of nations which Marxists have literally enslaved. "Peoples Democracies" and "Peoples Republics" neither are governments in which the "People" have anything at all to say nor are they "Democracies" or "Republics" even by the wildest stretch of the imagination based upon the most liberal definition of these words.

"HISTORIC MISSION" MYTH

Marxist obsession calls it "historic mission" to incite a "proletariat" world-revolution

Marxists are instructed that unrelenting class-warfare is the only means by which the "proletariat" can expect to fulfill their "historic mission" of world-revolution. Marxism lays down as fundamental the acceptance of the principle that it is the "historic mission" of Marxists to keep up this fight until they have totally destroyed social systems based upon political equality and free enterprise.

To Marxists, Marxism is more than just another political, social or economic philosophy. To its followers, Marxism is a cult, a creed, a religion! Marxism signifies the acceptance of the teachings of Karl Marx as the pattern upon which humanity must forevermore conform its existence. Marxists believe that it is their "historic mission" to impose Marxism upon all mankind. Marxism advocates the use of force and violence to accomplish its aims. Marxism plans a world revolution to hasten the realization of its "historic mission" at an early date.

Yiddish Marxists can truthfully make the claim that they are the creators of the communist (Marxist) world-revolution. In 1883 a small number of Yiddish persons established the first Marxist organization in Russia. After the death of Karl Marx several of his disciples joined forces to translate into action the political, social and economic philosophies advocated by him during his lifetime. The Marxist world-revolution was called "Bolshevism" when it was first organized. The Encyclopedia Britannica is one of the great sources of reference for historic facts. Under the title "Bolshevism" the Encyclopedia Britannica states as follows:

"The effective origin of Bolshevism may be traced back to the foundation, in 1883, to the GROUP FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF LABOR, by Plekhanov and Axelrod. The latter, deeply influenced by the doctrines of Marx . . . makes it legitimate to regard it as the first Marxist organization in Russia."

Marxism did not make the rapid progress which its followers had anticipated. The Yiddish

Marxists withdrew. They formed their separate Marxist organization. The Yiddish Marxist organization formed at that time became the ruling body of all Marxist organizations which have been since formed all over the world. On this point the Encyclopedia Britannica has the following to say:

"In 1897 was founded the BUND, the union of Jewish workers in Poland and Lithuania . . . They engaged in revolutionary activity on a large scale and their energy made them the spearhead of the party."

The Yiddish Marxists who had withdrawn from the GROUP FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF LABOR to form the BUND proceeded to organize the BOLSHEVIST PARTY to take a more active part in Russian politics. The Encyclopedia Britannica summarizes the importance of the BOLSHEVIST PARTY in Russian politics with these few but significant words,

"The history of the Bolshevik party after the first revolution of 1917 is the history of Russia itself."

Marxism demands that national, social, racial and spiritual loyalties be subordinated to allegiance to the highest Marxist authority. The world is being conditioned to think in these terms. In the United States the people are already being asked to fly only the flag of United Nations on a certain day in October. They are asked not to fly the flag of the United States on that day. The number of days when this will be required will be gradually increased until the American Flag becomes an emblem of secondary importance to the American people. Other Marxist grapple propaganda is working to attain unrestricted immigration, removal of all protective tariffs, an international currency to replace the dollar, the removal of citizens for trial in foreign countries under the Genocide Pact, the limitation upon domestic industrial production under International Trade Organization restriction, and the destruction of the basic American institutions which have made the United States the great nation it is today.

ENDS PROPERTY RIGHTS

Marxism denies the right of individuals to own property which all passes to the "proletariat"

Marxism lays down the inflexible rule that "all the means of production" must become the property of the "dictatorship of the proletariat." This Marxist principle is unconditional. Marxists permit no compromise with this dogma. Private ownership of property ceases. Marx taught his followers that they may be required to use force to maintain this status because the minds and hearts of men could not easily be won over to such a revolutionary status or be changed quickly to accept it permanently, or peaceably accustomed to this new state of affairs. Marxists are urged to resort to terrorism when imposing this new economic order upon their victims to discourage any desires or attempts to revert to the former political, social, and economic status.

Terrorism is employed by Marxists to destroy hope for a return to normalcy. The extent of the horrors which populations have experienced are well known to those who are in direct contact with Marxist regimes. These facts are seldom, if ever, given prominence in the press or over the radio. The confiscation of property by Marxists could not be more brutal if it were carried out by the most primitive barbarians. In the days of Hitler it was different. When the Nazis committed acts which fade into insignificance when compared to Marxist strategy the newspapers carried big headlines and radio commentators screamed the news over the radio networks. The motion picture industry turned out millions of feet of film exaggerating this situation. But today there appears to be a conspiracy of silence regarding the confiscation of property by Marxist regimes.

"Dictatorship of the proletariat" prohibits all elements in society except the "proletariat" from any voice in the government. Every class except the "proletariat" is deliberately excluded from participation in government matters. Formal democratic government by secret popular ballot is replaced by administration of the communities by councils. These councils are called Soviets and are composed of the poorest laborers, farm workers and soldiers. The system of Soviets, or the system of administration by councils, is the only form of government in the Soviet Union. It exists from the Politburo at the highest level of government down to the councils which administer the smallest form-collectives. Marxists do not believe that any man is worthy enough to govern other men. Therefore Marxists base their government machinery upon the principle of administration of communities by councils and not upon government by individuals.

The first official acts of a Marxist regime constitute the confiscation of every industrial enterprise, all the banks, all means of transportation and communication, and all land holdings. Marxists immediately nationalize wholesale commerce and promptly make all foreign trade the monopoly of the Marxist regime. Marxist regimes take immediate and complete control of all the means for influencing public opinion, including newspapers, publishing houses, motion picture industries and radio broadcasting. Education must be controlled by the "proletariat." In New York City recently eight school teachers were removed by the Board of Education. The trial of the first of the eight is taking place. To date it has been proven that he was the head of a Communist group in New York City for almost twenty years while teaching school at the same time.

Marxism also lays great emphasis upon the necessity to attract intellectual technicians as associates. These groups are trained as directors for sabotage activity when Marxists strike. Almost every day newspapers in the United States feature news items relating to removal of instructors from institutions of higher learning because they are members of Marxist (Communist) groups. Several have confessed, and several have been convicted of playing important parts in the theft of atom-bomb scientific secret discoveries. In countries engaged in atom-bomb development Marxists (Communists) have held the highest positions and were proven to be Soviet Union spies.

Greatest danger arises from the fact that the Yiddish Marxists disguise themselves as "Jews."

Marx conceived the revolution he was organizing as a world revolution. Marx wanted the revolution in each country to be fashioned according to the same pattern. In keeping with this policy Marx believed it was basic to the ultimate success of world-revolution to establish a political party with branches in every country of the world. This world-wide network of political parties was to be rigorously directed from the headquarters of the central political party, and the world-wide network of branch political parties were to be sternly disciplined by the central headquarters. The world-wide network today of Communist Parties is the implementation of this basic Marxist doctrine considered by Marx so essential for the success of world-revolution. The headquarters of the central Communist Party is in Moscow. The Communist Party in the United States is a branch of the headquarters in Moscow.

Antagonism to Marxist regimes by the more prosperous "proletariat" classes is sternly repressed by organizing the poorer "proletariat" classes to do it. This method is employed by Marxists with equally successfully results in agricultural areas as well as in urban centers. The principle of class-struggle is not overlooked by Marxists at any level in the social structure.

Marx taught his disciples, and Marxists today follow the principle that the most rapid, efficient and permanent results in abolishing the class structure of society are obtained by destroying all except the "proletariat" class. The destruction of all other social classes is the only method which satisfies all the conditions of Marxism.

SYNTHETIC "MINORITIES"

"Minority" discontent is a synthetic product manufactured and marketed by Yiddish Marxists

All Yiddish people are not Marxists (communists). All communists (Marxists) are not Yiddish. If that were the case it would oversimplify the situation. Yiddish Marxists realized from the very beginning that the success of the Marxist world-revolution demanded support by the masses. To obtain this support Yiddish Marxists offer communism (Marxism) to racial, religious, social, economic, and national "minorities" as the solution for their respective problems. Communism (Marxism) is offered to "minorities" as the only remedy which can correct the conditions which produce their dissatisfaction and discontent. These "minorities" have never actually had a genuine interest in the Marxist world-revolution. They have never known what Marxism actually means. These "minorities" seek to obtain from society correction of the conditions which they allege should not be allowed to exist. That is their primary interest in Marxism.

Each "minority" is primarily interested in its own problems. Yiddish Marxists offer a Utopia to each of these "minorities." Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines work overtime to inflate the dissatisfaction and discontent of "minorities" out of all proportions to the importance which they justify upon their intrinsic merits. Many "minorities" are today valuable allies of Communist Parties because their extremist leaders have accepted the leadership of Yiddish Marxists. Based upon this fact it is estimated that Marxists can count upon effective support from "minorities" representing about 40% of the total population of the United States. J. Edgar Hoover has stated that there are only about 50,000 "card-carrying" members of the Communist Party in the United States with an additional 500,000 who are active sympathizers. The fallacy of this reasoning would require every good Christian to be a "card-carrying" Christian to be considered a Christian. How unrealistic!!!

Marx instructed his disciples that to make progress with the world-revolution advantage must be taken of racial, religious, social, economic, and national discontent wherever they exist. Marx taught that if they did not exist they must be created. Marx emphasized that a nation must be conditioned for world revolution by "fragmenting" the population into its racial, religious, social, economic and national "minorities." Marxists were instructed how to create ill-will among these "minorities" not alone towards each other but towards their government as well. Marx called for propaganda in this respect of the greatest intensity and always recommended that propaganda of this nature be employed to create or to intensify class-warfare to the Maximum.

Marx cautioned that propaganda concerning class conflict between "minorities" must never seek to solve their problems. Marxists must utilize every opportunity to intensify and aggravate class-warfare. In the United States today "class-warfare" amongst "minorities" is conditioning this nation for a successful Marxist revolution. The tensions between racial, religious, social, economic and national "minorities" which appear every day in the newspapers is the result of organized effort by Marxist propaganda machines and Marxist agents secretly placed amongst these groups. These tensions did not exist in this country on a scale sufficient to worry about until greatly inflated by Marxists since their arrival in the United States in large numbers during the last fifty years.

Yiddish Marxists appeal to the Negro "minority" through leaders like Paul Robeson. Yiddish Marxists appealed to other "minorities" through their extremist leaders like William Z. Foster, Earl Browder, Harry Bridges, Alger Hiss, Walter Reuther, Victor Reuther, Louis Budenz, Whitaker Chambers and other extremists in labor, educational, farming, religious and government groups. It is very apparent that the communist (Marxist) movement is not confined exclusively to persons who profess Judaism as their religious belief. Yiddish Marxists are composed exclusively of members of that religious belief. The conversion of the Christian masses to Marxism was basic to its success and made it necessary for Yiddish Marxists to secure the active participation in the Marxist world-revolution of Christian "minorities" throughout the world.

Yiddish Marxists in the United States have been rewarded with success far beyond the most optimistic expectations of the Yiddish Marxist General Staff in Moscow. The Democratic Party and the Republican Party have been compelled to advocate "reforms(?)" previously found only in the platforms of Communist Parties. The Democratic Party and the Republican Party are attempting to retard the stampede of "minorities" into the Communist Party and into organizations with high-sounding names which are actively promoting Marxist world-revolution. The Democratic and Republican party leaders have not shown the intelligence to expose to these "minorities" the fact that the promises being held out to these "minorities" were held out to their comparable "minorities" in countries now under Marxist regimes and that these "minorities" are now in far worse condition than they were before they listened to Marxist propaganda.

UNTRUTHS AS TRUTHS

Untruths regarding the relationship of the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution to Judaism

Maximism is the root of the big troubles which are today torturing the American people. The political, social and economic disturbances which are upsetting the nation, and the world, are synthetic. The discontent and disorders throughout the world are the synthetic products of Marxist research laboratories and their mass production factories for Marxist propaganda. Marxists clandestinely pour their poison-propaganda into the political, social and economic systems of the world to make peace, progress and prosperity impossible.

Marxists infect the mentality of the fools and knaves who listen to their ideologies with the product of the diseased mentality of Karl Marx. Marxism thrives upon the ignorance and greed of their intended victims. Marxism acts like a malignant disease. Marxism acts to destroy the decent things in life which make living worthwhile. Whenever Marxism appears, the Brotherhood of Man and the Fatherhood of God disappear. They perish in the climate of Marxism.

Marxism is the mother-father of the isms which now threaten our form of civilization with extinction. Marxism is the sow, its isms are the suckling pigs. Marxism provides the mother's milk upon which these isms nurse. Marxism pumps the breath of life into its off-spring isms. Without the oxygen which Marxism supplies, these isms would soon perish and disappear from the face of the earth.

The brood of Marxism includes, "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism" and the other less vocal but more subtle isms. Marxism wears all these disguises to camouflage itself. Marxism is the hub of the wheel. Around it "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism" and the other "isms" are the spokes of the Marxist wheel. Without the hub there would be no wheel. Marxism bears exactly the same relation to "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism," and its other "isms," that Christianity bears to Catholicism and the denominations of Protestantism. Marxism is the fountainhead of propaganda for the missionary effort of organizations dedicated to the conversion of the world to Marxism by the use of lies and deception. It is quite different in that respect from the missionary efforts of Christianity which accepts the teachings of Jesus Christ as the source of its inspiration for the conversion of the world to Christianity through love and charity.

The American people have never understood this situation correctly owing to the effectiveness of the high powered Marxist propaganda machines. The public has never understood that "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," and "Liberalism" are now masquerading under titles which disguise and deceive the American people. In order to secure followers amongst political, social and economic groups at all levels, Marxists established organizations with a variety of complexions extensive enough to suit the temperament and the taste of men, women, and children in all walks of life.

The advance-guard of "dictatorship of the proletariat" has already introduced into the United States effective propaganda which has the ultimate object of eliminating class distinction in this country. Marxist friends and Marxist propaganda machines employ many alibis to skillfully conceal their true intentions. The minds of the American people are being conditioned by ceaseless repetition of words like, "democracy," "welfare," "relief," "tolerance," "equality," "reform," "humanitarian," and similar expressions in print and over the air. The legitimate activities of organizations engaged in these noble activities provide the smoke-screen behind which Marxists wage their subversive aggression against society.

Marxist organizations have innocent-looking, sweet-sounding titles. For the dyed-in-the-wool Marxist there is always the official Communist Party. For the glib, unsuspecting, do-gooders there are organizations like United World Federalists to intrigue incipient Marxists. Their number is legion. Collectively they make up the Marxist apparatus in the United States. The House Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States Congress, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) of the Department of Justice, and exposures by patriot, columnist, and radio commentators confirm the existence of this huge and complex Marxist apparatus.

YIDDISH MARXISTS PLOT U.S.A. DEFEAT BY U.S.S.R.

RULES FOR REVOLUTION

Experience with revolutions for 100 years in European countries developed Marxist rules

Marxism recognizes five basic rules for the creation of Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and the Marxist "classless society." A study of these five rules reveals that Marxist have already made progress in creating in the United States conditions conducive to success when they decide that the time has arrived to commence their revolution in this country.

Firstly, Marxists believe that revolution must never be played with and that once it has been started the revolution must be carried out to the bitter end. Marxists adopt the policy of taking as many years as necessary to make adequate preparations. Once started the revolution must not halt in its forward march for any reason which proper preparation can prevent. During the period of preparation Marxists infiltrate into strategic positions at the highest levels in the political, social, and economic structures of intended victims.

Secondly, Marxists instruct their followers that when the time for the revolution has been decided upon, Marxists must gather at selected places forces which outnumber their enemies. This is the blitz strategy of modern warfare applied to revolutions. Marxists have successfully used this strategy. Marxists have developed blitz tactics to a fine art. To make Marxist blitz strategy more effective, Marxists neutralize potential resistance and opposition by obtaining control, in advance of the revolution, of labor unions, farmers' organizations, student groups and the other large segments of the organized manpower of a nation. Possible resistance or opposition by government interference is neutralized by Marxist penetration into strategic positions at the highest levels in departments of the government dealing with defense, food, communications, transportation, and power production.

Thirdly, Marxists are instructed that the offensive is fundamental to success. It is impressed upon Marxists that "the defensive is death to the insurrection." Terrorism of all forms is employed to reduce resistance and opposition to the absolute minimum. The history of Marxist regimes has been written with the blood of the classes which have resisted them. Once the revolution is started Marxists keep the offensive. Adequate advance preparation overwhelms opposition and discourages counter-revolution.

Fourthly, Marxists are taught that the element of surprise is essential for success of the Marxist revolution. Marxists are taught to start their revolution when it is least expected. Marxists are taught to choose as the moment for the revolution a time when the forces of the government are scattered. The success of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia in 1917 illustrates this point. In 1917 it was possible for 60,000 Marxists in Russia to take over a country of 150,000,000 population covering a territory of about 9,000,000 sq. miles. This can be repeated in the United States when the armed forces of the nation become scattered over Europe and Asia.

Fifthly, Marxists are taught the necessity of powerful propaganda to keep the masses on the Marxist side. Announcement of daily, even hourly successes, has a great effect in depressing enemies and discouraging resistance. Masses have the tendency to jump on the band-wagon of the winning side in revolutions. In the United States Marxists and their friends dominate newspapers, radio networks and other channels for coaxing public thinking. Marxists dominate the labor unions which prepare the final material prior to insertion in newspapers and prior to broadcasting over radio networks. This serious state of affairs was exposed very recently and is accepted as authentic by responsible authorities.

Above all else, Marxists are instructed that supreme success is not possible without audacity. Before, during, and after Marxist regimes are established Marxists never fail to exhibit this basic Marxist characteristic. Marxists never lose an opportunity to display this major Marxist weapon. Marxists exhibit their audacity daily in United Nations. The statements of Marxists in United Nations shock the American public. With brazen audacity Marxists accuse their victims of the very crimes of which they are themselves the guilty parties. Marxist audacity is based upon the theory that the bigger the lie that is told and the more often it is repeated, the more certain that the world will accept these lies as truths. The "big lie" propaganda trick made famous by Hitler was borrowed by Hitler from the Marxists.

WORD IS NOT COMMUNISM

Marxists stole "communism" from the Communist Societies, religious cooperative enterprises

"Communism" is a word greatly misunderstood by the American people. "Communism" is the word chosen by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines to camouflage their control of the Marxist world-revolution. "Communism" is a word borrowed by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines from the early English and American religious groups who organized themselves into large cooperative settlements by which they hoped to develop substantial enterprises of many kinds to accumulate wealth for their members. In the outstanding authentic work on this subject, "The Communist Societies of the United States," written by Charles Nordhoff in 1875, the author reveals the number and the nature of the large and substantial "Communist Societies" in the United States at that time.

The selection of "Communism" as a name for one phase of the Marxist world-revolution was to disguise its true character. Marxists wished to capitalize upon the high esteem in which "Communist Societies" were regarded at that time. The "Communist Societies" which existed long before Marxism, and the "Communist Parties" of today have no more in common than Heaven and Hell. They are as opposite as the North and the South Poles. The use today of the word "Communism" to describe Yiddish Marxist revolutionary activities is one of the greatest frauds ever perpetrated upon an unsuspecting public in the history of the world.

Every communist is a Marxist. Every Marxist is a communist. The only difference between a communist and a Marxist is in the spelling. Everywhere in the world today Communist Parties are the branches of the Soviet Union Communist Party. The Soviet Union Communist Party and the Communist Parties everywhere in the world are the brain-children of Yiddish Marxists. Communist Parties are all of recent vintage. The Soviet Union Communist Party was organized by the Bolsheviks in Russia after the successful Yiddish Marxist revolution there in 1917. It was created to be used by Yiddish Marxists in Russia to impose Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society" upon the Russian people who survived the Bolshevik massacre of 25,000,000 middle and upper class Russians. The Soviet Union Communist Party until recent years had less than 2,000,000 members out of a 200,000,000 population. In recent years it has been estimated that there are 6,000,000 members as a maximum, in the Soviet Union Communist Party.

CHRISTIANS DECEIVED

Christians give preferences, privileges and priorities to Yiddish Marxists as "Jews"

Yiddish Marxists have always made it a practice to identify themselves to the Christian world as "Jews". Yiddish Marxists have also made it a practice to identify themselves to the Christian world as part of a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists have resorted to this strategy for reasons explained elsewhere in this issue. Yiddish Marxists have even gone so far as to brag that their accomplishments are "Jewish" accomplishments. For Yiddish Marxists to label their revolution in Russia in 1917 a "Jewish" accomplishment is the equivalent of Hitler and Mussolini calling their recent political adventures "Christian" projects. If Hitler had called upon all Protestants and Mussolini had called upon all Catholics of the world to support their political adventures, and had they received it, they might have succeeded. The Christians of other nations would have felt certain that Hitler and Mussolini were crazy to ask support from them as members of a "Christian race."

Yiddish Marxists have succeeded where Hitler and Mussolini failed. Yiddish Marxists have been able to make the Christian world believe that Yiddish Marxists speak for a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists have convinced Christians that persons of all nationalities and of all races who profess Judaism as their religious belief are members of a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines have been able to make Christians accept as the truth the falsity that every "Jew" is a member of a "Jewish race." Christians do not believe a "Jew" is a "Jew" in the same sense they believe a "Christian" a "Christian" or a "Moslem" a

"Moslem." A human being can only be a "Jew," "Christian" or "Moslem" in the sense that they are members of the religious groups associated with Judaism, Christianity or Islam. The invention of the word "Jew" in the 17th Century is responsible for quite a little confusion. The interpretation placed upon the word by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines is completely incorrect and very misleading.

What Yiddish Marxists are seeking to accomplish is very evident. They want Christians to regard the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution as a project of the "Jewish race" or "Jews." Yiddish Marxists want uninformed Christians to give undue credit to "Jews" for the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution. Yiddish Marxists have made all persons who profess Judaism as their religious belief their captives. Yiddish Marxists want Christians to hold "Jews" responsible for their world-revolution project. This incorrect understanding of the situation by Christians drives into the ranks of Yiddish Marxists many persons who simply profess Judaism as their religious belief. The appeal by Yiddish Marxists to their co-religionists for mutual-defense against Christians adds great strength to the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution. Persons who profess Judaism as their form for the worship of God are not any more responsible for the world-revolution of their co-religionists than non-German Protestants of the world are responsible for the political acts of Hitler's Nazis or the non-Italian Catholics of the world are responsible for the political acts of Mussolini's Fascists.

As an illustration of the extent to which Yiddish Marxists have gone to identify the Marxist world-revolution as the work of "Jews," and a "Jewish" accomplishment, it is only necessary to refer to The American Hebrew of September 20, 1920. This old, and respected publication passed into the control of Yiddish Marxists in recent years and they have used it as an important part of their propaganda machine. In the issue of September 20, 1920 of The American Hebrew, the following appears with reference to the Yiddish Marxist revolution in Russia in 1917 which was hitting on all eight cylinders at that time:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also through the same mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

It is not clear what Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish brains." Do they mean the brains of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid Khazars who were their ancestors? What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish dissatisfaction." Do they mean the irritation caused by resistance of Christian populations to their campaign for world domination? What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish planning"? Do they mean the program of Yiddish Marxists for sweeping out the established institutions of civilized society and replacing them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society"? It requires quite a stretch of the imagination to associate these three facts with the Semites who inhabited the Near East 2000 years before the birth of the Marxist world-revolution.

Yiddish Marxists used the labels "Jew" and "Jewish" long before the article quoted from The American Hebrew. As an illustration of how far back Yiddish Marxists used the labels "Jew" and "Jewish" for Yiddish Marxist world-revolution it is only necessary to refer to the November 1905 issue of The Maccabean. The Yiddish Marxist propaganda machine acquired control of this old and respected publication in 1905, and under the title "A Jewish Revolution" the following quotation refers to the aborted Yiddish Marxist revolution in Russia in 1905. The quotation reads as follows:

"The Revolution in Russia was a Jewish revolution because the Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's Empire."

Similar quotations indicate the world-wide extent of the efforts made by the Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines to identify the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution as "Jewish." In England, in The Jewish Chronicle, April 4th, 1919, the following appeared:

itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks . . .

Again in the leading French publication dedicated to promoting the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution, The Jewish People (Peuple Juif), the following appeared:

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands."

CONFUSING CHRISTIANS

Yiddish, like Irish, infers national background Jewish, like Catholic, implies religious belief

Yiddish Marxists have always tried to conceal from Christians the origin and intent of the Marxist world-revolution by using "Jew" and "Jewish" as labels on the wide variety of their miscellaneous activities. The label "Jew" or "Jewish" obtains for Yiddish Marxists a certain immunity from Christians. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines grind out at high speed untruths, half-truths, distortion of fact, and inaccuracies implying that Jesus Christ was a "Jew," that the Holy Family were "Jews," and that the apostles were "Jews." Yiddish Marxists know that these facts as they present them are not supported by history or theology. They should stop it!

Yiddish Marxists know Christian prayer and hymn books are filled with references which glorify the so-called "Jews" of Bible history as God's "Chosen People." The modern Christian version of Bible history cloaks "Jews" with this mantle of Divine protection which God evidently did not extend to Christians. "Jews" are depicted as God's "Chosen People" in modern Christian versions of Bible history and Christians are expected to extend to "Jews" privileges, preferences, and priorities to be reserved by Christians exclusively for "Jews." Yiddish Marxists seek to identify themselves in the eyes of Christians as "Jews" in order to qualify themselves for the sufrage and immunities which Christians would not otherwise extend to them.

NEVER A JEWISH RACE

Nations of all races contributed converts to Judaism 2000 years before Yiddish conversion

The most far-reaching deception ever inflicted upon an unsuspecting world is the belief held by Christians that there is a "Jewish race." Historic and scientific facts reveal the complete falsity of that untruth. In recent times Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines have expended infinite effort to exploit this hoax upon Christians. Within the lifetime of the present generation Yiddish Marxists have exerted super-human effort to influence Christians to look upon all "Jews" as members of a "Jewish race." Above everything else it seems that Yiddish Marxists want Christians to regard all "Jews" as members of a "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists feel they are able to demand from Christians, and they do obtain, privileges, preferences, and priorities which Christians feel they must show to those of the "Jewish race" as God's "Chosen people." The sooner Christians understand the truth about this misrepresentation the sooner will they be able to protect themselves against the consequences of their lack of knowledge on this subject.

There is not, there never was, and there never can be a "Jewish race." Likewise, there is not, there never was and there never can be a "Christian race." The same applies to a "Moslem race." There are three major monotheistic religions in the world, Christianity, Judaism, Islam (Mohammedism). Religious beliefs do not determine racial origin. Religious belief is voluntary acceptance by an individual of an established spiritual philosophy. Religious belief can be changed for a different religious belief as easily as a garment can be changed. Race is determined by ancestry. Race is ethnic origin. Race is anthropological fact. Race is determined before man enters the world. Race can never be changed. Belief in the existence of a so-called "Jewish race" does not flatter the enlightenment of Americans on this subject. Yiddish Marxists get many a good belly-laugh from the fact that Christianity regards Yiddish Marxists as "Jews" and as members of a "Jewish race."

The Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the former Judaized Khazars, never at any time in their history had an association with the territory or with the Semite nations mentioned in Bible history. The Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the ancestors of the Yiddish people, never had a racial connection with the Semites who inhabited the Near East Bible areas in pre-historic ages. History supports the fact that Semites from the Near East area never immigrated to Eastern Europe nor into the heart of Asia. Ancestors of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the former Judaized Khazars, never set a foot in the Near East area inhabited by the Semites in Bible history. No historic or scientific basis exists by which the Yiddish population of eastern European countries can claim a historic connection with the Holy Land area or a racial connection with the peoples who occupied that area in Bible history periods.

JEHOVAH & JUDAISM

Judaic monotheism was acquired from same source that Christianity and Islam acquired monotheism

The formal religious worship referred to in modern times as Judaism has its origin in the ancient temple-worship of Yaweh. Jehovah is the Anglicized modern name given to Yaweh. Yaweh was the first conception of an all-powerful, invisible Deity who ruled over all the physical Gods. The belief in Yaweh (Jehovah) is the nucleus of all monotheism. Judaism, Christianity and Islam are all based upon this monotheism.

Documentary proof exists that Yaweh (Jehovah) was a monotheistic deity worshipped by the nineteen Semite nations extending from Persia to Egypt. About 1490 B.C. the Egyptian Semite, Moses, was exiled by the conquerors of Egypt for his political agitation on behalf of other Semites. Moses dwelt in exile for many years amongst the Kennites, a Semite nation living in the Sinai desert at the foot of a large mountain. While living in exile amongst the Kennites Moses learned about Yaweh (Jehovah) from them.

The Kennites had developed their worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) into a highly-organized, formal religion many years before Moses came to live with them. Moses abandoned his pagan beliefs and was converted to the worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). Moses married the daughter of an Arab Kennite priest of the Yaweh-Jehovah cult.

His new religious belief prompted Moses to return to Egypt and ask the rulers of Egypt for permission to take out of Egypt with him the Semites who dwelt in Egypt. The Egyptians had retaken their ancient land. The rulers of Egypt treated the Semites in the manner customary at that time for victors to treat the vanquished. As related in the Old Testament, the new rulers of Egypt regarded the Semite population as a potential "fifth column" and were happy for security reasons to grant Moses the permission he requested.

Moses transplanted this large Semite population from Egypt into the Sinai desert in the area inhabited by the Kennites. (This historic event was recently duplicated in Europe when 10,000,000 Germans in that area of eastern Germany annexed by Poland after World War II were transplanted into Western Germany by Poland for security reasons.) Moses attempted to convert the desert-dwelling, pagan Egyptian exiles from idolatry to the worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). Moses died in the attempt at the age of 94 without having succeeded in doing it.

FIRST JUDAIC CONVERTS

No more possible for a "Jewish race" to have existed than "Christian race" or "Moslem race"

In the period between Joshua's invasion of Canaan about 1400 B.C. and the Birth of Christ, the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) was carried over the trans-continental caravan routes into many distant lands by missionaries of the Yaweh (Jehovah) priesthood. The outstanding world's classic on this subject is "The Lost Tribes a Myth, Suggestions Towards Rewriting Hebrew History," by the immortal Allen H. Godbey, Professor in Old Testament in Duke University, (published 1930, Duke University Press, Durham, North Carolina, U.S.A.) That volume supplies incontestable evidence with facts, maps, and photographs which prove to the most skeptical that the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) became the religious belief of large numbers of the native populations of India, Ethiopia, Morocco and all the North African nations, Portugal, Spain, Italy, France, Germany and England almost two thousand years before the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism.

The converts to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) in all these countries included every race known to have existed in these areas. The converts to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) were populations native to these countries. After their conversion they retained their native languages, their native customs, and their native cultures. While all this was taking place the pagan Khazar tribal-nation was still deep in the heart of Asia, thousands of miles removed from this development. The conversion of the Khazars to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) occurred almost 2000 years later.

In view of the abundant historic and scientific data on this subject, it is certain that the Judaic populations (Yaweh-Jehovah worshippers) which existed among the civilized nations of the world prior to the conversion of the Khazars were not transplanted into these countries by the immigration of fugitives fleeing to escape from the battle-grounds of the Near East. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines work day and night to make the world believe otherwise. The Holy Land area is not the "homeland" of a "dispersed Jewish race." The "homeland" of the Judaic population of any country in the world is the country of origin of their Judaized ancestors. In the case of Yiddish Marxists their homeland is deep in the heart of Asia, or, for the past 2000 years, deep in the heart of eastern Europe. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines insult the intelligence of the public with their audacious references to Palestine as the "homeland" of a "dispersed Jewish race." Authentic data regarding the peoples of Palestine up to the time of the Romans in 70 A.D. is to be found in "The Hebrewisms of West Africa, From Nile to Niger with the Jews," by Joseph J. Williams, (published 1931, The Dial Press, New York, N.Y.) It is recommended reading for all those who are interested in the subject.

JEW, JEWISH & JUDAISM

Modern Anglicized versions of ancient Semitic words which have lost their original meanings

After the death of Moses the desert-dwelling Egyptian exiles invaded neighboring Canaan under the leadership of Joshua, successor to Moses. The desert-dwelling Egyptian exiles who invaded Canaan are known to history as "Hebrews." The Canaanites called the invaders of their land "Ibri," or "Hebrews." "Ibri" is a Semitic word meaning "over on the other side of the river." The Anglicized form of "Ibri" is "Hebrew." The Egyptians invaded Canaan from "over on the other side of the river" Jordan. Canaan was located to the west of the Jordan and the invading desert-dwelling, former Egyptians were located to the east of the Jordan.

The word "Hebrew" is a word which originally had a geographic significance. The word "Hebrew" did not have a religious, racial, or national significance. The use of the word "Hebrew" to designate a race, a religion or a nation is incorrect. Propaganda has given the word a quasi-religious implication which is incorrect.

The desert-dwelling Egyptian conquerors under Joshua divided into several small separate nations after their conquest of Canaan and appear in Bible history under various names. Among the nations established by these so-called Hebrews in this small area the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) developed into a more highly-organized religious worship than it did among the other Semite nations in the area extending from Persia to Egypt. The religion had no name yet.

In imitation of the manner in which religious worship was then practiced in Egypt, the Hebrews erected many large temples in their new homeland for the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). This newly-developed, highly-organized worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) created a priesthood which became a powerful faction among the ruling classes. Between 1200 B.C. and 1000 B.C. the worship of Jehovah by the Hebrews developed into a religion with pomp and ceremony on a scale never before associated with religious worship. This formal religious belief had no name. It was Josephus Flavius who in the First Century A.D. called this religion Judaism. The name Judaism was not used again since that time as a name for that religious belief until recent times when Jews commenced to call their religion Judaism.

KHAZARS NOT SEMITES

There is not a single historic or scientific fact to support claim Khazars were Semites

Yiddish people form the large Judaic population in eastern Europe as a result of the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism late in the 7th Century A. D. However, it was not until the 11th Century A.D. that the Judaized Khazars invented the word "Yid" and "Yiddish" by which they chose to be identified thereafter. Prior to (Continued on next page)

In the 11th Century A. D. the Yiddish people were known as the Judaized Khazars. During this period the language spoken by the Judaized Khazars was known as the Khazar language. When the Yiddish people elected to refer to themselves as Yiddish rather than as Khazars, the language which they spoke thereafter became known as the "Yiddish language."

Prior to the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism in the 7th Century A.D. "Yahudi" was the universally accepted Semitic word used in all parts of the world to describe the native populations professing Judaism as their religious belief. "Yahudi" is today the word in the Semitic languages which describes persons professing Judaism as their religious belief. During the conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians in the 10th and 11th Centuries A.D. many of the wealthy Judaized Khazars fled to foreign lands like the wealthy French fled when Hitler invaded France. When the Judaized Khazars arrived in Syria, Egypt, Italy, Spain, and other western European countries, they met co-religionists about whom they had never known. For some reason the Judaized Khazars objected to reference to themselves as "Yahudi." At this time the Judaized Khazar refugees invented the word "Yid" as the term by which they preferred to be identified. "Yiddish" is the adjective form of the noun "Yid." The Jewish Encyclopaedia makes very interesting disclosures regarding the origin of the word "Yiddish" and the disappearance from history of the word "Khazar." In Vol. VII, page 175, the following reference succinctly summarizes the history of this evolution, in the following quotation;

"Among Russian Jews a distinction is made between Yahudi . . . and Yid, one of Russian or Lithuanian extraction."

The Judaized Khazars originally came from the heart of Asia. About the First Century B.C. an Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid tribal-nation called the Khazars, invaded eastern Europe through the land passage between the Urals and the Caspian Sea. In their ancient Asiatic homeland, the Khazars inhabited the territory in Central Asia in the area where today the north-west Chinese province of Sinkiang is situated. After the invasion of eastern Europe by these war-like Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the Khazars in rapid succession conquered 25 pastoral nations which had peacefully occupied that territory from pre-historic times. The Khazar Kingdom grew rapidly and was soon recognized as the most powerful nation in Europe.

The Khazars were the greatest military power in Europe between the 5th and 10th Centuries A.D. Their military power completely dominated the entire area of eastern Europe. The Khazars were a pagan nation until 692 A.D. when the Khazar King, Bulan, the Khazar nobles, and the Khazar nation were converted to Judaism. The Khazar kings imported Talmudic Rabbis from Babylonia and built synagogues and schools throughout the Khazar Kingdom for the education of the Khazars in the Talmud. Talmudic law became the code under which their civil life was administered. Civil administration of the Khazar Kingdom was in the hands of the Talmudic rabbis as in ancient times. The Talmudic rabbis who had been imported into the Khazar Kingdom from Babylonia introduced the primitive form of religious worship practiced in the ancient temples and the theocratic form of civil administration practiced in ancient times.

RUSSIA GETS KHAZARS

In the 10th-11th Centuries Russia conquered Judaized Khazars merging them into Russia

The modern Judaic population of eastern European countries, known as Yiddish people, were known as the Khazar Kingdom before the 11th Century A.D. The Khazar Kingdom at one time occupied 800,000 square miles extending from the Black Sea northward to the Gulf of Finland, and from the Urals westward to the middle of Europe. Before its conquest by the Russians and its merger into Russia in the 10th and 11th Century, the Khazar Kingdom was the largest and most powerful state in Europe. It is not a generally known fact that Russia did not exist prior to the 9th Century A.D. Prior to the 9th Century A.D. to the north of the Khazar Kingdom there existed a large wandering population of nomadic Slavs. This roving, nomadic Slav population existed in a primitive state of civilization without even family life.

About the 9th Century A.D. a small group of immigrants from the Scandinavian peninsula landed amongst these Slavs and settled there permanently. These Scandinavian immigrants are known to history as the Varangians. These Scandinavians organized the nomadic Slavs into a small state of a few thousand square miles, smaller than the State of Rhode Island and called it the Principality of Ros. This new, tiny, Slav nation to the north of the Khazar Kingdom grew in size by victory after victory and became ultimately the Russian Empire. About the 10th Century A.D. this new, tiny, Russian nation conquered the Khazar Kingdom. The victorious Russians merged into the rapidly expanding Russian state the territory and the population of the Khazar Kingdom. At the time of the conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians in the 10th-11th Centuries, the Khazars had been Judaized for many centuries.

The Khazars were Judaized in the 7th Century A.D. Prior to that time they were a pagan nation of phallic-worshippers. The conversion of the Khazars to Judaism about 692 A.D. is responsible for the presence in eastern Europe of large Judaic populations. After the Judaized Khazars were merged into the population of the expanding Russian state, the name Khazar disappears from history. The Judaized Khazar population, known after their conquest as the Yiddish population, resisted assimilation into the Russian nation. The Judaized Khazars retained their former language, their form of religious worship and the customs and culture resulting from their strict observance of Talmudic law. The resistance of the Yiddish population to assimilation created many problems for the Russians. The Russians had a language of their own, an alphabet of their own, and since the year 986 A.D. Christianity was the state religion in Russia. Prince Vladimir III, the ruler of Russia, was converted to Christianity in 986 A.D. He attempted to make Christianity the religion of all the Russian people including the former Judaized Khazars but in that he was not successful.

JUDAIZED KHAZARS NOW

Eastern European Judaic populations and the world-wide colonies of Yiddish emigrants

The conversion of the Khazars in the 7th Century and their conquest by the Russians in the 10th-11th Centuries explains the presence in modern times in Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Hungary, Austria (Galicia), Czechoslovakia and Rumania of their large Judaic populations, all indicating identical racial origin, all speaking an identical language foreign to the balance of the native populations, all observing identical customs, all clinging to an identical culture, and all practicing their common religious belief with identical formalities duplicating the ancient Babylonian Talmudic rituals.

Between the 12th Century, and the 18th Century Russia suffered many defeats at the hands of the rapidly-expanding small Central European nations. Russia was defeated by Poland, Lithuania, Hungary, Austria (Galicia), Rumania and others. The nations which defeated Russia each obtained a piece of Russian territory. The territories obtained by them were formerly part of the Khazar Kingdom. Those victorious nations acquired with the former territory of the Khazar Kingdom the captive Judaized Khazars who inhabited them. The population was transferred with the territory as it has been done all through history.

The Judaized Khazars were the ancestors of present Judaic Russians, Judaic Poles, Judaic Lithuanians, Judaic Galicians (Austrians), Judaic Hungarians, Judaic Czechs, and Judaic Rumanians. That part of the population included in these nations formed the Judaized Kingdom before its conquest and subsequent cutting-up. There are now many different nationalities included among the homogenous racial and religious group indigenous to this large area. Neither they nor their ancestors immigrated to that area from the Near East of Bible history before, during, or after the historic events in Bible history.

LET HISTORY SPEAK

It is not possible to obtain better evidence than to go to world's leading authorities

The greatest of all historians on the subject of Judaism is the celebrated Professor H. Graetz. Judaic scholars recognize the works of their eminent co-religionist as the most authentic presentation of their history. In his "History of Jews," published in 1894 by the Jewish Publication Society of Philadelphia, before Yiddish Marxists or their "fronts" acquired control of the foremost

Judaic publishing houses in this country, Professor Graetz presents the results of his research about the Khazars as follows;

"The Heathen king of a barbarian people, living in the north, together with all his court, adopted the Jewish religion. The Khazars . . . a nation of Finnish origin . . . had settled after the dissolution of the empire of the Huns, on the frontier between Europe and Asia. They founded a kingdom on the Volga at the place near which it runs into the Caspian Sea . . . Their kings . . . led these warlike sons of the steppe from victory to victory. The Khazars inspired the Persians with so great a dread that one of their kings, Chosroes, found no other way of protecting his dominions against their violent invasions than by building a stone wall which blocked up the passes between the Caucasus and the sea. But this "gate of gates" did not long serve as a barrier against the warlike courage of the Khazars. After the fall of the Persian empire they crossed the Caucasus, invaded Armenia, and conquered the Crimean peninsula, which bore the name of Khazaria for some time. The Byzantine emperors trembled at the name of the Khazars, flattered them, and paid them a tribute, in order to restrain their lust after the loot of Constantinople. The Bulgarians, and other tribes, were the vassals of the Khazars, and the people of Kiev were obliged to pay them as an annual tax a sword and a fine skin for every household. WITH THE ARABS, WHOSE NEIGHBORS THEY GRADUALLY BECAME, THEY CARRIED ON TERRIBLE WARS.

Like their neighbors . . . the Khazars professed a coarse religion, which was combined with sensuality and lewdness . . . King Bulan conceived a horror of the foul idolatry of his ancestors, and prohibited its exercise within his dominions . . . The Jewish sage who was the means of obtaining Bulan's conversion is supposed to have been Isaac Sanjari . . . circumstances under which Khazars embraced Judaism . . . is a fact itself too definitely proved on all sides to allow any doubt as to its reality . . . A successor of Bulan, who bore the name of Obadiah . . . invited sages to settle in his dominion, rewarded them royally, founded synagogues and schools, caused instruction to be given to himself and to his people in the Bible and the TALMUD, and introduced a divine service modelled on that of the ANCIENT COMMUNITIES . . . After Obadiah came a long series of Jewish kings, for according to a fundamental law of the state ONLY JEWISH RULERS were permitted to ASCEND THE THRONE . . . For some time the JEWS OF OTHER COUNTRIES HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONVERSION OF THIS POWERFUL KINGDOM TO JUDAISM, and when at last a vague rumor to this effect reached them, they were of the OPINION that Khazaria was peopled by the REMNANT OF THE FORMER TEN TRIBE!! (emphasis not authors.)

MARXISM AND ZIONISM

Zionism of Yiddish Marxists is an instrument to implement campaign for world-domination

Yiddish Marxists invented the Zionist movement. Yiddish Marxists, developed the Zionist movement into the most subtle instrument for aggression to the history of the world. Yiddish Marxists use Zionism as an anaesthetic upon the world before they operate. Zionism has been a very satisfactory cloak behind which Yiddish Marxists have been able to conceal their plans for world-domination. Day by day it becomes more apparent that Zionist aggression in Palestine was not organized to "repatriate" the exiled "chosen people" to their "homeland," the "Promised Land" which the maker of the promise was unable to perform without the help of Yiddish Marxists. Yiddish Marxists used Zionism to establish a "beach-head" for communism (Marxism) in the strategic Near East area with its limitless natural resources including oil and chemicals. It was "hitting below the belt" to make the American government take the lead in carrying out this conspiracy between the Zionists and the Soviet Union to establish a "beach-head" for communism (Marxism) in the Near East.

Americans are to be excused for feeling that Marxism (communism), Zionism, and Judaism are all one and the same thing. Yiddish Marxists wish Americans to feel that way. They manufacture the confusion necessary to create more confusion. Such a conclusion is false. However, Yiddish Marxists have virtually "taken over" Judaism, "lock, stock, and barrel." This story is too long and complicated to recite here. There are groups of loyal, patriotic Judaic Americans who are fighting Yiddish Marxists. Yiddish Marxists smear these courageous Judaic Americans as "anti-Semites," "Jew baiters," "Hitlerites," and "Jewish Gerald L. K. Smiths." Every genuine American owes a vote of thanks to men like Lessing Rosenwald and Rabbi Elmer Berger of the American Council for Judaism for what they are doing to expose Yiddish Marxists and all the Judaic organizations which cringe before, and curry the favor of Yiddish Marxist power. Americans who know what is best for the country welcome the cooperation of Judaic Americans who are members of the American Council for Judaism. Excepting this group, and their silent Judaic sympathizers, it can be safely stated that the world-wide religious organization incorrectly referred to as the "Jewish religion" is under the complete domination of Yiddish Marxists via Zionism, and used by them to accelerate the fulfillment of the "historic mission" of Karl Marx.

HEBREW (?) ALPHABET

Hebrew (?) alphabet adopted by Judaized Khazars for Khazar language, now the Yiddish language

At the time of the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism their language had no written form because there was no alphabet for the language. The primitive Khazar culture required no written language. Upon the occasion of his conversion to Judaism the Khazar King saw the Hebrew alphabet for the first time. He was impressed with the advantages of an alphabet for a spoken language. The Khazar king, Bulan, ordered the alphabet of the Bible to be used as the alphabet for the Khazar language.

The alphabet of the Bible, called the Hebrew alphabet, is the alphabet adopted from the Canaanites by the invading desert-dwelling former Egyptians under Joshua. These Egyptian exiles were illiterates having lived in the Sinai desert about forty years without the benefit of culture. The invaders under Joshua found a high degree of culture among the Canaanites. Their language was enriched by the assimilation of the Canaanite vocabulary.

The Christian public is misled into believing that the Yiddish people are the "chosen people" of the Bible because their alphabet is the same as the alphabet which appears in the versions of the Bible printed in Hebrew.

However, there is not one word of the Hebrew language in Yiddish, the modern name for the native language of the Judaized Khazars.

JUDAISM NOW CAPTIVE

Yiddish Marxists have worked for a century for dictatorship over world-wide Judaism

With the rare exception of a few congregations, Judaism as a practicing religious belief has been captured, "lock, stock, and barrel," by Yiddish Marxist fronts. The form of Zionism with which the world has become very familiar in recent years was organized over fifty years ago as the catalyst by which Yiddish Marxists obtained world-wide control of Judaic congregations of all nationalities. Yiddish Marxists made Zionism the common denominator for infiltrating congregations where they previously were excluded. In recent years Hitler made their task easier for them. The public swallowed the Yiddish Marxist propaganda about the 6,000,000 Jews which Hitler threw into furnaces and gas-chambers although Hanson W. Baldwin in the New York Times of February 22, 1948 supplies proof that there were more Jews in the world in 1948 than there were in 1939, and Hanson W. Baldwin is never wrong when it comes to statistics, and the New York Times would hardly print it unless they also were sure of the facts.

The Yiddish Marxist high-command forbade rabbis to refer to Marxism (communism) unfavorably from their pulpits or elsewhere. Rabbi Schultz was dismissed from his post as rabbi with a prominent synagogue in Yonkers, N.Y. because he dared to excoriate Marxism (communism) from his pulpit and in newspaper statements. This rabbi was penniless but he was dumped out of his position for talking against Marxism (communism). This case received a lot of publicity and there were probably others which did not. If Judaism as a practicing religion is not under the control of Yiddish Marxists why doesn't the organized rabbi rate publicly express themselves against Marxism (communism) like other anti-Marxist (anti-communist) practicing religious organizations. The Catholic Church and certain Protestant denominations have set a good pattern for the rabbinate if they desire to do so.

"BIG LIE" PROPAGANDA

Marxists teach the bigger the lie is, and the more often it is told, the more it is believed

Apologists for Marxism express the view that Marxism must have merit or it could not have succeeded to such a great extent in so few years. Two important facts are overlooked by apologists for Marxism. Firstly, Marxism had its origin in a period of history when a form of autocracy existed which deserved to be fought. It was a form of autocracy, however, which was disappearing rapidly throughout Europe, particularly in the geographic area in which Marxism had its origin. Secondly, Marxism had thus far been successfully introduced only into those countries which have been tremendously weakened by long periods of military reverses. Marxism has never been introduced successfully into any country which has not been physically and spiritually exhausted by the attrition of military reverses.

Without world-wars there are no war-weary populations to whom Marxists can hold out the Marxist promise of a Utopia. The impact of war upon nations is reflected in the political, social, and economic reactions with which the world is quite familiar. Marxists know that disappearing political, social, and economic autocracies make it necessary for Marxists to seek other fields in search of valid arguments to justify Marxist world-revolution. In the recent past, world wars have supplied Marxism with all the arguments it required to wage its war against civilized society.

The public attention is being called to these symptoms every day by great American patriots. Add these symptoms together and what do they add up to? The answer is surprisingly simple. Add up what has been revealed by such patriots as John O'Donnell, writing in the New York Daily News, by Westbrook Pegler, George E. Sokolsky and Leslie Gould, writing in the New York Journal American and by Victor Riesel in the New York Daily Mirror. Add up what has been revealed by Congressman Martin W. Dies, Congressman J. Parnell Thomas and Congressman Richard T. Nixon of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Add up what has been revealed by Whittaker Chambers, Professor Louis Budenz, Doctor J. B. Matthews and Major George Racey Jordan. Add up what has been revealed by Fulton Lewis Jr. on his broadcasts over the Mutual Radio Network. What do all these symptoms add up to? "There are none so blind as those who will not see"

The incontestable facts revealed by these patriots prove beyond the shadow of a doubt the existence in this country, for more than thirty years, of counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. During all this period they have been acting as spies for an avowed enemy of this country. The patriots mentioned above, in their publicity, have not been able to reveal to the American public the fundamental and basic reasons for this deplorable condition. The press and the radio are muzzled by the friends of the traitors. The effectiveness of this censorship is amazing. This censorship will not permit historic and scientific facts to be mentioned, in newspapers, magazines or on the air, which would alert the American public to their danger. When these facts accidentally slip through this censorship retractions or apologies must be forthcoming or the advertising revenue of the offender rapidly shrinks. The powerful New York Daily News and the Chicago Tribune have each submitted to this form of blackmail to avoid the loss of advertising revenue essential to their profitable operation. "Blackmail" is a mild word for it.

The American people are living in the hope unless the United States drops an atom-bomb first on the Soviet Union or a satellite state, that the Soviet Union will not unload its atom-bombs on the United States. "Hope springs eternal in the human heart." There is no guarantee that the Soviet Union will adopt that strategy. It is "wishful thinking" by those who have very little choice in the matter. That decision no longer rests in the hands of the American people. The initiative for the choice is not now theirs.

The American people are not dumb animals. The American people cannot be stampeded like dumb animals. United World Federalists and their collaborators for Soviet Union world-domination apparently regard the American people as dumb animals. It must be admitted that the American people were stampeded into United Nations under emotional stress and effective misrepresentation. It is too much for them to expect that the American people will make the same mistake twice. When dumb animals are stampeded by emotion and excitement they usually go over the edge of a precipice to their finish. It behooves the American people not to be stampeded over the edge of a world-government precipice. The Divinity which directs the destiny of this nation may not be inclined to exhibit the degree of help extended to dumb animals.

The unwritten histories of the Soviet Union and its satellites will bear witness to the Marxist policy of destroying middle and upper classes when "dictatorship of the proletariat" establishes a Marxist regime. Recent photographs appearing in the newspapers give evidence that the North Korean Marxists respected this Marxist doctrine invaded South Korea. These people were only South Koreans in slave-labor camps when they Marxists placed the middle and upper class when they invaded South Korea. North Korean guilt of owning property, believing in popular government, or belonging to a religious organization. For these crimes they were treated as slaves. When forced to retreat, the North Korean Marxists slaughtered these people to reduce potential opposition when they return again, as they plan to do. That same fate awaits the middle and upper classes in all countries for the same reasons when Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" establish the "classless society" as they make progress with their world-revolution.

SURVIVAL HOPEFUL

People who made U.S.A. man's greatest tribute to God will not abandon the world to atheists

Who are the Marxists? What makes them Marxists? What is Marxism? Unless every American worthy of the name takes the time necessary to seek the answers to these questions the chances for survival of the nation are very slim. The answers to these questions will "pin-point" for the American people their real enemies. Before the time when bomb-sights were invented which enabled bombing planes to "pin-point" their targets, air power effectiveness was at its very lowest level.

Where is the central source of the authority which exercises this power over these counterfeit Americans? Whose brains control their muscles? Who constitutes the unseen force to which these masquerading Americans pay allegiance? Do the hands on the face of a watch go around by themselves? Do the wheels inside the watch go around by themselves? The answer is "no." It is the little mainspring concealed deep down inside the watch which makes the hands move and the wheels go around. Without a mainspring no watch will tick! There is a "mainspring" which makes the Soviet Union spring inside this country "tick". It is this "mainspring" which makes the "hands move and the wheels go around" of the Soviet Union spy rings in every country of the world. Who constitutes this "mainspring?" The Yiddish Marxists!

The arrests and convictions of Judith Coplon, Alger Hiss, Harry Bridges, the eleven Communist Party, Politburo high-command in New York, and the ten Hollywood screen writers illustrate the dangerous practice of treating the symptoms, and stopping there. Thousands of such arrests and convictions cannot eliminate the cause which is responsible for them. Too much attention is being paid to effect, and not enough to cause. It is this policy which may prove fatal. The life of the nation depends upon a correct diagnosis of the cause which produces these symptoms. "Time is of the essence," was never more appropriate. The gravity of the situation cannot be exaggerated. "It is later than you think," describes "the State of the Union" quite appropriately unless it is "too late to think."

If this nation is to survive, Americans at "grass-roots" level must discover the nature of the disease which is now threatening its existence. Only in that way will the American people be able to replace the treatment of symptoms with treatment of the disease itself. The treatment of symptoms instead of the treatment of the disease must ultimately prove fatal. Frequent headaches may not be recognized as the symptom of deadly high blood pressure. Digestive disturbances may not be recognized as the symptom of a malignant cancer. Chest pains may not be recognized as the symptom of a critical cardiac condition. Unless detected and corrected in the early stage, these unseen, unsuspected maladies soon prove fatal. Action must be taken while there is still time to save the patient's life. It may be sad if the needed aid arrives too late, but regrets have never yet brought a corpse back to life.

The historic and scientific facts presented here will enable Americans to draw their own conclusions. The American people can always be relied upon to act intelligently when they are given the facts. The historic and scientific facts assembled here are the result of intensive and expensive research. It now becomes the duty of every patriotic American to familiarize himself with them fully. "Knowledge is power." Never was this "power" more vital to the security and defense of the American people. The facts assembled here are in reality a Twentieth Century Magna Charta for the American people. These facts can give them the power to protect themselves against the threat of the most barbaric form of tyranny ever conceived in the mind of man. Read now, or repent later. No American can now say, "Why wasn't I told about this before so that I could do something about it?" The time is very late but there still may be time "to do something about it!" Wake up, sleepy-heads!

TELL HOW TO HELP

Give genuine Americans a chance to be heard and they'll say, "Give me liberty or give me death!"

It paralyzes the imagination to picture this nation, with a large fraction of its total population either burned to a cinder, fried to death, or victims of radio-active bombs, buried under the ruins of a coast-to-coast atom-bomb blitz, and asking the Soviet Union for terms of surrender. It is not conceivable for the average American to even imagine what those terms will be like. The terms for surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union will make the "unconditional surrender" terms offered to Germany and Japan seem in comparison like the most generous peace proposal ever offered to a defeated enemy in all the recorded annals of history.

The "we-never-lost-a-war" attitude of the American people must not become a psychosis which can prove fatal. That psychology applied to an era which is a closed book in our history. A new era opened with the discovery of the atom-bomb. The territory of this country is now threatened by a foreign power for the first time since the burning of the city of Washington by the British in the War of 1812. Every square foot of this country at this moment faces a fate so very much worse. This "we-never-lost-a-war" psychology may prove the reason for losing the next war. The nation has been told by its most responsible leaders that the next war may end in defeat. "We-can-lose-the-next-war" is the realistic attitude which should be adopted by the American people under the circumstances.

Three steps must be taken at once if the nation is to survive the peril with which it is faced. This is the first step. Fix the responsibility for the danger which now threatens its existence. This is the second step. Prevent any further deterioration in the domestic factors which are vital to the preservation of the American heritage. This is the third step. Promptly and adequately prepare to meet any military challenge by the Soviet Union. These three steps are the A,B,C of keeping this nation from following in the footsteps of other victims of Soviet Union aggression. Ignorance may be blissful, but wisdom in this matter will prove to be anything but foolish despite what the proverb states to the contrary.

Failure to give prompt and proper consideration, and attention to the first of these three steps, will make it utterly impossible to hope for success in the second and third of these three steps. In such an event, the consequent calamity to the nation beggars description. Only very fast thinking, and faster action, are now able to avert the slaughter and defeat which appear at this moment both imminent and inevitable.

Having walked in a Fool's Paradise for five years, (1949-1950,) this nation now finds itself face to face with the possibility of meeting the fate which has befallen Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania and other victims of the Soviet Union's "creeping conquest." The fate of these nations was sealed due to the ignorance or the indifference of the masses at the "grass-roots" level. The fate of this nation may be decided by either, or both, of these identical reasons. The "it-can't-happen-here" attitude of the American people at the "grass-roots" level may prove to be the reason for a "too-little-and-too-late" defense against an undeserved and unhappy fate. The smug sense of security of the American people should have gone up in the smoke of the first atom-bomb explosion in the Soviet Union.

PIN-POINT U.S.S.R. AGENTS

The F.B.I. should start at once to pin-point U.S.S.R. agents regardless of political pull

Until bombing planes were able to "pin-point" their targets the enemy had little to fear from air-power. In World War II the enemy was not put out of business by "saturation" bombing, dropping a thousand or more bombs on a single target at one time hoping that some of them would hit. The enemy was quickly put out of business, however, by "pin-point" bombing. "Pin-point" bombing made "saturation" bombing as obsolete as the muzzle-loading flint-lock musket.

Now is not a time to try "saturation" bombing. Now is the time to use "pin-point" bombing. The real enemies of the nation must be ferreted out with "pin-point" methods. They can be properly dealt with then. They must first be discovered. It has been truly stated that in order to make a rabbit stew the first thing to do is to catch the rabbit. But before it is possible to catch the rabbit it is necessary to have an idea what a rabbit looks like.

It hardly seems that "pin-point" bomb-sights will be required to locate the real enemies of this nation. The "rabbits" have revealed their identity openly. The real enemies of the nation are the Marxists. Marxists are the apostles of Karl Marx. They are the disciples of Marxism. They preach humanity in a straight-jacket of the ideologies taught by Karl Marx. They boast that the American heritage will soon be replaced by a Marxists dictatorship. They proclaim the purpose, policy, and program of Marxism as the historic successor to the God-given right of every human being to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The American people today are treating symptoms. The American public, with few exceptions, are totally unaware of the truth about the disease which spells their doom. As in the case of all malignant maladies, time is working on the side of the disease. Now is the time for patriotic Americans to learn "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." Nothing is more necessary, nothing more is necessary. Less than the whole truth robs the American people of their chance to protect their priceless heritage. If it is lost now, it is lost forever.

ANTI-SEMITIC SMEAR BAD

More than 95% of the Semites were Christians and Arabs. Only the uninformed fear that smear

In explaining the "mainspring" of the world revolution, and describing the implications of its impact upon the American heritage there is neither the intention, nor the necessity, nor the desire, to cast aspersions upon any specific religious denomination nor upon any racial group. Much confusion exists on this point of view. There is great confusion on this question. This confusion is created intentionally. This confusion is intended as a "smoke-screen" behind which the "mainspring" can carry on its work without detection or opposition. The beneficiaries of this confusion are the very people who create it. They distort as "religious persecution" measures of self-defense against their aggression. The measure of their success in creating confusion to conceal their conspiracies will be the measure of their ultimate success in the war they are waging for world-domination. The time has come to put an end to this confusion. History, not propaganda, claims all the pride of authorship for the facts presented here. These facts disprove the vicious propaganda which brands resistance to aggression "religious persecution."

The B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League and other direct or indirect wheels-within-wheels of the Yiddish Marxist propaganda machine have made the word "anti-Semitic" their most deadly weapon. If an American makes a public attack upon Marxism (communism) he immediately becomes the target for hummerless propagandists who brand him "anti-Semitic." The word "anti-Semitic" has been made to stand for a Christian American who hates other persons for no other reason than they worship God in a synagogue and not in a church. Christian Americans judge all people by their character and their conduct, by their attitudes and their actions, and not by the sign on the building where they enter to worship God. But God have mercy upon the person who has to earn a living when he is branded "anti-Semitic" in this country by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines.

It must be emphasized in no uncertain terms that reference to Yiddish Marxists is not intended as a reflection on individuals or groups by reason of the fact that they profess Judaism as their alleged religious belief. Neither is it intended to cast aspersions upon Judaism as practiced by countless Judaic Americans as the vehicle which, by accident of birth, brings them into closer unity with the God of all peoples. Yiddish propagandists wish Christian Americans to believe that Yiddish and Jewish have the same relationship that "swop" or "daggo" have to Italian, etc., etc. Yiddish has no more connection with Jewish than Irish has with Catholic. The Irish nation was converted to Christianity in the 10th. Century. The Yiddish nation (Khazars) were converted to Judaism in the 7th. Century. When Sophie Tucker sings "My Yiddish Mama" the Yiddish people stand up and cheer. If a Christian American uses the word Yiddish he is immediately branded "anti-Semitic," it is very important to "keep the record straight" on that point. Yiddish is not Jewish!

RE: COLIN McKINLEY
CELIA McKINLEY
Fort Dix, N. J.

Dear Sir:

JOHN T. LAWLEY, Sheriff, Monmouth County, New Jersey, has reported to this office that CELIA McKINLEY and COLIN McKINLEY, trading under the name of "Celia Brown", had a restaurant at 18th Avenue, Belmar, New Jersey, and now have a restaurant at Fort Dix, New Jersey. According to Sheriff LAWLEY, Mrs. McKINLEY made a donation of ten per cent of all her income to Camp Nordland and that she is still active in the New Era organization of the Bund. She is in some way connected with STRUNK and SON, INC., 354 Washington Street, Newark, New Jersey. Mr. STRUNK is alleged to have contributed funds to the Bund. He had an employee named FREDRICK LE VINE who was approached by Mrs. CELIA BROWN (McKinley) to contribute ten per cent of his income to Camp Nordland. Mr. LE VINE refused and Mrs. BROWN asked Mr. STRUNK to discharge Mr. LE VINE.

It would be appreciated if you would conduct an investigation to determine the truth of the allegation contained in the above mentioned complaint. It is also requested that you determine the subject's background and their Nationalistic tendencies.

SPECIAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATION

STATION West Trenton, New Jersey. "C" DATE January 31st, 44.
TROOP _____ DATE _____ 19____

REPORT OF Cpl. Det. N. Thos. De Gaetano # 419.

ACCOMPANIED BY SUBJECT: Confidential investigation re: CELIA MCGINLEY and CONDE MCGINLEY alias Celia Brown alias Celia McKinley and Colin McKinley.

In compliance with instructions received from Lt. J. C. Doyle, the undersigned conducted a confidential investigation regarding the subjects in co-operation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, resulting from communication received from Departmental Headquarters dated December 22nd, 1943. According to the communication, the subject made a donation of ten per cent of all her income to Camp Nordland and that she is still active in the New Era organization of the Bund.

The investigation revealed that Sheriff John T. Lawley of Monmouth County, N.J. forwarded this information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Newark, N.J. on May 25th, 1942. According to the files at the Sheriff's Office, this information was turned over to Sheriff Lawley by Warren A. (Wally) Gibbs of State Highway # 33, Neptune Twp., N.J. who at that time was employed as part time Deputy Sheriff.

Interviewed Mr. Gibbs at his home who stated that he is now employed as Confidential Agent for Monmouth County under the Sheriff's Office. Mr. Gibbs stated that he was active in un-American and Subversive Investigations during the years of 1941 and 1942 and observed from his personal file that his informer was Mrs. Beatrice Bonus of 1612 Riverview Terrace, West Belmar, N.J.

Mrs. Beatrice Bonus resides at the aforementioned address with her husband, Daniel H. Bonus and their daughter Patricia C. Bonus. Mr. Bonus is employed as salesman for the C. W. Brick Feed Company of Freehold, N.J.

In discussing this investigation with Mrs. Bonus and her daughter Patricia, age 20 yrs., the undersigned was informed that she gave this information to Mr. Gibbs in the early part of 1942 at which time the subject was operating a curb-service restaurant at 17th and "F" Streets, West Belmar, N.J. and has been discontinued since. Mrs. Bonus related that she suspected Mrs. McGinley of subversive activities but did not secure any evidence to that effect until she instructed her daughter to become acquainted with Fredrick Le Vine at the U. S. O. Club, where Le Vine attended while being Stationed at Fort Monmouth. After her daughter succeeded in becoming acquainted with Le Vine, he was a guest at their home on a number of occasions, at which time she secured the information and the alleged "evidence" that Le Vine was approached by Mrs. McGinley to contribute ten per cent of his income to Camp Nordland. It was explained that Le Vine was employed as a deliveryman for Strunk and Son, Inc. of 354 Washington St., Newark, N.J. dealer in confectionary. Le Vine's home, while so employed, was in Rutherford, N.J. From every indication, Le Vine made deliveries to Mrs. McGinley's place of business in West Belmar, N.J. and Mrs. Bonus admitted that Le Vine was never employed by Mrs. McGinley. Mrs. Bonus was unable to explain to this investigator Le Vine's connection and what caused her to instruct her daughter, Patricia, to become acquainted with Le Vine and seek him at the U. S. O. Club.

However, Miss Patricia Bonus still communicates with him and the following address was secured from her:

821st Signal Wire Maintenance Company
A. P. O. 862, c/o Post Master
New York City, N.Y.

Discussed this investigation with Sgt. William J. Briden of the Belmar, N.J. Police Dept. who stated that he was acquainted with the McGinley family for over 10 years. He related that Mrs. McGinley opened up a Curb-Service Restaruant at 17th and "F" Streets, West Belmar, N.J. and about a year later opened up another one at 5th and "F" Streets, Belmar, N.J. Some time later the third place was in operation at 1313 Asbury Ave., Asbury Park, N.J. as well as the fourth place in Union City, N.J. However, in 1941 she went broke and was compelled to closed the aforementioned places and opened up at Fort Dix, N.J. The Sergeant expressed his opinion that there was no truth to the accusation implied in the communication. The undersigned was referred to one Michael J. Higgins, employed as janitor at Saint Rose's Church, Belmar, N.J. as being well acquainted with the McGinley family. X

Mr. Michael J. Higgins, who resides at 612 8th Ave., Belmar, N.J. stated that he is a native of Trenton, N.J. and a cousin of Conde McGinley, the subject's husband. The undersigned was informed that Conde McGinley is a native of Oklahoma and married the subject, Mrs. Celia nee Brown, in the State of Oklahoma where they resided until the year of 1930 and moved to Dallas, Texas. From Texas, Higgins accompanied Mr. and Mrs. McGinley and their four children to Belmar, N.J. and assisted Celia McGinley in the operation of the restaruant known as Celia Brown restaurant. Higgins lost approximately $ 800.00 in this transaction and they have not been on speaking terms since. According to Mr. Higgins, Mrs. McGinley is very tight with her money and "she wouldn't give one cent to see a miracle performed". Mr. Higgins' information corroborated the information already secured from Sgt. Briden.

At Wrightstown, N.J. the undersigned was informed by Cpl. Wm. O. Sawyer that Mrs. McGinley and members of her family operated the Celia Brown Restaurant where Sam's Spagahetti House is now located and was foreclosed by the Burlington County Sheriff's Office about a year ago. Cpl. Sawyer as well as other personnel of that Station and questioned by this investigator, stated that they observed nothing that would cause the McGinley family to be suspected of any subversive activities nor did they receive any complaints in that respect. It was also established that a restaurant was operated by the McGinley family on Greenwood Ave., Hamilton Twsp., N.J. and they were compelled to discontinue due to finanical circumstances.

CELIA MCGINLEY nee Brown is a native of Kansas, married her husband, Conde McGinley in the State of Oklahoma and is the mother of their four children. At the present time she is residing with her son, daughter-in-law daughter and two grand children, at 7 Village Road, Old Mill Farm Village, Wall Twp., R.F.D. Sea Girt, N.J. She is employed at Camp Evans as a under Clerk, Camp Evans, N.J. She is described as being 52 yrs. of age, white, female, married, 5'4", 235 lbs., brown hair and grey eyes.

CONDE MCGINLEY SR. is a native of Oklahoma, the husband of the above mentioned and father of their four children. At the present time is residing at 1259 Stuyvesant Ave., Union City, N.J. where he is operating a small lunch room. He is described as being 54 yrs. of age, white, male, married, 5'7½", 150 lbs., brown hair and blue eyes.

WILLIAM BETTIS MCGINLEY is a native of Chickasha, Oklahoma and the oldest son of the above mentioned. He married Martha nee Udcatsky on Sept. 30th, 1939 at Belmar, N.J. They have two children; William McGinley Jr., born at Pitkin Hospital, Neptune Twp., N.J. on July 23rd, 1940 and Joseph Francis McGinley, born at the same Hospital on November 28th, 1941. William McGinley is employed as a guard at Camp Evans, N.J. He resides at 7 Village Road, Wall Twp., RFD Sea Girt, N.J. He is described as being 26 yrs. of age, 5'11½", 160 lbs., white, male, married, brown hair and eyes.

CONDE MCGINLEY Jr. is also a native of Oklahoma and is the second son of the subjects. He resided with his parents at Rexal Ave., Wrightstown, N.J. until the early part of 1942, at which time he enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corp. He is described as being 25 yrs. of age, white, male, single, 6'1", 185 lbs., Blonde hair, grey eyes.

ELIZABETH MCGINLEY is the oldest daughter of the subjects, a native of Oklahoma and at the present time is employed at Camp Evans, N.J. She is 19 yrs. of age and single.

WONA MCGINLEY is the youngest, also a native of Oklahoma and is residing with her mother, brother William and sister-in-law at 7 Village Road, Wall Twp., N.J. She is a student at Saint Rose's School, 8th Ave., Belmar, N.J. She is single and 16 yrs. of age.

MARTHA MCGINLEY nee Udcatsky is the wife of William McGinley and is residing at 7 Village Rd., Wall Twp., N.J. She was born at New York City N.Y. in 1918 and is the daughter of V. Cadamere and Pauline U. nee Reekowsky of Collingswood Park, Monmouth County, N.J.

Records at the State Bureau for Criminal Identification failed to reveal any criminal records of arrests or conviction regarding any of the herein mentioned.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Mr. Conde W. McGinley
1259 Stuyvesant Ave.
Union, New Jersey

When I first met Mr. McGinley, about four months ago, I gathered the impression that he was a kind and harmless elderly gentleman who takes interest in the personal welfare of his fellow workers at the Esna (Elastic Stop Nut Corporation of America, Union, N.J.) and wouldn't bother anybody. Soon I found out that the interest he shows for other people is based on something else and that he uses "kindness" only as a front to fool his victims. I consider Mr. McGinley to be one of the most ardent Jew haters and political agitators I have ever met and I support this statement with the following facts:

Mr. McGinley approached me first in a very confidential way because, as he said, he believes I am one of his men. He told me that he heard some of my fellow workers talk about me and that they called me a "God damn Nazi". That he said, made him eager to meet me. Mr. McGinley opened up as soon as he found out that he could "trust me." He told me that he likes the Germans, that his best friends are Germans - some of whom have been interned since the outbreak of war - and that the Germans "are the greatest people on earth." He calls Hitler "the greatest man of all times" (and he has called him so repeatedly) who must have been sent by God to deliver the world from the Jews and from Communism. Mr. McGinley told me how he listened to Hitler's speeches - even though he doesn't understand German - and how he endorses everything Hitler has done. He admires the Germans for their courage and prays that they will win the war - even though a devout Catholic and although he has a son serving in the armed forces, Mr. McGinley confided to me that in church he does not pray for "victory," but for "peace" - and he defies the British and our own military leaders for their ruthless attack on Germany. He calls President Roosevelt - whom he calls Rosenfeld and who, according to his belief, is a Jew and pledged to serve the Jewish interests only - the "greatest criminal of all times" who "belongs behind bars" and who "ought to get his nuts cut off." He repeatedly made statements to the effect that President Roosevelt should be shot or, better yet, should die a slow and miserable death "like President Wilson."

Mr. McGinley condemns America's war policy and claims that America "had no business to enter the war." He told me again and again that America and its Jewish war-lords did their utmost to provoke both Germany and Japan and that the Pearl-Harbor attack was secondary: America attacked Germany and Japan first and forced them thereby to declare war on us. Mr. McGinley explained to me that the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy were put in office by Cohn & Loeb, an English branch of the house of Rothschild, that all the other high government officials are Jews (mentioning Sec. Morgenthau, Felix Frankfurter, Leon Henderson (whose real name, he said, is Horowitz), Sidney Hillman and many others, some of the others being married to a Jewess like Sec. Hull), and that our government is doomed. Mr. McGinley repeatedly predicted a "bloody revolution" which would do away with all the Jews. He is waiting for this revolution and he is praying that it might come soon. He hopes that then he will be able to get a machine gun and "kill all the jews he can get."

At the plant in Union Mr. McGinley is constantly agitating against the jews and communists, he does so openly and also in secret - defacing walls with slogans that must arise hatred against the jews and President Roosevelt - and he told me that due to his efforts several jews were fired at the Esna.

(I contacted Mr. E. R. Davis, plant protection neg., in regard to all this, but Mr. Davis left the Esna on Nov. 15, 1944 and I doubt whether he can follow this up).

Mr. McGinley predicts that "when the boys come home they will clean up with the jews". Our soldiers, who don't know what they are fighting for except for world domination of the Jewish race and for establishing world communism, will be disillusioned. America will pass through years of misery unequalled in our history and, Mr. McGinley added, such punishment we deserve. It would be unjust if America should escape such fate after our deliberate bombings of civilians in Europe.

Mr. McGinley hopes that American soldiers will marry German girls - even though they have been told not to "fraternize" with German civilians, an order which Mr. McGinley strongly condemns. He admires Germany's resistance and hopes and prays that Germany won't give up because Germany is fighting Communism, which otherwise would spread all over the world (he points to France, Belgium and Greece as the first countries to fall to Russia and calls General de Gaulle an outright communist).

Mr. McGinley told me of his various efforts to fight the Jews and their communistic plans. He used to belong to the Ku-Klux-Klan when he lived in the West but later on he severed relations with them. He "attended" the sedition trial against the "Christian Front" in Brooklyn and is a follower of Father Coughlin whom he calls "the greatest man in America." He asked me to join hands with him and his "front" in fighting the Jews, but at the same time he advised me to be very careful and not to commit myself openly because the F.B.I. - which is another tool of the Jews - would catch up with me then (he mentioned cases of German friends of his who were interned only because they were turned in by jews whom they had offended). "I get away with it because I have an Irish name" he said.

Mr. McGinley also supported the "America First Committee" and he told me how he brought many hundreds of people to these meetings by furnishing transportation etc. He is still active in spreading as much anti-semitic literature as he can, by writing to members of the armed forces (mailing them literature etc.) and by agitating in the shop where he works. He told me that he hopes pretty soon every factory in America will go on strike and that this may come before the allies can advance much further into Germany, so that internal trouble here will help Hitler in his righteous cause. Mr. McGinley believes in a divine intervention such as has happened in Washington where Judge Rogge (?) dropped over dead while leading a dirty fight against innocent men at the sedition trial. He has a lot of friends at the "Esna" and he brings in pamphlets and books for them to read and to distribute among their acquaintances, all of them being anti-Semitic and opposed to the administration. His contacts are numerous among publishers of the press opposing the administration (editor of "Daily Mirror" and his friend, Mr. J. W. Kaiser, editor of "The Chickasha Star", of whom I am enclosing an article given to me by Mr. McGinley) and various organizations through whom he gets his material. I am attaching a few pamphlets he gave me and I am going to show you other literature (which I cannot mail today) when I get a chance to see you (Speech of Hon. Harlan J. Bushfield in the Senate of the U. S., April 21, 1944 - "The Presidents Foreign Policy Stands on the Record, convicted of Uncertainty & Confusion", a book about Walter Winchell by Joseph P. Kamp, "The Octopus" by Rev. Frank Woodruff Johnson and "The Corruption of America", books that are being passed around by Mr. McGinley and which I have to return shortly.)

This investigation was predicated upon information received from [REDACTED] who advised that the subject, a fellow employee of his at the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation, Union, New Jersey, had uttered pro-German and anti-Semitic remarks at his place of employment, and was believed by the informant to be dangerous to the internal security of this country.

It is to be noted at this point that the informant is of Jewish ancestry, and this is indicated because of the fact that the majority of the Informant's complaints deal with anti-Semitic remarks allegedly made by the subject.

MR. ARTHUR VON DER LINDEN, Personnel Manager of the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation of America, Union, New Jersey, was interviewed, and furnished the following information relative to the subject. He stated that the employment records of the company show that the subject was formerly in the wholesale grocery business for a period of seven years, and at one time he owned a chain of restaurants, all of which are now closed, with the exception of one located in Asbury Park, New Jersey.

The records further show that the subject was a member of the Rotary Club for years. The records further reflect a favorable report on the subject as a result of a check made by the plant protection at this company.

VON DER LINDEN stated that the subject started employment with this company on December 3, 1942, as an inspector in the Shop, and he is still so employed. He advised that the subject is a likeable chap, sincere, conscientious, and "works like a dog." He classified the subject as a good, steady worker, with no absenteeism against his record.

VON DER LINDEN pointed out that as references on his application for employment the subject listed Congressman WILLIAM SUTPHIN of Matawan, New Jersey, DONALD STEINER, State Highway Commissioner for New Jersey, and L. J. ZEHNBAUER, a real estate broker at Union, New Jersey.

By way of background information VON DER LINDEN advised that the subject was born October 13, 1890, in Norman, Oklahoma. His father was CONNELL BERNARD MCGINLEY, who was born February 1, 1851, in Ireland, and is now deceased. His mother is KATHERINE FRITCH, who was born March 14, 1859, at Chillicothe, Ohio, and presently resides at 4210 Roseland Street, Dallas, Texas. The subject is a member of the Knights of Columbus, and is a Roman Catholic.

LOUIS ZEHNBAUER, real estate broker with offices at 996 Stuyvesant Avenue, Union, New Jersey, was interviewed, and advised that he has known the subject for a period of six or seven years, and that the extent of his association with the subject has been through business only. He characterized the subject as a "nut" who is very eccentric. He stated that when he first knew the subject he was an ardent follower of FATHER COUGHLIN and President Roosevelt, but that after FATHER COUGHLIN was forced off his weekly broadcast, the subject blamed President Roosevelt for this, and turned against the President. He believes that the subject is an Isolationist, and bases this belief on the fact that the subject endeavored to get him to go to a peace rally at Madison Square Garden, New York, some two years ago to hear LINDBERGH speak. ZEHNBAUER stated that the subject has on occasions sent FATHER COUGHLIN'S magazine "Social Justice" to his house, although he is unable to advise a reason for the subject's doing this, as he, ZEHNBAUER, never indicated any interest in this magazine. ✓

He stated he never heard the subject make any pro-German or anti-Semitic remarks, and believes that the subject is the type who is easily swayed. He stated that in his opinion the subject is harmless, and is not dangerous to the internal security of this country.

He advised further that the subject has a son in the U. S. Marines, and that the subject has on occasions spoken to ZEHNBAUER relative to setting up his son in the restaurant business after the war is over. He stated further that the subject has on occasions told him that he, the subject, hopes that the U. S. will win not only the war, but also the peace that follows.

The records of the Union, New Jersey Police Department and of the Retail Merchants Credit Bureau were checked for derogatory information on the subject, with negative results:

The following description of subject was furnished by VON DER LINDEN:

Color	White
Height	5' 7½"
Weight	160 pounds

MEMO, SAC

In view of the fact that no derogatory information was developed on the subject, and in view of the further fact that the subject is well regarded by his employer, and also has a son in the U. S. Marine Corps, it is suggested that no further investigation be conducted in the absence of more specific allegations relative to the subject's activities.

BACKGROUND

CONDE J. MCGINLEY presently resides alone in a converted store at 2001-3 Pleasant Parkway, Union, N. J. This building serves as his office and the publication headquarters of the newspaper "Common Sense" of which MCGINLEY is the Owner, Editor and Publisher.

In May 1942, an allegation was supplied to the Newark Office that CELIA BROWN MCGINLEY had requested an employee to contribute 10 per cent of his income to Camp Nordland, a German-American Bund Camp located in Northern New Jersey. On the basis of this allegation, an investigation was conducted by the New Jersey State Police, which organization found no basis for the complaint.

It is noted that the German-American Bund has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States as a Fascist organization coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

During the investigation, it was learned by the New Jersey State Police that CONDE MCGINLEY, SR. was born in Oklahoma and assisted his wife in the operation of a curb service restaurant in Belmar, N. J. At the time of the investigation, he was separated from his wife and was residing at 1259 Stuyvesant Ave., Union, N. J., at which address he was operating a small lunchroom.

In the State Police report, MCGINLEY was reported as being the father of WILLIAM BETTIS MCGINLEY, born in Chickasha, Okla.; CONDE MCGINLEY, JR., born in Oklahoma; and NONA MCGINLEY, born in Oklahoma.

At the time of the State Police investigation, there was no record at the State Bureau of Criminal Identification on any member of the MCGINLEY family.

In late 1946, Newark Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, addressed a letter dated 7/25/46 to the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, indicating that he had become acquainted with an individual whom he considered dangerous to the security of the country in that he was a follower of Hitler and was violently anti-Semitic, CONDE J. MCGINLEY.

In connection with Newark T-2's allegation, a check of personnel records made available by Mr. ARTHUR VON DER LINDEN, Personnel Manager of the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation, Union, N. J., to Special Agent EDWARD J. SHEILS on 2/7/45 reflected that CONDE J. MCGINLEY was employed at that company on 12/3/42 and was serving as an inspector in the shop. MCGINLEY at the time of the check was still so employed. According to VON DER LINDEN, CONDE MCGINLEY was a reliable individual--a sincere, conscientious, steady worker--with no absenteeism on his record.

At the time of application for employment, MCGINLEY had listed as references, Congressman WILLIAM SUTPHIN of Matawan, N. J.; DONALD STEINER, New Jersey State Highway Commissioner; and L. J. ZEHNBAUER, Real Estate Broker, Union, N. J.

The records reflected that MCGINLEY was born in Norman, Okla., on 10/13/90. His father, CONNELL BERNARD MCGINLEY, was born on February 1, 1851 in Ireland, and his mother, CATHERINE FRITCH, was born on March 14, 1859 in Chillicothe, Ohio.

According to LOUIS ZEHNBAUER, Real Estate Broker, 996 Stuyvesant Ave., Union, N. J., who was interviewed by Special Agent EDWARD J. SHEILS on 2/7/45, CONDE MCGINLEY was known to ZEHNBAUER only through business associations. ZEHNBAUER considered CONDE MCGINLEY very eccentric and to be easily swayed. He considered him harmless, of no danger to the country, and stated he had never heard him make either pro-German or anti-Semitic remarks.

PUBLICATION "COMMON SENSE," FORMERLY " THINK WEEKLY"

According to Newark Confidential Informant T-2, who reported in February 1951, in December 1946 or January 1947 CONDE J. MCGINLEY who was publishing a so-called anti-Semitic newspaper called "Think Weekly," set about with the assistance of WILLIAM J. O'BRIEN of Montclair, N. J. to organize an action group which would conduct anti-Communist meetings and rallies in cooperation with the publication and thereby increase the circulation of the paper.

The name of the newspaper "Think Weekly" was changed to "Common Sense" in June 1947.

The action group first called itself the Loyal American Congress and later changed its name to the Loyal American Group.

MERGER WITH THE NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE

Newark Confidential Informant T-2 supplied in February 1951, an undated letter from WILLIAM J. O'BRIEN which had been received by him in the summer of 1949. The letter announced the merger of the Common Sense action group, Loyal American Group, with the Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia. In this letter, it was announced that the Loyal American Group was dropping its name in favor of the Nationalist Action League, that the LAG would be the New Jersey Chapter of the Nationalist Action League, and that the Nationalist Action League under W. HENRY MacFARLAND, JR., Editor and Publisher of the "National Progress," was discontinuing publication in favor of "Common Sense" which would become the organ of the Nationalist Action League.

It is noted that the Nationalist Action League has been cited as a Fascist organization coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

In February 1951, Newark T-2 reported that there had been some discussion at meetings conducted by a group of CONDE MCGINLEY's associates regarding the Nationalist Action League and the announced merger of the New Jersey Loyal American Group with the NAL.

The Informant reported that he believed CONDE MCGINLEY had avoided continuing his association with the Nationalist Action League when it was learned by MCGINLEY that the NAL was attempting to have its name as an organization removed from the Attorney General's list of Fascist organizations.

In February 1952, the Informant reported that at a meeting on 1/25/52 held in the office of "Common Sense," Pleasant Parkway, Union, N. J., CONDE MCGINLEY announced that the group was to participate in a campaign to elect General DOUGLAS MacARTHUR as President. Information on this campaign was to be obtained by writing to one JOHN W. MOORE of 6130 North Hiawatha Ave., Chicago 30, Ill.

Newark T-2 reported in October 1952 that he had attended a meeting of the "Common Sense" Group held on the evening of 7/22/52 at the office of "Common Sense." During this meeting, Mr. WILLIAM O'BRIEN and CONDE MCGINLEY both discussed the Chicago Convention of Nationalists which they had attended early in July. According to the Informant, the invitation to the "Common Sense" meeting was worded so as to indicate that there would be a discussion or report on the Republican Convention when actually the report was on the Nationalist Convention held in Chicago, Ill. from July 4 to July 6, 1952.

WILLIAM O'BRIEN reported at this meeting that the Nationalist Convention meeting was held at the Hotel Atlantic in Chicago, Ill. He indicated that General MacARTHUR and Senator McCARTHY were aware of these convention sessions, but had not addressed the convention.

MCGINLEY announced that the men at the convention fully appreciated the efforts of "Common Sense" and that the group was in full support of MCGINLEY's objectives. MCGINLEY reported that his newspaper "Common Sense" was considered to be "tops" in Nationalist circles and MCGINLEY stated he never realized how important his paper was until he met various leaders of Nationalist groups in Chicago.

It was announced at this meeting that a Mrs. VAN HYNING had presided over a portion of the Chicago meeting. She was identified as the Editor of "The Woman's Voice."

According to the Informant, it was announced at this meeting that among the delegates to the convention of Nationalists, which was held for the purpose of uniting various Nationalist groups, were Mrs. ELIZABETH DILLING, a Mr. FAGAN, and two Catholic priests from Chicago whose names were, to the best of the Informant's recollection, FLANIGAN and McNAMARA, both of whom were enthusiastic about the newspaper "Common Sense" and offered to distribute the newspaper at special gatherings.

It was announced that one of the speakers at the Nationalist Convention was a Reverend MacARTHUR, a cousin of General MacARTHUR, who brought out the fact that General MacARTHUR was "on their side."

During this particular meeting, according to the Informant, it was announced that the circulation of "Common Sense" had reached 30,000 and that it was estimated that each issue was read by at least five persons, making the reader total 150,000.

According to the Informant, near the end of the July 22 meeting in Union, a discussion was brought up regarding the establishment of a third party.

The Informant reported that during a meeting in the office of "Common Sense" held on 8/22/52, there was further discussion of the formation of a third party. At this meeting, a bulletin captioned "Common Sense Press Alliance Dispatch On a New Party" was distributed in which was printed the following message:

"Dear Patriot:

"All who are informed know the Marxist World Government forces have taken over both parties thus forcing the people to choose between two candidates who dare not antagonize each other. . . Millions of good Americans are sick at heart. They see no point in choosing between two evils. They want a real party they can trust, one that is directed by real Americans and not International Marxists."

JK 105-995

The next paragraph in the letter summarizes decisions made at a four-day conference in Chicago during which the kind of a party which would be of interest to pro-American patriots was organized. The temporary officers were listed as PERCY GREAVES, JR., Washington, D. C., Chairman; S. M. ANNE SILVERCUP STEVENSON, Co-Chairman and Treasurer; and PHILIP LEE EUBANK, San Antonio, Texas, Secretary.

The last paragraph in the Dispatch asked that encouragement and funds be sent to "The New Party" to Mrs. SUSANNE STEVENSON, Crestland Farm, North Windham, Conn.

The 6/15/52 issue of "Common Sense," which was apparently late in being printed, contains a three-column report on the Nationalist Convention held in Chicago July 4 to July 6, 1952. The article indicates that both WILLIAM O'BRIEN, a representative of "Common Sense," and CONDE MCGINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense," spoke during the convention.

INTERNAL SECURITY - X

Newark is receiving an increasing number of letters from field offices throughout the United States advising of complaints received regarding the newspaper "Common Sense," which is being received in the mail by the complainants.

It is believed that the Bureau may wish to furnish, as part of an SAC Letter or Bureau Bulletin, all offices with a sketch on this publication and its editor, and to that end the following is being submitted:

CONDE J. MCGINLEY
530 Chestnut St., Union, N. J.
Post Office Box 807, Chestnut St. Station
U. S. Post Office
Union, N. J.

CONDE J. MCGINLEY, who at one time used the pen name GEORGE SHELTON, was born October 13, 1890 in Norman, Oklahoma. He resided there until 1930 when he moved to Dallas, Texas. After his residence in Dallas, he moved to the New Jersey seashore resort town of Balmar and he assisted his wife in the establishment and operation of a small chain of curb service restaurants known as Gelia Brown's. The restaurants operated successfully during the early 1930's up to 1941. In 1941, the enterprises failed and the MCGINLEYS opened a restaurant at Fort Dix, N. J. (a U. S. Army installation). This restaurant was also a failure as was another venture at Wrightstown, N. J.

In 1944, according to a report received at Newark by the State Police, MCGINLEY and his wife had separated. He was residing at 1259 Stuyvesant Ave., Union, N. J., where he operated a small lunchroom. His wife and unmarried child were residing at 7 Village Rd., Old Mill Farm Village, Wall Township, R.F.D. Sea Girt, N. J.

During World War II, MCGINLEY was employed as an inspector at the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation of America, Union, N. J., where he was considered to be a hard worker, to be patriotic, with a son in the U. S. Marine Corps, and a follower of Father COUGHLIN.

According to Confidential Informant [] who met MCGINLEY in 1944, CONDE J. MCGINLEY was in no way un-American or anti-American, but was sympathetic with Germany on the grounds that the Germans were fighting Communism and that the portion of Nazi philosophy which dictated the extermination of all Jews was a correct one. The Informant has reported that MCGINLEY and his associates are violently anti-Semitic, that they consider themselves "Nationalists," and that they are dedicated to the "saving of America from the invisible government or world government of Zionism." MCGINLEY and his associates, according to the Informant, consider Communism as but a part of the plot of Zionism for world government and the defeat of Christianity.

"COMMON SENSE," FORMERLY "THINK WEEKLY"

According to the files of the Newark Office, CONDE J. MCGINLEY started a modest publication known as "Think Weekly" in July, 1946. His paper was dedicated to the fight against the Communist threat to Christianity. It is reported that the paper met with some success with local religious groups and service clubs and MCGINLEY was invited to speak before these religious groups and service organizations. He appears to have been particularly welcome at local Roman Catholic parish meetings at which his attack upon Communism was well received.

In June, 1946, the name of the publication was changed to "Common Sense." The size of the publication was increased from letter size to tabloid and was then captioned "The Nation's Anti-Communist Paper."

At first, the publication "Common Sense" used the theme of Christianity against Communism. Review of items appearing in the paper reflects that in these articles, MCGINLEY invariably referred to Communists as "Zionist Marxists" which tends to bear out the report of the Informant that MCGINLEY was militantly anti-Semitic, that he considered all Jews as Communists, and that he considered Communism as a part of the Zionist plot for world domination.

In the past several years, the articles appearing in "Common Sense" have become openly anti-Jewish and the editor has adopted the practice of placing the word "Jew" in brackets after the name of those he attacks.

Director, FBI

In December, 1946, CONDE J. MCGINLEY organized an action group to aid in the distribution and sale of his newspaper. The group called itself the "Loyal American Group" and under the direction of MCGINLEY, held monthly meetings and sponsored open lectures on Communism. The Loyal American Group also set up a speakers' bureau, making available lecturers on Communism.

One of the guest speakers at these lectures was HENRY McFARLAND of the "Philadelphia Nationalist Action League." According to the Informant, McFARLAND and MCGINLEY frequently conferred with each other and exchanged anti-Semitic articles and literature which are apparently received in large volume by both MCGINLEY and McFARLAND.

In the summer of 1949, an announcement appeared in "Common Sense" indicating that it, "Common Sense," was to become the official organ of the Nationalist Action League. The Loyal American Group was to become the New Jersey unit of the Nationalist Action League. It is noted that the Nationalist Action League was cited by the Attorney General as a Fascist organization coming within the purview of Executive Order 10450. According to the Informant, this merger did not last long either because of a misunderstanding between MCGINLEY or McFARLAND, or more likely because MCGINLEY had learned of the above citation in connection with the Nationalist Action League's efforts to have itself removed from the Attorney General's list.

Following the unannounced discontinuation of this alliance with the Nationalist Action League, meetings of the MCGINLEY group were held under no organizational sponsorship, but were held and announced as simply under the auspices of "Common Sense."

Until March, 1953, "Common Sense" was published from the address 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, N. J. Mail for MCGINLEY and "Common Sense" was received through Post Office Box 428, Union, N. J. The 2001 Pleasant Parkway address is a converted store which served as publication office and home of CONDE MCGINLEY.

According to the Informant, MCGINLEY lives on the bare necessities of life, devoting all his time, energy and the monies received for subscriptions and as donations to the publication of his newspaper "Common Sense."

The Informant has reported that MCGINLEY claims that his circulation is between 200,000 and 300,000 copies of each issue. He uses telephone books, organizational lists and any available source to make up his mailing lists. This item tends to explain why so many offices throughout the country have advised Newark of complaints received from indignant people who do not know how or why they have been sent such a publication.

In March, 1953, CONDE J. MCGINLEY, according to the Informant, moved to 530 Chestnut St., Union, N. J. According to the Informant, this address was an abandoned roadhouse tavern which is now used as the publishing office and home of CONDE MCGINLEY. According to the Informant, MCGINLEY purchased this property for $36,000 but has only paid approximately $10,000 to date for the property.

In the summer of 1952, CONDE J. MCGINLEY attended the Nationalist Convention in Chicago and is reported to have addressed the convention in connection with his newspaper "Common Sense." He is reported to have advised his associates upon his return from the convention held early in July that he was amazed with the reports he had received at the convention on how well received was his paper "Common Sense."

According to a report made by Confidential Informant [redacted] on 11/27/53, MCGINLEY's latest issue of "Common Sense" will be given a distribution of 1,000,000 copies. MCGINLEY's specific objective with this issue is to get his paper into the hands of law enforcement officials and legislators.

According to reports received at Newark from time to time, CONDE J. MCGINLEY has contact with numerous organizations and some of these organizations are of interest to the Bureau in connection with overall intelligence activities. A few of the organizations are as follows:

- The White Circle League of America
- The Nationalist Action League (now defunct)
- The American Committee for Advancement of Western Culture
- The Constitutional Educational League
- The National Renaissance Party
- Voters Alliance of Americans of German Ancestry

A copy of this letter is being submitted to Cincinnati in answer to a request for background information on MCGINLEY and the newspaper "Common Sense" made in a letter dated 10/23/53.

Rabbi wins point in suit

The appellate division of superior court yesterday denied an appeal of a lower court's refusal to strike out certain parts of a libel suit against the editor of the periodical Common Sense.

Editor ~~Conde McGinley~~ is being sued for libel by Rabbi Joachim Prinz of Temple B'nai Abraham here.

McGinley's attorney, D. C. Baker, asked Gloucester County Judge John B. Wick, sitting in Essex County, to delete parts of Dr. Prinz's suit on the ground that it was not "libelous per se" to call a person Red, communistic or revolutionary.

Judge Wick refused to strike any parts from the libel complaint and the defendant asked permission to appeal this ruling. In refusing the appeal, however, the appellate division granted McGinley's attorney time to file an answering brief on Judge Wicks' order before the action is brought to trial. The libel suit arose from an article published in the newspaper on April 1, 1952.

(H) "COMMON SENSE" FORMERLY "THINK WEEKLY" CONDE J. MC GINLEY, EDITOR INTERNAL SECURITY - X -- Numerous inquiries have been received by the Newark Office from other offices advising of complaints received regarding the newspaper "Common Sense," which is being sent through the mail to the complainants. It was reported in November, 1953, by a reliable informant of the Newark Office that Conde J. McGinley planned to circulate one million copies of his latest issue of "Common Sense."

In view of the above, a brief summary of McGinley's background as well as that of "Common Sense" is being set forth below for your information.

Conde J. McGinley has been described by a reliable informant as being sympathetic with Germany during World War II because Germany was fighting Communism and because he felt that portion of Nazi philosophy directed against the Jews was a correct one. The informant stated that McGinley and his associates are violently anti-Semitic, that they consider themselves "Nationalist," and that they are dedicated to the "saving of America from the invisible government or world government of Zionism."

McGinley started publishing "Think Weekly" in July, 1946. This newspaper was reported to be dedicated to the fight against the Communist threat to Christianity. Later in 1946, McGinley changed the title of his newspaper to "Common Sense." A review of the articles appearing in "Common Sense" reflects this newspaper to be anti-Semitic and anti-Communist.

In December, 1946, McGinley organized a group in New Jersey for the purpose of aiding in the distribution and sale of his newspaper. This group, which was then known as the Loyal American Group, became affiliated in September, 1949, with the Nationalist Action League headed by Henry McFarland of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The informant reported that this merger was short-lived either because of a misunderstanding between McGinley and McFarland or because McGinley learned that the Nationalist Action League had been cited as a Fascist organization by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 9835. It is noted that the Nationalist Action League was re-cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The informant has advised that McGinley claims the circulation of "Common Sense" is between 200,000 and 300,000 copies of each issue. In this connection, McGinley uses telephone directories and organizational lists in order to make up his mailing lists. This would explain why many offices are receiving complaints from individuals who have received unsolicited copies of "Common Sense" through the mail.

"Common Sense" is published by McGinley at his residence, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey.

Re memo of Special Agent ROBERT J. VON TERSCH dated 1/25/54.

On January 25, 1954 Special Agent ROBERT J. VON TERSCH was advised by Police Chief WILBUR W. PERSONNET (pho) that EDWARD REISS, Telephone #Chestnut 5-5639, who resides in Union, New Jersey, had some information concerning a printing press at 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey. This press was supposedly used for the printing of Communist literature.

On February 26, 1954 the writer interviewed Mailman RAYMOND FAGET, who delivers mail to the above address. He advised that CONTE MC GINLEY resides at 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey and that he is the publisher of a pamphlet called "Common Sense".

Newark File 100-12252 is the Master File on CONTE MC GINLEY. Inasmuch as the Newark files contain information concerning this individual and the publication, this memo is submitted for informational purposes only. The publication is alleged to be pro-German, anti-Communist and anti-Semitic.

NEO-FASCIST & "HATE GROUPS"
IS - X

Under date of 12/22/54, WFO supplied this office with a copy of the House Committee on Un-American Activities report on Neo-Fascist & "Hate Groups", dated 12/17/54.

The report discussed the National Renaissance Party at some length under the caption, "Neo-Fascism in the United States", page 3.

On page 10, under "Hate Group", there appears a thorough discussion on "Common Sense" and its publisher, CONDE J. MC GINLEY, SR. The material on "Common Sense" covers the organization and the publishing title, CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, the nature of the propaganda published, cooperation with other propagandists, circulation, and finances.

It is suggested that a file be established for the channeling of information of this nature.

The report of the HCUA should be exhibited in this file.

Dear Sirs:

In "I Led Three Lives" the author describes a political campaign in which the Communists used tactics almost identical with those described in the article enclosed.

I'm sorry I mislaid it for so long, but I feel sure you ~~already~~ have your eye on ~~Mr. Josephson~~ and Mr. Mc Guire - It would seem to me they would be watching.

Sincerely yours,

Anti-Defamation Heads, Stine. Confer In McGinley Probe

Prosecutor Meets With Stamler In Study Of 'Common Sense,' Accused Of Anti-Semitism
—Paper Published In Union Drew Protests

Representatives of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith met with Prosecutor H. Douglas Stine yesterday at the courthouse in the probe of "Common Sense," a semi-monthly newspaper published in Union.

Mr. Stine said nothing new was developed at the session, and added that the investigation is continuing. He said he has received back issues of the paper from Conde McGinley of 530 Chestnut St., Union, publisher.

The publication has been accused of anti-Semitism.

Meeting with the prosecutor were Nelson F. Stamler of Union, executive chairman of the New Jersey regional board of the ADL, and Zvi Sobel of Newark, a field representative for the group.

Action Discussed

They gave Mr. Stine added material and discussed possible lines of action in the investigation. Mr. Stamler said today the ADL plans to meet again with the prosecutor on the issue.

The prosecutor declined any comment on the publication pending the outcome of the investigation by his office and Union police. He said the FBI is being informed on the progress of the probe because the distribution of the paper apparently is an interstate matter.

Mr. McGinley sent back issues of his newspaper voluntarily, Mr. Stine said. There were about 25 copies in the package, the prosecutor said. He added that Mr. McGinley claims he mails a copy of each issue to the FBI.

Letters of Protest

The prosecutor initiated a probe of the Union publication when his office received a number of protesting letters. The correspondence followed the recent temple bombings in Atlanta, Ga., and Peoria, Ill., he said.

Mr. Stine said he has one letter which is favorable to the paper. It came from a New York resident who described "Common Sense" as an anti-Communist paper. The remainder of his mail protests the publication, he said.

The prosecutor said the current phase of the "Common Sense" investigation involves a Union police check on distribution in the township. He expects a report shortly.

On 10/16/58, Mr. TEX NOVALINO, of the "New York Journal", stationed at the Newark, N.J., Press Room, Market 2-5400, Extension 27, called, and advised that his New York Office had requested him to communicate with this office to determine if the FBI is making any investigation of the Christian Education Association, CONDE MC GINLEY, and the magazine, "Common Sense". I advised Mr. NOVALINO that I would call him back promptly.

I discussed this matter with Inspector [REDACTED] Crime Records Section, of the Bureau, and furnished him the background of our previous investigation of MC GINLEY and the magazine, "Common Sense". I pointed out that it was outspokenly anti-Semitic. I also pointed out that we had on Bureau instructions recently reopened the investigation. After advising Mr. DELOACH of Mr. NOVALINO's inquiry, Mr. DELOACH recommended that we advise news reporters that we could make no comment at all.

Mr. NOVALINO's call was returned to him, and he was advised that we could make no comment. It was interesting to note that Mr. NOVALINO pointed out that he had already told his New York Office that we would not comment, as he knew the Bureau's policy of making no comment if we were conducting an active investigation.

CORRELATION MEMO

44-253-2 Little Rock teletype to Director, New York and Newark, dated 9-26-57 and captioned "Integration in public schools in Arkansas, CR, Contempt of Court." This teletype reflects the following: Re NY tel Sept. 12 last advising one package of publication "Common Sense" was being shipped to W. J. SMITH, Little Rock, Ark. It is noted this publication is published by the CONDE MC GINLEY Publisher of New Jersey. The particular edition was the issue dated Aug. 1, 1957, which had an article entitled, "NAACP Leaders With Their Communist Front Citations." Inasmuch as WILLIAM J. SMITH is the personal attorney for Governor FAUBUS, it would be of interest to ascertain if these publications were sent to Mr. SMITH, noting that there is a WILL J. SMITH who is a known segregationist in Little Rock and there is considerable confusion among the people between these two individuals. Since this publication has been disseminated and reported in the press as having been so distributed at the scene at Little Rock Central High School, it would appear that a direct inquiry could be made without embarrassment to the bureau at the publishing house in New Jersey in order to identify and obtain the specific address of the W. J. SMITH who was the recipient of one package of the publication "COMMON SENSE". Newark should also attempt to ascertain the identity and address of any other individuals in Little Rock who received any sizeable shipment of this publication, including H. F. COOK, who received a package at the same time as W. J. SMITH. Newark is requested to make this check promptly unless advised to the contrary by New York office, who furnished the original information from a confidential source. It is believed this information can now be obtained without revealing the identity of the source.

44-253-3 New York teletype to Newark, dated 9-27-57 and captioned "Integration in Public Schools in Arkansas, CR, Contempt of Court, re Little Rock tel 9-26-57." It is reflected that who has furnished reliable information in the past recontacted 9-27-57, and advised 44-253-3 Cont'd. SA JAMES P. MARTIN that this source received info mentioned in NY tel 9-12-57 from an investigator working for [redacted] termed reliable but whose identity this source does not desire to disclose. [redacted] believes that any mention of the names W. J. SMITH or H. F. COOK to CONDE McGINLEY, publisher of "COMMON SENSE" unless the latter first makes mention of these names would probably indicate to McGINLEY the source of this info since MC GINLEY was very secretive about sending the packages to these two individuals in Little Rock. Source says any general inquiry of McGINLEY re identities of persons in or about Little Rock to whom McGINLEY may have recently sent bundles of the August 1, 1957, issue of "COMMON SENSE" would in no way disclose source of this info since it could be pointed out to McGINLEY that numerous copies of this issue have recently been distributed to people at the scene at Little Rock High School. Newark should, accordingly, conduct interview of McGINLEY along these lines. If McGINLEY then mentions W. J. SMITH or H. F. COOK as recipients in Little Rock of this issue, questions can then be asked of MC GINLEY to further identify same. Newark telephonically advised.

44-253-12 Newark report of SA Andrew R. Babyak, dated 10-6-57 and captioned "Integration in Public Schools in Arkansas" Civil Rights; Contempt of Court. It is reflected that information was received by the Newark Office on September 26, 1957, from the New York Office of the FBI to the effect that copies of the August 1, 1957, issue of the weekly newspaper "COMMON SENSE" published at 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey, had been disseminated in the vicinity of Little Rock Central High School, Little Rock, Arkansas. New York advised further that CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "COMMON SENSE," on September 11, 1957, mailed 2,000 copies of the August 1, 1957, issue of his paper to an unknown addressee in the Little Rock, Arkansas, area and that he had planned to send 2,000 copies more. It is to be noted that under date of December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U. S. House of Representatives published a preliminary report on "Neo-Fascist" and "hate groups," in which report "COMMON SENSE" is described as a hate group vehicle publishing "...some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee." According to the report, "Common Sense" devotes many of its pages to attacks on the Negro minorities in our nation. CONDE McGINLEY, Editor of "COMMON SENSE," was interviewed at his office, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey. He stated that his paper has

44-253-12 Cont'd. fewer than 50 regular subscribers in the State of Arkansas and that prior to the Little Rock integration problem only 5 of these subscribers were located in the Little Rock area. MCGINLEY stated that according to his personal recollection he received a few requests for extra copies of the August 1, 1957, issue of his paper from the Little Rock area shortly after the issue was published but that none of these requests was for a large quantity of extra copies. He stated that all of these requests were received prior to the outbreak of the integration problem in Little Rock and that according to his recollection no requests for extra copies has been received from that area since the integration problem in Little Rock first came to national attention. MCGINLEY advised that his statements as to the number of copies sent to Little Rock of necessity were based on his personal recollection, inasmuch as he purposely does not maintain any records regarding such requests for extra copies of any particular issue of his paper. MCGINLEY stated that if issues of his paper have been distributed in the Little Rock area in sizeable quantity, these issues must have their immediate source elsewhere than his publishing house in Union, New Jersey. He stated that in his personal opinion the issues found in Little Rock very possibly may have been brought in from one of the neighboring states to which he recalls having sent, on special request, sizeable quantities of the August 1, 1957, issue of his paper. He recalled specifically that he sent 12 separate bundles of 4,000 copies each to 12 separate subscribers in the State of Alabama shortly after the release of the August 1, 1957, issue. MCGINLEY declined to identify the Alabama subscribers or any other subscribers to whom he had sent sizeable quantities of the August 1, 1957, issue. He likewise declined to identify the individuals in Little Rock, Arkansas, who subscribed to his paper.

44-253-7 New York teletype dated 10-1-57 and captioned "Integration in Public Schools, State of Arkansas, CR, Contempt of Court." Re Little Rock tel to Bureau 9-26-57, and Newark Tel, 9-27-57. It is reflected that [redacted] advised this date that CONDE MCGINLEY, Union, N. J. had been visited by two FBI agents on 9-27-57, and he appeared very upset after they had left. He attempted to make a long distance telephone call for several hours after agents left, apparently in connection with their visit. Approximately 8 P.M. on 9-27-57, he completed the call which was made from a public pay telephone across street from his residence in Union, N. J. He made call from telephone Murdock 8-5692. Informant understood the charges were five dollars and thirty-five cents. Newark requested to ascertain to whom call was made.

[redacted] attended this convention which was held at the Como-Inn Restaurant and Hall, 546 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and furnished the following information both orally and by written report to SA [redacted] on 7-20-52. The informant's report is maintained in SL file 66-1935A. One of the speakers was CONDE MCGINLEY, editor of the newspaper "Common Sense" which is published twice monthly at Union, New Jersey. He strongly attacked the Jewish race, stating that all of our troubles are rooted in the Jews because they are the ones behind the Russians. He stated that he is now devoting his full time to the publishing of "Common Sense", which has reached nation wide circulation. MCGINLEY described several attempts which have been made on his life and on the lives of his employees. He stated that these attacks, as well as other attacks against his printing plant, were made by "Communist Jews" who sought to stop the publication of "Common Sense."

[redacted] who furnished a written report concerning complete activities at the Nationalist Convention to SA [redacted] furnished the following information concerning the Nationalist Convention held at Como Inn in Chicago July 4-6, 1952: One of the speakers was CONDE MC GINLAY, of "Common Sense", which is published in Union, New Jersey. He spoke about the ANNA ROSENBERG case, the influence of DAVID LILIENTHAL in the AEC, and said the Jews were always found in all key places. He attacked the Anti-Defamation League and said it should be investigated by the FBI. MC GINLAY said JOHN EDGAR HOOVER of the FBI has all the facts in the case and will be asked to take action against the Anti-Defamation League.

100-40285-1,2 Newark letter to Director, dated 1-13-55 and captioned "Ten Million Americans For McCarthy" Information Concerning. It is reflected that on 12-19-54 and 12-29-54 Mr. JAMES J. MC INTYRE, 161 Belmont Ave., Jersey City, N. J., telephonically contacted the Newark Office requesting information concerning EDWARD FLECKENSTEIN, 39 King Ave., Weehawken, N. J. MC INTYRE was advised that the Bureau files are confidential and the Newark Office would be unable to comply with his request. MC INTYRE identified himself as being Director of the N. J. organization, "Ten Million Americans for McCarthy" and at the present time he was greatly concerned over EDWARD FLECKENSTEIN, who MC INTYRE had appointed as Co-Chairman of the N. J. Chapter of that organization. MC INTYRE stated he has recently become suspicious of FLECKENSTEIN and his associates, namely MULLENS (ph) and an individual by the name of MC GINLEY. According to MC INTYRE he was introduced by FLECKENSTEIN to these two individuals and he has become greatly concerned over an article appearing in the 12-25-54 issue of the "New York Times" and the "New York Herald Tribune." According to MC INTYRE, MULLENS and MC GINLEY are described in the articles as being implicated in subversive groups. In view of FLECKENSTEIN's association with these two individuals, MC INTYRE was concerned with the adverse publicity which may reflect on him as well as the organization of which he is Director, namely "Ten Million Americans for McCarthy." Newark indices reflect a closed main file on [redacted], and a closed file, [redacted] b7D FLECKENSTEIN was interviewed by Bureau agents on 12-15-53 and admitted being President of the Voters Alliance for Americans of German Ancestry. FLECKENSTEIN was subsequently described by New York as unreliable and a known homosexual in the New York City area. MC INTYRE advised that he does not want the activities of these individuals to reflect on his reputation of being a loyal American nor does he desire to have a reflection case upon the organization which he heads. It is noted that MC INTYRE is also President of the Jersey City regular Republican organization and President of the New Jersey Veterans League. It is believed that the MC GINLEY referred to is CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense" publication in Union, N. J., about which information has previously been furnished to the Bureau.

105-1246-1-2 New York report of SA Willard A. Gortner, dated 7-24-53 and captioned "Frederick Charles Ferdinand Weiss, wa: Fritz W. Le Blanc" IS-X. It is reflected that this investigation was predicated upon receipt of information from Confidential Informant T-1 [redacted], of known reliability, that FREDERICK CHARLES FERDINAND WEISS is the organizing influence behind the pro-German, neo-Nazi organizations in the United States, and may be working in collaboration with the "Russkys", who contacted WEISS early in 1953. In April of 1953, T-1 advised that WEISS is the owner of Le Blanc Publishers, Incorporated, Box 155, 208 East 86th Street, New York City, and that through this business, he writes and distributes anti-Semitic, pro-German literature. During January of 1950, "The New York Post and Home News", commonly known as "The New York Post", a well-known New York newspaper, carried a series of articles by OLIVER PILAT, a reporter, with regard to the alleged rise of Nazism in the Yorkville section of New York City, which section is populated by people predominately of German ancestry. The article appearing in the issue of January 10, 1950, mentions FREDERICK CHARLES FERDINAND WEISS in his discussion of the all German issue of CONDE MC GINLEY'S "Common Sense" Magazine, ten thousand issues of which were distributed in the Yorkville section during the Spring of 1949.

[redacted] T-1 advised that the NRP has been headed by JAMES MADOLE, who originally organized the party. MADOLE is characterized by T-1 as being mentally unstable, a coward who has no will whatsoever of his own; further, that in the Spring of 1953, the NRP had been infiltrated by two elements which T-1 personally believes to be partially Communist and partially agents for the Anti-Nazi League and the Anti-Defamation League. According to T-1, FREDERICK C. F. WEISS is an alien German, who owns an apartment house in White Plains, New York, and a farm in Middletown, New York; further, that WEISS is practically a senile old man now, who loves to write and who is unable to get anyone to publish his writings. For this reason, according to T-1, WEISS has consistently donated money to JAMES MADOLE, inasmuch as MADOLE would print anything and everything which WEISS prepared; further, that in view of the extremely adverse publicity which has been received by the NRP recently, that within the past two weeks, WEISS has ordered MADOLE to cease holding NRP meetings. T-1 advised that EDWARD A. FLECKENSTEIN was introduced to WEISS by CONDE MC GINLEY. MC GINLEY is the editor of a newspaper "Common Sense" published in Union, New Jersey, and allegedly extremely anti-Semitic.

This memo reflects that FLOYD FLEMING had been interviewed by BEN BAGDIKIAN of the Providence Journal on 11-14-58. BAGDIKIAN spent two hours with FLEMING. BAGDIKIAN asked FLEMING about his contact with CONDE MC GINLEY. FLEMING mentioned that MC GINLEY was a fine man, that he has a great deal to do with MC GINLEY, and has helped to circulate "Common Sense." FLEMING denied responsibility for the recent anonymous mailing of "Common Sense" in the greater Providence area. He admitted making large deliveries of "Common Sense" for MC GINLEY, but said he was not responsible for what happened in Rhode Island. He admitted that he had met JOHN KASPER through MC GINLEY and that the first time he saw KASPER was when he delivered 1,000 copies of "Common Sense" to KASPER at the latter's book store.

The source does not know the exact purpose of the trip but believes it is to make arrangements for ROCKWELL to receive financial support and receive publications from MC GINLEY for distribution in the Washington, D. C., area. Regarding ROCKWELL, he organized the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists which is a Nazi-type organization and calls for the execution of all Jews guilty of Communist and Zionist treason and the repatriation of Negroes to Africa. FLEMING is the President of the Seaboard White Citizens Councils, an organization organized in Washington, D. C., in 1956 to oppose integration. This memorandum is loaned to you by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and neither it nor its contents are to be distributed outside the agency to which loaned.

100-40779-1B1-6 Photostatic copy of a 31 page pamphlet identified as having been printed by the New Jersey Associates of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee and containing on the cover a quote from the Detroit Free Press, 10-27-47, received from Mr. JOHN MC CORD, 2505 Highland Avenue, Montgomery, Ala., on 3-30-56. Under the heading "Before the Event" and the sub-heading "We Welcome the Committee!" the following is reflected: The advance build-up accorded the Committee by its local supporters began again with redoubled vigor. The customary civic, fraternal and veterans' groups fell over each other in welcoming the House probers to Newark. The Essex County Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion and the Catholic War Veterans commanders were among the first to do so. The Daughters of the American Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution roused themselves, suggesting indeed that a military band be on hand at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station to welcome the Committee. There were other voices--familiar voices--joining the chorus of welcome. They included the Anti-Communist League of New Jersey, Vigilant Women for the Bricker Amendment, and the publication COMMON SENSE. Such backing for both the Committee and its supporters apparently proved no embarrassment whatsoever, despite the notorious, public records of bigotry of these groups. Nor did the Committee disclaim support from such racists as [redacted] who once boasted of his financial contributions to the British Fascist, Sir OSWALD MOSLEY; or [redacted] of For America and the D.A.R. who touched off a storm of protest throughout New Jersey because of her anti-Semitism in 1954 when she berated the use of Kosher labels on 'American' products; and the incredibly vile racist, CONDE MC GINLEY of Union, New Jersey, who has just lost a libel and slander suit to one of the state's most eminent rabbis, Dr. JOACHIM PRINZ of Temple B'nai Abraham of Newark. There was no blinking the fact. The advance build-up for the Committee on Un-American Activities smacked of the hey-day of Senator MC CARTHY. "We cordially welcome the Committee!" summed up the Star-Ledger.

REPORT MADE AT NEW YORK	DATE WHEN MADE 4/13/51	PERIOD FOR WHICH MADE 3/14-17, 21, 22, 27-30/51	REPORT MADE BY JAMES P. MARTIN

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Inquiries made at four microfilm outlet companies, NYC, reflect said companies have no knowledge of any approach by DE SOLA to purchase microfilm equipment or efforts by DE SOLA to obtain employment from them. CONDE MCGINLEY furnished information re his dealings with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. MCGINLEY knew of only one bank account for FREEDMAN, namely at Tradesmen's National Bank and Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa. MCGINLEY said FREEDMAN paid International Press of Wallington, New Jersey, directly for the printing of issue of November 1, 1950, of "Common Sense." Background information on International Press, on Benart Mail Sales Service, on [redacted] and on RUSSELL MAGUIRE set out. Records of Edwards Motors reflect $1953.51 was paid to that company, November 11, 1950, for purchase of 1950 Lincoln Cosmopolitan Sedan in name of ROSE FREEDMAN, wife of BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. ROSE FREEDMAN alleged to have bank account at Corn Exchange Bank, NYC.

INTERVIEW OF CONDE MCGINLEY

At Newark, New Jersey.

CONDE MCGINLEY, 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, New Jersey, was interviewed at the Newark Office by SA PAUL F. DINSMORE of the Newark Office and the writer. During this interview, CONDE MCGINLEY was accompanied by [redacted]

CONDE MCGINLEY advised that he is presently the Editor of a publication entitled, "Common Sense," which, MCGINLEY said, is a semi-monthly newspaper. He advised that the offices of the newspaper are maintained at 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, New Jersey.

MCGINLEY was shown a copy of the publication entitled, "Know the Truth," Volume Number One, Number 1, said issue dated January 2, 1951, which publication contains information concerning BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN and deals with FREEDMAN'S testimony and activities concerning the hearings before the Armed Services Committee of the Senate in regard to the nomination of ANNA M. ROSENBERG as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

NY 62-10641

The issue of "Know the Truth" reflects information concerning dealings between CONDE MCGINLEY and BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN.

CONDE MCGINLEY said that he had seen this issue of "Know the Truth" and advised that he knew that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had published this issue of "Know the Truth," and that he had ascertained that said issue had been printed by the International Press Corporation, Wallington, New Jersey.

CONDE MCGINLEY said that he had had some difficulty with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN concerning an issue of "Common Sense," which was to have been published shortly after Christmas, 1950. He said that, since that time, he has had no business dealings with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, but has spoken to FREEDMAN several times on the telephone. Therefore, he considers himself back on a friendly basis with FREEDMAN. He stated at the outset that he desired to point out that he had always considered BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN to be a very truthful person and, he said, despite business disagreements with FREEDMAN, he still held to that opinion. He further said that, in his opinion, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN was a very sincere man who was interested in combating Communism, and a person who considered that certain people in this country who were interested in Zionism also held to Communist principals. MCGINLEY said that, accordingly, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had opposed certain "Zionists" who FREEDMAN thought also were supporters of Communism. MCGINLEY added further that it was his opinion that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN did not attack all people of the Jewish religion as being pro-Communist, but only those who FREEDMAN felt by their activities indicated that they were more loyal to Communism than to the United States.

MCGINLEY said that he, himself, had for many years been attempting to oppose Communism in this country, mainly through his present publication, "Common Sense," of which he is the Editor.

MCGINLEY said that in about the middle of 1948, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had contacted MCGINLEY by telephone probably because FREEDMAN had known of MCGINLEY'S principles, which, MCGINLEY said, were reflected in his publication, "Common Sense." MCGINLEY said that he did not recall exactly why FREEDMAN had first contacted him, but expressed the view that this might have been done through [redacted] an Attorney. MCGINLEY said that he had known [redacted] prior to 1948, and said that he believes that [redacted] had represented BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN as Attorney in several matters. He said that it was his opinion that [redacted] may have urged FREEDMAN to contact MCGINLEY to further the alleged efforts of MCGINLEY to combat Communism.

NY 62-10641

MCGINLEY said that during 1948, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had loaned CONDE MCGINLEY an amount somewhere between $7000 and $7500 upon an oral promise by CONDE MCGINLEY to reimburse BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. He said that these sums were advanced to him by FREEDMAN in the form of bank checks, and he advised that all these checks of FREEDMAN were drawn on the Tradesmen's National Bank and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. MCGINLEY said that he knows of no other bank account for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN other than the above-mentioned bank account at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He further said that these monies advanced to him in 1948 by FREEDMAN were advanced to him to assist in the publication and issuance of his semi-monthly newspaper, "Common Sense."

MCGINLEY said further that in 1948, in addition to the above amount advanced to him by FREEDMAN, FREEDMAN had paid other expenses of the newspaper, "Common Sense," such as mail service expenses and expenses for setting up type. MCGINLEY recalls that FREEDMAN paid these expenses directly to some typographer located in New York City, whose name MCGINLEY does not recall. MCGINLEY said that he has never repaid to BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN any of the monies advanced to him by FREEDMAN during 1948.

MCGINLEY said that, to the best of his recollection, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had advanced no money to him or to his newspaper, "Common Sense," during the year of 1949. MCGINLEY said that, if FREEDMAN paid any expenses for the publication of "Common Sense" during 1949, it must have been a very small amount since MCGINLEY could not recall such.

MCGINLEY recalls that, during 1948, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN "took two complete issues" of the newspaper, "Common Sense." MCGINLEY explained that, at times people come to him and say that they have some point that they desire to put across through the press and these people ask him if they can take a complete edition of "Common Sense," which edition will contain only their particular writings. MCGINLEY said that on a few occasion he has done this and has permitted people to pay the full expenses of the publication of that particular issue of "Common Sense," which issue would contain only the writings of the person paying the full expenses of the publication of that issue. MCGINLEY said that on these occasions he has edited the written material submitted by the person paying the expenses for this particular issue, and he said that, otherwise, he has had nothing to do with the printing of that issue or with the material that goes into that issue.

MCGINLEY said that, in regard to these two complete issues of "Common Sense" which were taken by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN during 1948, FREEDMAN would have submitted all the written material that was to go into each of these two issues and then, after editing by CONDE MCGINLEY or possibly by someone on the staff of MCGINLEY, this written material of BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN would comprise the whole of that particular issue of "Common Sense" that was printed.

MCGINLEY said that, thereafter, he, MCGINLEY, would send out approximately 20,000 copies of that issue to the regular subscribers of the publication, "Common Sense." The remaining copies which were printed at the order of, and at the expenses of BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, would be taken by FREEDMAN and mailed by FREEDMAN through a mailing service to a large number of individuals who would not be regular subscribers to the newspaper, "Common Sense."

MCGINLEY said that he believes that the first complete issue, "So Taken" by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN was an issue published during October of 1948. He said that this first issue of "Common Sense" published solely for and by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN dealt with Zionism, and contained material against the State of Israel. It also contained information indicating that the Soviet Union would get control of oil in the vicinity of Israel in the event of any war.

According to MCGINLEY, this issue was printed by the International Press Corporation, 178 Maple Avenue, Wallington, New Jersey. MCGINLEY said that [redacted] of the International Press Corporation.

b7c

MCGINLEY said that the second issue of "Common Sense" which was "taken by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN" was some time during November of 1948 or December of 1948. He said that he recalled that the caption on this issue was to the following effect:

"Are We Dupes or Dopes for Marxism"

According to MCGINLEY, this second issue of "Common Sense" published solely for and by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN in November or December of 1948, was printed at the Western Newspaper Union, a printing establishment in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. MCGINLEY said that FREEDMAN paid this printing company directly for the printing of the second issue.

MCGINLEY said that, during 1950, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had loaned him approximately $1100, which monies were advanced to MCGINLEY at various times in various sums all by checks and all drawn on the same bank, that is, the Tradesmen's National Bank and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

MCGINLEY said that to the best of his recollection BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN "took" three complete issues of "Common Sense" which were published by and for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN during 1950.

He said that the first issue, put out solely for and by FREEDMAN during 1950, was one which was published sometime during the first three months of 1950. He advised that the theme of this issue was the "Smearbund," and related that this issue contained information concerning the way Communist smear artists attempted to discredit sincere Americans. He advised that he recalls that this issue made mention of WALTER WINCHELL and contained a picture of WALTER WINCHELL, a noted newspaper columnist, on the front page of the issue.

McGINLEY recalled that this second issue of "Common Sense," which was published solely by and for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, was published sometime in the early Fall of 1950. He said that this issue dealt with an exposure of "Yiddish Marxists." He further recalled that this was a twelve-page paper which, he said, was larger than an ordinary issue. He said further that he recalled that the theme of this issue was that "Yiddish Zionists Plot Defeat of the United States by the USSR."

McGINLEY said that the third issue of "Common Sense" which was printed solely for and by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN was an issue published around the end of November, 1950. He advised that this issue dealt with the information concerning ANNA M. ROSENBERG.

McGINLEY said that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN paid the International Press Corporation of Wallington, New Jersey, directly for the printing of these three full issues of "Common Sense" during the year of 1950.

McGINLEY further recalled that, after BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee concerning the appointment of ANNA M. ROSENBERG, FREEDMAN had been berated by FREEDMAN'S wife. He said that he recalled that FREEDMAN'S wife in McGINLEY'S presence had told BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN that he could not hope to be successful in these efforts against ANNA M. ROSENBERG. McGINLEY further advised that he recalls some statement by FREEDMAN'S wife to the effect that "you can't beat City Hall." McGINLEY said that, in order to satisfy his wife, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had written up a new issue of "Common Sense," and had started the printing of this new issue at the printing plant of International Press Corporation,

Wallinton, New Jersey, shortly before Christmas, 1950.

According to McGINLEY, in this issue FREEDMAN contemplated setting out some derogatory information concerning FULTON LEWIS, JR., the columnist and radio commentator. McGINLEY said that he did not know this until after a great many of the copies of this contemplated issue of "Common Sense" had already been printed by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. He said that he spoke to FREEDMAN on the telephone and told him that he would not permit any attacks on FULTON LEWIS, JR., to be made through the medium of "Common Sense." McGINLEY said that he told FREEDMAN that he, McGINLEY, was convinced that FULTON LEWIS, JR., was a sincere American who was doing his best to defeat the inroads of Communism in this country. McGINLEY said that he further told FREEDMAN that, accordingly, he would not permit any attacks upon sincere Americans who were anti-Communist. He said that FREEDMAN insisted that this information concerning FULTON LEWIS, JR., be printed in this contemplated issue of "Common Sense." McGINLEY did not agree with FREEDMAN and could reach no agreement on this point. Thereafter, [redacted] went to the printing plant of International Press Corporation shortly before Christmas, while there was a Christmas party being held there for the employees of the International Press Corporation. [redacted] examined a copy of this issue which had been already run off the press at International Press Corporation. He ascertained that this issue still contained the "attack" on FULTON LEWIS, JR., and so advised [redacted] CONDE McGINLEY, by telephone. CONDE McGINLEY then told [redacted] to pick up all the copies of this issue which had been printed thus far. [redacted] followed these instructions and picked up several thousand copies, which he brought to the offices of "Common Sense."

That same night, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN accompanied by FREEDMAN'S wife and an elderly gentleman whose name is not known to McGINLEY came to the offices of "Common Sense." McGINLEY told FREEDMAN that this contemplated issue would not come out unless FREEDMAN removed the material concerning FULTON LEWIS, JR. FREEDMAN said that he would not remove this material and, thereafter, left the offices of "Common Sense," and has had no business dealings with McGINLEY since.

McGINLEY said that that particular issue of "Common Sense" which was to be published solely for and by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN was never circulated by "Common Sense." He advised that later he had seen the issue of "Know the Truth," published on January 2, 1951. He said that this publication contained most of the material which FREEDMAN had wanted to put in "Common Sense."

McGINLEY recalled that, when FREEDMAN was at the offices of "Common Sense" around Christmas of 1950, the elderly gentleman accompanying FREEDMAN was a person of 80 to 85 years of age, small in stature and with gray hair. He said that this individual apparently had no interest in the matter but was merely a person who had been dining with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN that evening and had accompanied FREEDMAN and his wife to the offices of "Common Sense" solely because he happened to be in FREEDMAN'S company at the time. He said that this individual took no part in the discussions except to try to act as peacemaker at one or two points during the discussion.

McGINLEY further recalled in that connection that, since FREEDMAN had testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee concerning ANNA M. ROSENBERG, Mrs. FREEDMAN had been receiving all kinds of threats by telephone. He said that FREEDMAN'S wife had urged him to drop this matter altogether. McGINLEY said that this was apparently done by FREEDMAN'S wife because of these alleged threats. McGINLEY said that he could not explain further concerning these threats since he had no knowledge of them himself.

McGINLEY advised that these various issues of "Common Sense" which were published solely by and for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN during 1948 and again during 1950 contained material apparently solely written by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. He said that these particular issues contained only the writings of BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN and no material by any of the staff of "Common Sense" appeared therein. McGINLEY related that, to the best of his knowledge, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had written this material by himself without the assistance of any one.

McGINLEY said that he had never met any other persons associated with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN other than FREEDMAN'S wife and the maid at the FREEDMAN home. He said that he knew that [redacted] was an Attorney who had assisted FREEDMAN in a legal way in other matters, but he advised that he had never met [redacted] in company with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. McGINLEY related that he had been to the home of BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN on one occasion, but said he had met no one at this time other than FREEDMAN'S wife and the household maid.

McGINLEY said that he knew of no offices maintained by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, and advised that he had no knowledge that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN had secured money from any one to assist him in his publication of the various issues of "Common Sense" or to assist FREEDMAN in advancing monies to McGINLEY for "Common Sense." McGINLEY further said that he had never received any money from or through the wife of BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, Mrs. ROSE FREEDMAN. He said that he knew of no bank accounts for either of the FREEDMANS other than the one previously mentioned for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

In regard to the November 1, 1950 issue of "Common Sense" which issue, McGINLEY said, dealt with ANNA M. ROSENBERG, it is his recollection that approximately 50,000 copies of this issue were printed. He said that he would have taken approximately 20,000 copies of this issue for circulation among the regular subscribers to "Common Sense," and advised that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN would have distributed the remaining copies through a mail service to individuals other than the regular subscribers of "Common Sense."

McGINLEY said that he could not estimate the cost of the printing of that particular issue. He advised that the cost may have been as high as $7,000. He said that he cannot estimate the cost since he knows that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN was very extravagant in regard to printing charges for the various issues of "Common Sense" published solely by and for FREEDMAN. He explained that FREEDMAN would have copies reprinted several times until he thought that the printing type was the right type. Further, MCGINLEY stated that FREEDMAN thought nothing of having typographers repeat the setting up of the leads and captions for these particular issues several times until he thought that these various captions were set up in the best manner possible. MCGINLEY related that in this way the charges for printing of each particular issue could amount to several times what that issue should cost if it was only run off one time. MCGINLEY further said that he knows that BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN paid other expenses in regard to the circulation of the copies of this particular issue other than those circulated to the regular subscribers of "Common Sense." MCGINLEY explained that, concerning the copies circulated by FREEDMAN personally, FREEDMAN would pay one and one-half cents to a mailing company in New York City for the mailing of each copy of this issue, and further would pay two cents for the stamps for the mailing of each copy and one cent for the envelope in which each copy was mailed.

MCGINLEY was asked if he had any business dealings with the Benart Mail Service. He said he had not, and did not know the location of this mail service but advised that, now that the name was mentioned to him, he recalled that there was some connection between BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN and the Benart Mail Service. He said that he cannot recall whether FREEDMAN utilized this mail service or not, but believes he recalls the name Benart Mail Service somehow in connection with BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. He indicated that, to his knowledge, FREEDMAN had had no personal or financial interest in Benart Mail Service, and advised that he believed it is possible that this may have been the mailing service utilized by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN to send out copies of the issues of "Common Sense" published by and for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. However, MCGINLEY advised that he was not certain of this.

MCGINLEY said that he had never met RALPH DE SOLA, and further said that he knew of no one named RUSSELL MAGUIRE. He related that he had never heard FREEDMAN make mention of any friend of FREEDMAN'S who would be associated with the Thompson Machinegun business.

McGINLEY did not have with him any of the copies of the issues of "Common Sense" which had been published solely by and for BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN.
